Yesterday the Consocation of this institution met for the conferring of degrees and the martriculation of students. We give below a lut of the degrees ecoferred. We trust in our next to furnish a more extended account of the very interesting proceedings and eloquent addresses delivered on this occasion. The Lord Bishop presided. The Vice President and the several Professors attended in full academic costume. Large numbers attended the Convocation Hall. We are delighted to find youthe of all parties, politics and religious, distinguishing themselves to the noble strife for scademic bonors in this young and rapidly rising institution. Mesers Helliwell, McDonell, Wedd and Boulton obtained each a first class in the order of their names. Crookshank a second and Draper a fourth.

GUERRY MEAT MARKET.

To escet this ket the States of Guernscy voted to or about the 1 1821, £4000, and issued 4000 £1 notes, not bag interest. The contractor, at dates agreed upreceived those notes in paymen of instalments, ith them he paid wages, & what he ewed for matte used in the construction of the vote of the States, who constituted the Parliament of the island, the property of every man on the island, real as well us personal, was pledged for their validi-

When the market was completed, it consisted of 80 shops, which were let at a rental of five pounds each, thus yielding an annual revenue of four bundred

At the expiration of the first year, notice was giren to all persons holding meat market notes numbered from one to four hundred, both inclusive, to bring them before the President of the States, and the comhis kindness in attending the meeting to-day, and al-mittee of the Mest Market. Then with the four hun-so for the interest he has uniformly taken in the dred pounds received from the butchers for the first committee. Thus in ten years all the notes were cancelled, and the building fell in possession of the States and rental in perpetuity, without the cost of a shilling to any individual. The accuracy of this can readily to tested by a visit to the spot.

Afterwards a fish market was erected, and redcomed in a similar mancer. Since this a much larger operation has been enthe Newcastle District, John B. Marks, Thomas A. tered upon in the erection of a street called Fountain Street, some of the notes of which are now current and other great works in this island have been accomplished by similar monetary means. Con-cur-rently with this, it may be noted—first the Guernary sustains a population of eleven hundred souls per square mile, while England and Ir-land only sustain square mile, while England and Irrland only sustain two hundred and fifty per square mile; and secondly, that we have four million of paypers out of twenty eight millions, a beggar is scarcely to be seen in Guernsey. In confirmation of this remarkable fact, as regar is Guernsey, reference may be had to an article published in the Examiner newspaper, under date of September, 1832, and attributed to Mr. Frederick Hall, Guernspeen Inspector of Privages in Sect. erick Hill, Government Inspector of Prisons in Scot

> " With these facts before the world, and for which the authority of Mr. Duncan, the historian of Guern-sey, can be addresd, it is submitted that it would be very expedient for the Home or Colonial Government to apply the same principle to the re-building of lion of tender money; or a public company might be formed for the purpose of acting under, or in concert with, the local government is, creating an authorized urrency to the requisite extent, with a rie r either of rebuilding the city, or of granting loans of such symbolic money, returnable at a fixed period, to be adranced to individuals for that purpose, and on per constructive. Such a plan, consistent as it is with true and recognised commercial principles, it is submitted would be afuch preferable to a governmen grant of twenty thousand, or even of two or three hundred thousand pounds. It presents the most attainable and economical means of calling into action the resources and energy of the colonists, and of giving immediate and full employment to labor, the ource of all wealth."
