From the I nulon (s', W.1 Linux Katte, March 19, It has falles to our lot to record one of the most trid by Larkin to a young momen, for which Mrs. somely resymmed.

Burn reproved him. He immediately mint to Kingston, Solum relied gun, threatening to shout her. A person casually present, as we understand the account, wrenchafterwards withdren, as we hear no more of his presence, nor that of the young noman before mened the gun out of Larkin's hand, and get it away and

Shortly after Mrs. Bure, with two children, who were with her, and all who were then in the house, having it must be supposed, a presentiment of her danger, took the children, and attempted to save berself in a neighbour's house. She had not hom-ever, left the premises, before Luckus recovered the gun, and at about 20 yards distance, pointed it at Mrs. Burn, and asked her if she was ready to stand her trial. He then deliberately shot her through the heart, and immediately estrict the body to the lent repair, being close to the Market, is smoke-house, and laying it on its back and dis. one of the very best sites for business in this charging the gun at his own bross, full dead in- City.

stantly. The imposet was held late last night by Dr. Phillips, and the evidence was supplied by one of the children, a boy about twelve years of age, and which was given in a clear and satisfactory manner. The werdiet in relation to the deceased, Mrs. Burn, was "Wifful murder committed by Duniel Larkin," and on the body of Larkin, "Died by his own hand, under the instigation of the Devil."

Mrs. Burn had been an inmate of Mrs. Handy's family for about eighteen years, and was both es-teemed and respected by Mr. Handy. Larkin had for some years been in the habit of drinking spirits, and it was doubtless under that influence that the April, at borrible deed was committed, which it has been our without reserve painful duty to narrate.

INFLUENZA AND CONSUMPTION.—It is indeed melancholy truth that thousands fall victims to consumption every year, from no other cause than neglected colds; yet we find hundreds, may thousands, who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks and even months, without thinking of the danger. At first you have what you consider a slight cough or cold; you allow business, pleasure or carelesaness to prevent you from giving it attention; it then settles upon your breast—you become boarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood; a difficulty of breathing ensues, and then you find your own foolish neglect has brought on this complaint. If, then, you value life or health, he warned in time, and don't trifle with your Cold, or trust to any quack nostrum to cure you; but immediately procure a bottle or two of that famous remedy, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is well known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify whose lives have been saved by it.

For influenza it is the very best medicine in None genuine, unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

CONNUBIAL HOOKS AND EYES.

Amelia Simcox, in a letter to a western editor, unbosoms her wrongs as follows:which time my gowns were lastened by eight hooks and eyes. Now, air, you will readily perceive that no woman can com-plestly book and eye bered. While a spinster, she obtains the aid of her eister, rousins, mother or Betty the maid. When she becomes a married woman, the book and eye duty naturally devolve upon the busband. For the first year of my marriage, Simcox, like an affectionate husband hookand-eyed the whole eight; the second year be somewhat previably restricted himself to seven ; the third to six ; the fourth to five; fifth to four ; and so on decreasing until this Suppose, Dr.
