PROSPECTUS

OF A TREATISE ON AGRICULTURE, ADAPTED TO THE

CLIMATE AND CIRCUMSTANCES OF CANADA. A BOUNTIFUL Providence has furnished Canada with inexhausted resources of wealth, in her most fertile soil & climate which is by no means unfavourable to Agriculture. The due improvement of these, & other natural advantages, is capable of giving riches and every reasonable enjoyment to her present, and a vastly increased population.

The importance of Agriculture to Canada, must be obvious to every one capable of forming a sound judgment in such matters. It is Agriculture that must afford the direct supply of all her greatest wants. It must in this, and in every other country. be the parent of Manufactures and Commerce, and the best means of promoting civilization and population; consequently it ever will be the most universal and useful of arts. In almost all nations, the mos powerful individuals derive their wealth and consequence from their property in land, cultivated and managed by the husbandman.

Agriculture, therefore and agriculture alone, can support us without the help of others, in certain plenty, and real dignity. While our ground is covered with corn, and cattle, we can want for nothing. Manufactures and delicaces that we may require from without, corn and cattle will purchase, if we will only raise them in abundance, and excellence.

From the importance of Agriculture, and the great interest that is consequently felt on the subfect, in the British Isles, and other countries of Europe, a varied and voluminous mass of knowledge has been accumulated, which would be most useful to every one who would wish to practice the art with success himself, or understand when well practiced for him by others. To combine as far as practicable the portion of this knowledge which I conceive to be most useful and necessary for the study of the Canadian Agriculturist, is the object of the treatise which I have now nearly ready for the press, and the plan of which I submit with great deference to the consideration of all those engaged in the art. The sources from which I have made selections, are the modern British and French Authors, of decided reputation and merit, with my own observations and experience, during my early years in the occupancy of extensive farms in Ircland, chiefly as a Grazier, & for a period of nearly seventeen years that I have been a farmer in Canada. Several years of the latter period I have had the honor to be Secretary to the District and county of Montreal Agricultural Society.

I propose to publish the work in four or five parts. The first part will give a short view of the origin, progress, and present state of Agriculture, among some of the ancient and modern nations, particularly Great Britain, France, Flanders, the United States, &c. I am aware the past state of Agriculdiy accomplished, the public its prospective attractions. It is necessary then that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more and a watchful real contemplated, the public its prospective attractions. It is necessary then that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more and a watchful real can effect on complement the filling up again in the public its prospective attractions. ture can do little more than gratify the curiosity Not so its present state, which is calculated both to excite our curiosity, and affect our interests. There is probably no country which I shall refer to, that does not possess some animal or vegetable production, or pursue some mode of culture, or management, that might be beneficially introduced into Canada; but with the exception of the countries I have named, and parts of Italy and Switzerland, there are no very interesting Reports of Agriculture of other parts of Europe, with which I am acquainted at present. The second part will exhibit a concise view of the science of agriculture, and the principles on which the operations and results thereof, are founded. The third, and remaining parts will apply those principles to the practice of agriculture, adapting them to the climate and other curcounstances of Canada; and conclude with a few observations on that portion of the trade and commerce of this country in which farmers may be directly or indirectly interested.

Convinced as I fee!, that the produce or agriculture is the only riches due the people of this country con call their own, and which they can never be deprived of, it has often astonished me, that men of liberal education should, in general, appear so little to regard its improvement or prosperity—it fact it is treated as a subject quite remote from common life, by nearly all who are not immediately engaged in it. They perhaps cannot allow themselves to believe that agriculture alone can furnish the means by which trade and commerce can be carried on successfully in Canada.

I sincerely hope to induce all who may take the trouble of reading my book, to reflect on the subjects I shall submit for their consideration, and that they will join heartily in promoting necessary improvements, and thus advance the wealth and prosperity of the land of their birth, & of the choice.

As a work of this description cannot be published in English and French without incurring considerable expense, it would be necessary for me to have as many subscribers as would insure my expenses, Subscription lists will be left at the several Book. Stores in Montreal. The work, I expect, will no exceed four parts, at 1s. 3d. each part. The first, part to be published when there are a sufficient number of Subscribers. I expect the whole might be published before the first of May next.

