WELLAND CANAL.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Welland Canal company, held at the Welland Canai Office, St. Catharines, on Thursday the 4th of September, the President submitted the following correspondence, which took place in consequence of a notice appearing in the Upper Canada Gazette, under date of July 19th, of which the following is a copy :-

The proceeds to be applied to the support and maintenance of the B'oth ad canal.

Grantman 19th July, 1831." The above was not inselted in the Gazette until late in August. Its being dated from Grantham, induced the President to address a note to the Editor of the Government Official Gazette, stating, in Vessels drawing more than seven feet water will sold in Town and Country. substance, that as he felt convinced there was not be careful not to pass over the buoy, and steam vesmore than one individual in the township of Grantham who possessed a hostile feeling to the Welland canal, he was desirous of ascertaining who it could be, and requested the name of the author, to which the following reply was received :-- "Toronto, 26th August, 1831. "Dear Sir .-

INFORMATION IS WANTED

OF Eliza Galbraith who, with her brother, left the residence of her parent in Lower Canada last fall to reside a few months in this province. On arriving at Prescott, she entered into the service of a Mrs. Welch, a widow lady, who then kept a public house, while her brother proceeded farther up the country to stop during the winter He immediately wrote to her but received no answer. He returned home this spring, and on his way called at the above mentioned place for his sister, but he ne ther could find her, or gain any satisfactory information from the woman with whom she had lived concerning her, and who to his most anxious inquiries, gave but very indifferent and evasive answers. From the period of her stopping at Mrs. Welch's to the present time, her friends have not received the least intelligence as to her fate, or place of residence if living, which leads to the suspicion that there may be some foul play in her case. The object of this notice is to request the authorities of Prescott to investigate the affair and communicate the result to the Editor of the British American Journal. Elizabeth Galbraith is a native of Ireland, about twenty years of age, tall and well formed, black hair, dark blue eyes and light complexion-some-what freckled-and of unexceptionable moral character; wore, when she left home, a leghorn bonnet and a white lace veil. Any person having any knowledge of her will perform an act of humanity by communieating it as above. St. Katharines Sept. 2nd.

A trial came on before him, in the court house of Perth, for riotous and disorderly conduct of some of my misguided countrymen then employed on the Canal, at the Hog's Back, and, I believe, for murder, as one life had been lost. In summing up the evidence and charging the Jury, Mr. Hagerman regretted that a people, so generous, frank and warm hearted as the Irish, should suffer their passions so far to get the ascendency, as to drive them to such acts of outrageous violence. He like wise reprobated, in strong terms, the sectional and party feelings, which unfoltunately exist among too many of my countrymen, and under the momentary impulse of which, they are frequently guilty of the most deplorable excesses; and, in the conclusion, he asserted, that the conduct of such ungovernable spirits was so galling to the feelings of all orderly and respecpable Irishmen, as to make them blush for the land of their na-
