"As the prisoner was about to be discharged, a circumstance occurred in the court which ruffled the feelings of many.
"We were among the number of discontents, and meant to mimudvert on the subject very severely; but as the AMENDE HONORABLE has since been PUBLICLY made, we shall take view than that the gentlemen who felt burt, and who had left the town before the close of the court may know that a full and

NICLE, MAY 30th, 1831, SIGNED JOHN STEWART. In 1828 Mr. Hagerman was Judge of Assize for this circuit. A trial came on before him, in the court house of Perth, for riotous and disorderly conduct of some of my misguided countrymen then employed on the Canal, at the Hog's Back, and I believe, for murder, as one life had been lost. In summing up the evidence and charging the Jury, Mr. Hagerman regret ted that a people, so generous, frank and warm hearted as the Irish, should suffer their passions so far to get the ascendency, as to drive them to such acts of outrageous violence. He like wise reprobated, in strong terms, the sectional and party feelings, which unfortunately exist among too many of my countryinen, and under the momentary impulse of which, they are frequently guilty of the most deplorable excesses; and, in the conclusion, he asserted, that the conduct of such ungovernable spirits was so galling to the feelings of all orderly and respectable Irishmen, as to make them blush for the land of their na-

This was "the very head and front of his offending." must be considered as good authority. I was sitting by the Attorneys' table at the time, reporting the trial for my own pa per, "THE INDEPENDENT EXAMINER," eager to catch every word that transpired.

It is not true, as stated by the correspondent of the Whig, that Mr. Hagerman made an apology to a party of gentlemen, who waited upon him for an explanation. It is true that some ALL persons having claims against the estate of Irishmen misunderstood him, and that there was a good deal of desultory conversation among them respecting the tenor of his charge. Henry Graham, Esquire, of this place, and myself were casually with him on the evening of the same day and upon our metioning the misconstruction of his language which some of our sensitive friends entertained, he declared that so far from attempting to wound the feelings of the Irish, there was no people whom he would more willingly serve and conciliate, as the best and the truest friends he had ever numbered were Irishmen.
