NEW MAP OF CANADA, &c.

NOW Engraving in England in the first style of the Art—and will be published early in the ensuing spring.

A Map of Canada and the Lower Provinces,
COMPILED AND DRAWN BY MR. EDWARD STAVELEY, Civil Engineer.

An accurate Map of the British North American Provinces has long been a desideratum, and the publishers feel confident that the one now announced will afford satisfaction to the Public.

The Compiler and Draftsman has fulfilled his task with great fidelity and ability—every competent judge, who has seen his production having pronounced it an admirable specimen of graphic skill. Mr. Staveley had access to the best sources of information, and was particularly indebted to the Surveyor General Mr.
Parke, and the Chairman of the Board of Works the Hon. H. H. Killaly, for the use of the abundant materials in their respective departments. The map will be on a scale of 28 miles to the inch. It will show the new Municipal Divisions in both sections of the Province, together with a large amount of other matter not introduced into any Map published hitherto.

In the margin, Maps shewing the Cities of Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, and Kingston, with their respective environs, on a convenient scale, with a plan of the Falls of Niagara and its vicinity will be introduced.

The Map will be sold in a convenient form for the pocket, for the use of Emigrants, Travellers and others, and on rollers for Counting Houses and Public Offices. The price will be low, so as to ensure a ready and extensive sale.

SUPERIOR ALE & BEER,
AT THE CITY BREWERY.
THE City Brewery Company, have now in their Cellars a large Stock of BOTTLED ALE, which they recommend to Innkeepers and Private Families, for its quality and cheapness. The quality being nothing inferior to that of Alton or Edinburgh Ale, and the price at 6s. 3d. per gallon, exclusive of bottles. A discount of 10 per cent. being allowed on purchases exceeding 3 dozen.

Their BEER is so generally and favorably received, that it is deemed unnecessary to say anything in commendation of it, and any quantity over 5 gallons is now sold by them at the reduced price of 10s. per gallon; the 5 gallon Cask held at the usual price of 1s.
Kingston, 20th January, 1844.

From the Anglo American, 9th Dec. 1843,
"The new City Brewery well deserves notice. They are following hard, in this Establishment, on our celebrated Albany Breweries in the manufacture of a very superior article of Ale."

CHEAP CASH STORE!

AS the Subscribers have opened a Wholesale and Retail Grocery and PROVISION STORE, on the corner of King and Brock Street, on the Market Square; they would respectfully request the inhabitants of Kingston and surrounding country, to call and examine their Stock of GOODS, which will be found inferior to none in town, and at such prices as cannot fail to give general satisfaction.

They would particularly solicit the attention of Tavern-keepers, Town and Country dealers, to their superior selection of TEAS, SUGARS,
Fruit, Wines, Liquors, Coffee, Cigars, Tobacco, Pipes, Oil, Lye Stuffs, &c. &c. Together with every other article usually kept in a Grocery and Provision Store.

HEIR WANTED.
SHOULD this Notice be read by DAVID CARGILL, sometime Lawyer's Clerk in Arbroath, North Britain, afterwards in Edinburgh, Son of Thomas Cargill, late Baker, Arbroath, he, or any Party who may know anything concerning him, will please communicate either with the undersigned, or with Messrs. J. G. Heath, & Co., at Quebec or Montreal.

David Cargill left Edinburgh, for America, about the year 1830; and, seven or eight years ago, it was reported he was employed about a Steamboat at Quebec or Montreal. His Father and Mother are since dead; and, as he is interested in some property, he, or his heirs are required to co-operate with the rest of the family, in the management of the property left to them by the said Thomas Cargill.

In soliciting an extension of public patronage, J. C. feels bound to express his cordial thanks to his old customers and friends, for the kind support which they have hitherto rendered him in his old stand, below the Post Office, and he assures them, as well as the public, that nothing shall be left undone on his part to merit a continuance of that patronage he has hitherto received.

His present Stock has been carefully selected in the best Houses in the Montreal and New York markets, under his own immediate inspection, a fact which he thinks will warrant the assertion that they are the choicest Goods in this Market, and will be disposed of at the very lowest remunerating prices for Cash.

New Reform Journal in Mon-tréak.

IT is the intention of the Subscriber to publish immediately in the City of Montréal, a Newspaper to be called "THE PILOT," and which will be issued daily from the 1st May to the 1st November, and tri-weekly from the 1st November to the 1st May, at £1 5 0 per annum. There will be a weekly edition for the country, which will contain the editorial and other reading matter of the daily, and which will be published at 6d. per annum. Until the arrangements are fully completed, the Pilot will be published semi-weekly, viz, on Tuesdays and Fridays, and the first number will appear on the 1st March.
The Reformers of Upper Canada will, it is hoped, estimate the importance of having a journal at the Seat of Government to advocate the principles which they have on all occasions so nobly maintained. The price of the weekly edition has been fixed very low, and the subscriptions must in all cases be paid in advance.
Although the main object in establishing the Pilot is to secure for the Reformers of British origin an organ at the Seat of Govt., will advocate the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests of the Canadian people, while defending their rights and liberties. The office of the Pilot will, for the present, be at St. Theresa street, to which place the subscribers must in all cases be paid in advance.
All communications and advertisements may be sent. Those proprietors of public journals who wish to exchange with the Pilot, will be good enough to forward their papers to the Editor, and the supporters of Reform, both in Upper and Lower Canada, are requested to use active exertions to procure subscribers on the terms stated above.
FRANCIS HINCKS,
Montréal, Feb. 24, 1844.

From Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

THE PROPHECY OF THE TWELVE TRIBES.
"And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days."
"Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father."—GEN-ESIS, xlix. 1, 2, &c.

The Patriarch sat upon his bed—
His cheek was pale, his eye was dim;
Long years of weal had bow'd his head,
And feeble was the giant limb.
And his twelve mighty sons stood nigh,
In grief—to see their father die!

But, sudden as the thunder-roll,
A newborn spirit fill'd his frame,
His fainting visage flash'd with soul,
His lip was touch'd with living flame;
And burst, with more than prophetic fire,
The stream of Judgment, Love and Ire.

"REUBEN," thou spearest in his pride, Thy father's first-born, and his shame;
Unstable as the rolling tide,
A blight has fall'n upon thy name.
Dearly shall follow thee thy thing.
Go, outcast of a hollow'd line!

"SIMEON AND LEVI," sons of blood That still hang heavy on the land;
Your flocks shall be the robber's food,
Your folds shall blaze beneath his brand.
In snare and snare shall ye dwell,
Be scatter'd among Israel!

"JUDAH!" All hail, thou priest, thou king!
The crown the glory, shall be thine;
Thine, in the fight, the eagle's wing—Thine, on the hill, the all and wine.
Thou nations shall turn pale When swells thy roar upon the gale.

"JUDAH," my son, ascend the throne, Thy crown from heaven the unborn king—
The prophetic, mightiest one, Shall stand beside thee on the throne.
Thy earth is paradise again,
And sin is dead, and death is slain!

"Wide as the surges, ZEBULON!"
Thy daring led thee through the sea;
But thou art sink'd beneath the sea;
And strong Isaacar toil for thee.
Thou, reaper of his corn and oil, Lord of the giant and the soil!

"Whoe banner flames in battle's van!"
Wee, man of Israel, a drudge thou art; Thou, sinner than the serpent, DAN!
Prince of the arrow and the sword, Woe to the Syrian chariotier When rings the rushing of thy spear!

"Crush'd to the earth by war and woe, GAD," shall the cup of bondage drain, Till bold revenge shall give the blow
That pays the long arrears of pain.
Thy eye shall glow with tyrant's sign, Thou be my son—and man once more!

"LOVED NAFTALI," thy snow-white hind Shall bark beneath the rose and vine, Froth ASHEN, to the mountain wind, Shall scatter the wither'd bayle-sig.
All bright to both, from birth to tomb,
The heavens all sunshine, earth all bloom!

"JOSEPH!" come near—my son, my son!
Egyptian prince, Egyptian sage,
Child of my first and best-lov'd one,
Be guardian of thy father's age.
Bring Ephraim and Manasse nigh,
And let me bless them ere I die.

"Hear me—Thou God of Israel!"
Thou hast been his living shield,
In the red desert's lion-hell,
In Egypt's famine-stricken field,
In the dark dungeon's chilling gloom,
In Pharaoh's chain—by Pharaoh's throne.

"My son, all blessings be on thee,
Be blest abroad, be blest at home;
Whoe valiant warrior by battle-sig, Blest be thy valley, blest thy hill, Thy father's God be with thee still!

"Thou man of blood, thou man of might,
Thou shalt shall ravine, BENJAMIN!
Thou wolf by day, thou wolf by night,
Rushing through slaughter, spoil, and sin;
Thy eagle's eye shall be a battle-sig, Shall curse thy nation with a king!"

"The privileges of the first-born passed away from the tribe of Reuben, and were divided among his brethren. The double portion of the inheritance was given to Joseph—the pre-eminence to Levi—and the sacer-dotal power, and it was the first which was carried into captivity.

"The massacre of the Shechemites was the crime of the two brothers. For a long period the tribe of Simeon was depressed, and its position, on the verge of the Amalekites, always exposed it to suffering.
The Levites, though finally entrusted with the priesthood, had no inheritance in Palestine: they dwelt scattered among the tribes.

"The tribe of Judah was distinguished from the beginning of the nation. It led the van in the march to Palestine. It was the first appointed to expel the Canaanites. It gave the first prince, Othniel. It was the tribe of David, and, most glorious of all titles was the Tribe of the Lord.

"Zebulun was a maritime tribe, its location extending along the sea-shore, and stretching to the borders of Sidon. The tribe of Issachar were located in the country afterwards called Lower Galilee; were chiefly of the soil; were never distinguished in the military or civil transactions of the nation, and as they dwelt among the Canaanites, seem to have harbored their qualities and history.

"Gad, a tribe engaged in continual and memorable conflicts.
* Naphtali and Asher inhabited the most fertile portions of Palestine.
† The two tribes Ephraim and Manasse, descended from Joseph, possessed the finest portion of the land, along both sides of the Jordan. The united tribes numbered a large population, and were distinguished by their strength and valour, might be an emblem of the qualities and history.
