TO THE INHABITANTS OF KINGSTON.

Gentlemen,-In the beginning of the present year, you did me the honor to elect me one of your Church and Town Wardens, and having been dismissed this day from my office of Sexton in the St. George's Church, because I would not reeign the trust you reposed in me. I feel myself bound to lay before you, a particular account of the whole transaction. On the 19th October last, in consequence of some difference about my fees and contingencies, I forwarded the following letter to its direction.

TO THE MINISTERS, CHURCHWARDENS, AND

MEMBERS OF SAINT GEORGE'S CHURCH. Gentlemen.-Being appointed as sexton to St. George's Church, the 31st day January 1831, by a church meeting then called, they allowing me the same salary fees, presents and privileges as my predecessor; on that faith and account, I entered and accepted the the office with the intention not to leave it as long as I could give satisfaction during life. But to my surprise on the 15th day of April last my salary was reduced one quarterpart, and the free gift at Christenings, taken from me and given to the Clerk of the Church. The manner it was done, I explained last Tuesday at the meeting, when and where it was proposed that in future the Sexton should have only two shillings and sixpence for a grown persons grave and one shilling and three-pence for a young person, (they being considered Paupers.) I am well aware that other people will pay no it would be found on due examination, that instead of the Sexton having a salary for holding the other, he will in fact have to pay for keeping it. And after a due consideration of the circumstances alluded to, I beg bare to resign the office if the alteration continues in effect, on Monday the 21st inst. with the exception I am allowed my salary as at first when I accepted the office on the faith of the church, when I considered the church would fulfill their part, if I fulfilled mine. Gentlemen, I remain Your most obedient servant,

W. P. COOK.

Kingston, October 19th, 1833.

N. B .- The Church takes on an average three working day in the week (besides the Sabbath) to do the duty, and gentle men you must be fully aware of the difficulty the office of Sexton has to contend with during the winter season. The whole of last season my duty was much increased, and

I may say nearly double during the prevalence of the Cholera, and also the Catechising of the children in the Church in creases the dutyof Sexton, in cleaning of the church, cutting equivalent to four days services in the week in your own estimation, and gentlemen ought the fees of the Sexton be re-A number of highly respectable gentlemen having put their signatures to a document that my fees ought rather to be encreased than diminished, my resignation was not then accepted, and on the implied faith that I should be allowed my full perquisites, I continued in my situation. On the 5th January, you did me the honor to elect me one great offence to certain gentlemen, who were shocked and scandalized that one and the same individual should hold two such offices as Sexton and Church Warden. On the 31st March, Easter Monday, at the Church Meeting, a very few gentlemen present, among other matters the following resolutions were passed. It was moved by Mr. William Wilson, seconded by Mr. John Cartwright, that no contingent account whatever be in future allowed the Sexton, which was carried.

It was resolved, that in future no Sexton, Clerk, Organist, or other officer of the Church should be Church-warden, each subscriber, postage included. and that when any of the said persons shall be elected Churchwarden, he shall be considered as having resigned such office as Sexton, Clerk, or Organist, Curried.

At this meeting, although I had consented to remain in my office in October last, on the fath that my bill of contingences would be allowed, I was deprived of more than half of it. the very money I had paid out of my pocket for the Church

I was then called upon to resign one of my offices instantly, which I refused wanting a short time to consider.

As the whole of the meeting expressed the highest approba tion of my conduct as Sexton, I did not feel myself bound t resign that office, and the one to which you elected me, I was unable to quit, having sworn to serve during the year. Another resolution was then passed in these words. Resolved. The Clerk requesting a short time to consider whether he will resign the Sextonship and will give an intimation of his intention to the Minister-six days are hereby On Friday last, I forwarded the following letter to its direc-

To the Ministers and Pero holders of St. George's Church. Gentlemen, Being unjustly compelled to resign the office of Sexton or the office of Town warden by a resolution passed, by a few gentlemen at the vestry meeting, held the thirty-first day of March just past, in the space of six days, after due consideration, I find the Church request the Sexton to perjure himself or resign the office of Sexton by the said resolution, under a vain excuse that the two situations were incompatible with each other, when, at the last Easter meeting two vestey men were chosen for the very purpose of taking charge of the Church funds, that the Church warden chosen by the Town, should have no interference with the Church-therefore my being Church warden would have been only a name, while a Sexton, but a Church warden (chosen as I have been.) can act legally, and the vestry men are only assistants to the Church wardens. I was Church warden in the year 1813 and in 1817 at St. Charles Church, Plymouth, therefore I know the duty of a Chuch warden, Clerk and Sexton. Am I to perjure myself for the sake of a situation worth about thirteen pounds ten shilliegs a year, that is on account of not being aflowed my bill of Contingencies as A is called.

£20 0 0 The amount of my salary Allowance for Contingencies Leaving a balance for the Sexton Amount of Bill - - -11 10 104

£13 9 13 Salary of - - - -Respecting the rejection of that bill (£11 10 104) I contend it is unjust, as I withdrew my resignation dated 19th October 1833, on a promise, I should have the same salary and allowances as my predecessor. I am to pay all the winter expences. I am told I must leave the office leaving me a loser of £6.10.101. I forbear saying any more at present on the subject. In conclusion I would beg leave to say, that it is not my wish to resign the situation of Sexton, (unless any just cause of complaint be brought against me,) and I refuse to resign the office of Town warden, the duty of which I have sworn to attend to.

W. P. COOK. Sexton of St. Georges Church. Kingston, 4th April 1834.

This day the following letter was left on the table at the Vestry Meeting at the Meeting of to-day.

To the Ministers and Pewholders of St. George's Church.

As I intend not to be at this meeting, I have taken the liberty of stating of what I have to say in writing.

I contend that the resolutions passed on the 31 day of March last, have no allusion to me as Sexton at the past or present time; it states that, it was resolved that in future no Sexton, the first quality, with the boxes divided in the pro-Clerk, Organist, or other office of the Church should be

And the next resolution is worded as follows, the "Chrk requests a short time to consider whether he will resign the Sextonship, and will give an intimation of his intention to the gage, and about half that quantity is generally suf-

It appears that the gentlemen are not aware that the Churchwarden has power to eall a vestry meeting of both town and township," and such meeting would be legal by law. W. P. COOK, Sexton of St. George's Church.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a copy of the following resolutions was handed to me.

Moved by J. S. Cartwright Esq. seconded by D. J. Smith Esq. that the office of Sexton in St. George's Church is now vacant, carried unanimously.

Moved by J. S. Cartwright Esq. seconded by Charles Anderson Esq. that the Archdeacon & Assistant Minister be requested to appoint another Sexton in lieu of W. P. Cook, curried

Thus Gentlemen you perceive, that because you elected me to an office, which you thought me worthy to fill, I have been dismissed from my former situation as Sexton, without having committed any offence, and that by a meeting consisting of not more than seven individuals-Having laid the affair before I have honor to be, Your grateful Servant. W. P. COOK. Kingston, April 7th, 1834.
