THE O'CONNELL ANNUITY. From a Pamphlet by O'Connell, in reply to the Earl of Shrewsbury. "But I will not consent that my claim to 'the real' should be misinterpreted. That claim may be rejected; but it is understood in Ireland, and it shall not be mis-stated anywhere without refutation. My claim is this. For more than twenty years before emancipation, the burden of the cause was thrown upon me. I had to arrange the meetings—to prepare the resolutions—to furnish supplies to the correspondents—to examine the cause of each person complaining of practical grievances—to roam the torrid—to animate the luke-warm—to control the violent and indomitable—to avoid the shoals and breakers of the law—to guard against multiplied treacheries—and at all times to oppose, at every peril, the powerful and multitudinous enemies of the cause."
