CONTAINING ENTIRE A NEW NOVEL,

BY G. P. R. JAMES, ESQ., Author of " Richelieu," " The King's Highway," " Corse de Leon," " The Huguenot," &c. "Corse de Leon," "The Huguenot," &c.

In consequence of the unprecedented success which has attended the publication of Bulwer's New Novel, "ZANONI," of which five editions and twenty-six thousand copies were issued, the Fublisher of the New World announces his intention of continuing these Extras by the publication of all new and popular works by the most distinguished authors of the present age, and at so low a price, as to place the perusal of every valuable book which may be issued, in the power of the entire reading public of America. To carry out this plan, we shall issue a second Extra Double Number of the New World on Monday, the 16th May, containing entire, Jame's last Novel,

An Historical Tale of the Fourteenth Century, giving an account of the celebrated insurrection of the Peasantry of France against the Nobles, possessing the most intense and thrilling interest, and strictly conforming to the factor of history. The adventures and hair-breadth escapes, massacres, and become, etc., of that atomic time of the Maddle Ages, are told with g prover and effect, seldom exceeded by the most eminent writers.
