Four Pints of Custard for 15d. J. W. BRENT'S

CUSTARD COMPOUND.

HIS preparation is at once elegant £100 per annum. and economical, requiring neither Eggs nor Flavoring; boiling Milk and Sugar being alone necessary to make a Custard of surpassing richness.

It is particularly worthy the attention of Families and Invalids. It possesses a most delicious flavor, and is free from the objection which many persons (and particularly the Faculty) have to Custards made with Eggs. It is invaluable to persons travelling, as it will keep for any length of time, and in any climate, if kept dry. Being highly 16. Pronutritious, it will be found of great service election. as a food for Invalids and Children. Sold in Boxes, 15d. each, sufficient to make four pints of Custards; and in Tin-Canisters containing twice the quantity, 2s.
