PROSPECTUS.

DOCTOR BARKER, respectfully acquaint his friends and patrons, that as early as circumstances will permit, he will publish the first number of a new COMMERCIAL & POLITI-CAL JOURNAL. (imperial size.) to be called the BRITISH WHIG.

and continue to issue the same every Tuesday and Friday by eight o'clock in the morning.

As the chief object of the pbblisher in attempting a semi-weekly paper, will be of a commercial nature, every endeavour will be made to furnish the latest information relative to the correct state of the Liverpool. Quebec, Montreal, New York, Detroit, York and Kingston markets, together with as ample a detail of European and colonial intelligence as the limits of his paper will afford.

The politics of the paper will be strongly mark d; to compromise them in as few words as possible, suffice it to say, that LIBERAL MEASURES will be advocated upon British Whig principles, as far as they may be found compatible with the locali ties of this Province.

While an ardent attachment to the Crown of Great Britain and her liberal institutions will be manifested, every colonial abuse will be pointed out, every incipient encroachment upon the liberties of the people exposed, & every attention paid to their political wants. The public actions of all individuals will be considered open to comment; at the same time their private transactions will be rigidly respected, and the difficult line of demarcation between a public and private offence, strictly observed.

A years experience in the arduous task of catering for the political public, has taught Doctor Barker to appreciate the difficulties of his undertaking, and has also taught him to know his deficiencies, which is perhaps the best criterion of his intention to remedy them. .

All persons who are friendly to the above underaking, are respectfully requested to subscribe to the paper, and if their circumstances permit, to forward one year's or six month's subscription in advance, to Messrs, Lesslie & Sons, Booksellers, or Mr. D. Williamson, Kingston; or to the present Agents for the Spectator, who will be pleased to remit the same to the above gentlemen without delay.

TERMS.—For the Semi-Weekly paper, one pound per annum if paid in advance, or within three months from the receipt of the first number; and one pound five shillings, if collected at the end of the year, exclusive of postage.

A Weekly paper, composed of the above will be authished every Tuesday afternoon.
