WELLAND CANAL.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Welland Canal company, held at the Welland Canal Office, St. Catharines, on Thursday the 4th of September, the President submitted the following correspondence, which took place in consequence of a notice appearing in the Upper Canada Gazette, under date of July 19th, of which the following is a rake notice, that an application will be made at the next session of the provincial Parliament, for an act to impose a tax of two pence an acre upon all uncultivated lands, in the Niagara, Western, and London districts, and one penny an acre upon all uncultivated lands in this province. The proceeds to be applied to the support and maintenance of the Welland canal.

Grantham 19th July, 1834."

The above was not inserted in the Gazette until late in August. Its being dated from Grantham, induced the President to address a note to the Editor of the Government Official Gazette, stating, in substauce, that as he felt convinced there was not more than one individual in the township of Grantham who possessed a hostile feeling to the Welland canal, he was desirous of ascertaining who it could be, and requested the name of the author, to which the following reply was received :-"Toronto, 26th August, 1834.

zette by desire of Mr. Clark, at the Falls. His wood is laid down upon it. name is given to me as responsible for its appeartified in this case, as in any other, to answer the sels at night will give the pier a good birth. question coming from you, or any other person. Very truly, yours,

ROBERT STANTON. W. H. MERRITT, Esq."

After duly considering the effect this notice might produce, the Board unanimously

Resolved, That they consider it a duty due to themselves and the public, to publish the correspondence, in order that the country may know the true source from whence the notice emanated. By order of the Board,

JOHN CLARK, Sec'y. Welland Canal Office,

St. Catharines, Sept. 4, 1834. N. B. The Government Official Gazette, and other papers, will please give this one insertion.

From the period of her stopping at Mrs. Welch's to the present time, her friends have not received the least intelligence as to her fate, or place of residence if living, which leads to the suspicion that there may be some foul play in her case.

The object of this notice is to request the authorities of Prescott to investigate the affair and communicate the result to the Editor of the British American Journal.

Elizabeth Galbraith is a native of Ireland, about twenty years of age, tall and well formed, black hair, dark blue eyes and light complexion—some-what freekled—and of unexceptionable moral character; wore, when she left home, a leghorn bonnet and a white lace veil. TRIAL OF MR. KIPBON FOR MURDER .- "His Lordship hav ing commented on the evidence and explained the law to the ary in a very able manner, they retired and in a few minutes sturned with a verdict of not guilty.

"As the prisoner was about to be discharged, a circumstance occurred in the court which ruffled the feelings of many. "We were among the number of discontents, and meant to animadvert on the subject very severely; but as the AMENDE HONORABLE has since been PUBLICLY made, we shall take no further notice of it. We mention it now with no other view than that the gentlemen who felt hurt, and who had left the town before the close of the court may know that a full and the other Western Mails. satisfactory atonement was offered." EXTRACT FROM A LETTER IN THE KINGSTON CHRO-NICLE, MAY 30th, 1834, SIGNED JOHN STEWART. In 1828 Mr. Hagerman was Judge of Assize for this circuit. A trial came on before him, in the court house of Perth, for riotous and disorderly conduct of some of my misguided countrymen then employed on the Canal, at the Hog's Back, and, I believe, for murder, as one life had been lost. In summing up the evidence and charging the Jury, Mr. Hagerman regretted that a people, so generous, frank and warm hearted as the Irish, should suffer their passions so far to get the ascendency, as to drive them to such acts of outrageous violence. He like wise reprobated, in strong terms, the sectional and party feelings, which unfortunately exist among too many of my countrymen, and under the momentary impulse of which, they are frequently guilty of the most deplorable excesses; and, in the conclusion, he asserted, that the conduct of such ungovernable spirits was so galling to the feelings of all orderly and respec-

I was sitting by the Attorneys' table at the time, reporting the trial for my own pa "THE INDEPENDENT EXAMINER," eager to catch every word that transpired. It is not true, as stated by the correspondent of the Whig, that Mr. Hager nan made an apology to a party of gentlemen, who waited upon him for an explanation. It is true that some Irishmen misunderstood him, and that there was a good deal black; marked in the left car by a hole; white of desultory conversation among them respecting the tenor of his charge. Henry Graham, Esquire, of this place, and myself were casually with him on the evening of the same day, and upon our mentioning the misconstruction of his language which some of our sensitive friends entertained, he declared that so far from attempting to wound the feelings of the Irish, there was no people whom he would more willingly serve and conciliate, as the best and the truest friends he had ever
