WEUNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1841.

COURT OF GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE.

Yesterday the Court of General Quarter Session: of the Peace in and for the Midland District was epened in this place by Stafferd Kirkpatrick, Esq., Acting Chairman, in the absence of John S. Cartwright, Esq. The Criminal Calendar, we regret to learn, is unusually heavy. The learn d Chairman addressed the Grand Jury to the following effect. M . Poster will Continue of the Grand Jury.

The cases which will be submitted for your ca sideration during the present Sessions are chiefly o the ordinary nature of crimes of which this Court takes cognizance. Many, if not all of you have frequently discharged the duties of Grand Jurors-and the clear and lucid manner in which your duties have been frequently explained by the talented individual whose seat I temporarily eccupy, render it quite unnecessary for me now to notice them. Next to intemperance, idleness is generally admitted to be one of the most prolific sources of crime. With a view to the employment of the indigent and idle, an act was passed by the Provincial Parliament in the year 1837, to provide for the ercetion of Houses of Industry in the various Districts in the Province of Upper Canada, and authority was given to the Magistrates in longer under the control of the Magistrates, the pow- have been obliged hitherto to wade through 5 or 6 er which the set I have alluded to gave them has miles of mud, two or three feet deep, ere they could action taken on the matter by that body in February which they are heavily taxed. The formation of a last, it appears that without some new Legislative Macademized or Plank Road from Montreal to Toenactment it is not considered expedient to carry the measure into operation. I trust, however, that at no the Province. We feel satisfied that such an underper that the Midland District may derive the benefit the attention of the Provincial Legislature. of a House of Refuge for the indigent, as well as a whise crimes are not thought sufficiently memors to warrant their being sentenced to the Penetentiary. While on the other hand no adequate punishment is provided, as imprisonment in the District Gael in being only to render bad werse. I think it proper to the ground, thereby starting the horses. The wheels mention that the District Council some time since placed at the disposal of the Magistrates the sum of £200, for the purpose of establishing a temporary House of Industry, this sum remains unexpended, and from the enquiries I have made I am satisfied that it would be futile to commence in a temporary manner, an establishment which can only be effective when instituted on a permanent basis. In the discharge of your duty you will, of course, visit the Gael and report on the general state of the prisoners confined in it, as well as any particular matter which may be brought under your natice.

The improvement and welfare of the District is ceeasienally noticed by the Chairman of this Court in his address to the Grand Jury, and I shall, therefore, say a few words on our present prospects. Before this Court again meets, most probably Kingaton will shall have the pleasure of addressing you at greater this Court again meets, most probably Kingston will have ceased to be the Capital of United Canada. Many persons will at first, no doubt, suffer by the removal of the Seat of Government, but I am by no means one of those who despend on the subject. The Town has become a City, and its natural advantages whether as a Naval and Military station, or as the chief Commercial Town on Lake Ontario must always render it second to none in Western Canada.

Were a main road opened and improved direct to the settlements North of Kingston an artery would be formed which would soon remove the depression attending on the change I have alluded to. As yet the Midland District has received no direct benefit from the improvements which are rapidly progressing in other parts of the Province, but I trust that in time the attention of the proper authorities will be directed towards its capabilities as well as its wants, and that bah will receive that consideration which they so well merit.

Mayor of Kingston .- The annual election of Mayer took place on Monday last, when the Common Council unanimously elected JAMES SAMPSON, Esq. a choice which will, we believe, give general satisfaction. Dr. Sampson was formerly Mayor in the years 1839-40. Mr. Counter, the late Mayor, had become isoligible for re-election by a residence outside of the Corporation limits. This gentleman, who has been our chief-Magistrate for the last three years, has taken a most active part in forwarding the interests of the Town, and though recent events have changed the prospects which the inhabitants generally relied on, and on which the Common Council felt themselves authorized to act, there is no doubt that Mr. Counter throughout his Mayorulty devoted himself to the interests of the Town with a zeal, energy, and forgetfulhere of self, worthy of all praise, and which morits Terento Steamer is expected to-day. the gratitude of the inhabitants. His valuable services will be missed in this present juncture of our public affairs, and it is to be regretted that he could ment from Kingston to Montreal are now rapidly

Clenaghy, M. we are actuated by no narrow selfishness in giving utterance to them. We do not complain of the conduct of our friends across the line .- We merely exhort Canadians to follow their example. British boals are the property of British subjects—manned by British seamen—and why should they not be supported by the British Merchant, the British Traveller and the British Emigrant. The steamers on this and from other receipts, £1,512,839,—making altoside of the Lake are unquestionably better sen-boats, gether £52,582,817 10s. 2d. and in every way more commodious than the American vessels, and should be preferred even on these rounds, and we hope that in future they will be more

R.'s steamers from revers, and the transling community you say this t to their interest and advantage to patronize them. The tourist may leave Kingston in the evening and isit the Falls of Niagara next day. There is a railroad from Queenston to the Falls and Chippews from which Port the new and fast saifing steamboat Emeraid (a notice of which see on first page) plys daily o Buffalo, passing Navy Island and the picturesque scenery of the Ningara River. Th's route is decidedly preferable to that on the American side-where first comes a rough ride of 7 miles from Lewiston to the Falls-thence by railroad to Buff do, which passes through a dismal, swampy, uncultivated country.

We understand that sufficient funds will shortly placed at the disposal of the Commissioners of the Quarter Sessions to provide for their support from the Kingston and Napanec Tumpike Trust, to complete he unfinished section of 5 or 6 miles of road between Although the subject has frequently been under Perry's Corner and Napance. This announcement, consideration, the law as yet remains unacted on we are sure will be very satisfactory to the public, here. The fiscal business of the District being no and more particularly to our Napanee friends, who become rested in the District Council, and from the avail themselves of the advantages of a road for ronto, would be a matter of very great importance to distant day the law will be amended in such a man- taking is practicable, and the subject is well worthy