The four parts will contain from 250 to 30t pages, and may be bound in one volume. I shall do all in my power to make the book worthy of the patronage of all who desire to promote the prosperity of Agriculture, as well as of those who prac-WM. EVANS. Cote St. Paul, Dec. 18, 1831.

GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM Embracing Dramatic Literature-Sportingthe Turf-Fashions-and various subjects of interest and amusement.

About the first of January, 1835, will be commenced in PHILADEL. PHIA, a new periodical, bearing the above comprehensive title. Its contents will be easyfully adapted to the wants of that portion of the police who patronize DRAMATIC LITERATURE, the TURE, SPORT-No. and the FASHIONS. From the growing wealth and increase population of the United States, and the near assimilation of the nation appetite with whatever promotes the rational Recreations of Lie, it is presumed that this journal,—possessing, as the projector, of h will appear then as means to diversify its pages, and a determination to render them a vicut to the formation of a correct taste in all matters relating to its to sign,—cannot fail to meet with a liberal and creditable support from u enlightened community in every quarter of the country. The different of sketching out such a plan as might be fancifully strewed with any of the charms of novelly to ensure it popularity and encouragement has been not the least embarrussing obstacle which the projectors of this work but to surmount in its inception. Feeling confidently assured however, the its success is certain, when its character becomes properly known, the have already incurred considerable expense in forming correspondent over the Union; and have also ordered regular supplies of the best select ed English periodicals to assist in procuring materials for its columns.

appleting the filling up, will be done and that they never will be found defenced or neglectful in the prosecution of this enterprise, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable resuit to themselves and toothers, THE DRAMA-Will form a material portion of the Gendemen's Vade Mecum. It is intended to publish atternately, every week, an estire play and force to be selected with a single eye to their merits alone; a preference, however, will be extended, in all cases to native protections, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, will be regularly inserted, besides Biographical Sketches, Ancologo, and Bon Mots, of prominent Comedians of the present and past ages, of which a rare and mexhaustable compiletion is in store.

THE TURE.—A faithful record will be kept of all the Running and Trotting matches in this country and England, Biographies and correct Portrans of celebrated thorough bred Horses will be published once a month. Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the discuses of this invaluable animal, will be particularly selected.

SPORTING. Under this caption will be enumerated account of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquate Elursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c with Anecdotes of noted Dogs. GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS .- A quarterly review will be per sured, explanatory of the various improvements and changes which cosnines worn in the fashionable circles constantly undergo by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors at a distance, to wit their enstances with the most approved colors and modern style of dres at the earliest possible periods. Providing sufficient encouragement shall be given by this portion of the public, a full length engraving, idearative of the same, will also be prepared and published.

MISCELLANY. - Aitheaugh the purpose of our sheet may appear to be contined to the four leading subjects which have been stated—we deem a proper to say, that there will be, in addition to these, a considerable space dlowed for Miscellancons matters-such as Tales-Poetry-an Eprone of News-Last or Hotels in this city, and Places of amusement-Statis Banks-Counterfeit Note Detector-and all other matters, regarding which an interest may be supposed to exist at home or abroad. This work, then, as will be seen, by the above explanation of its pro-hable character, is particularly designed as a companion for the patron of the Turf, the Draum, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. &c. It will prove dso, -as all its publication of facts will be authentic, -a ready of Record for Reference for Travelling Gentlemen, and should consequently to kept in every hotel in the United States. It is worthy of notice, that is patrons, in the course of one year, will be furnished with fifty-two popefor Plays and Farces—the price of which, separately, at any of corton stores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars! Here there is an absolu saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Dramatic Libraryto be had for an unprecedented small sum :—not taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is to accompany it, without addition charge! Tailors who desire to procure early and correct pformation of the changes in Dress, will find dus an invaluable guide. THE GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECC'd, &c. will be published every Saturday, on time imperial paper, of the largest class, at three 66lars per annum, payable in advance. By enclosing a five dollar note to the publishers, postage paid, two escales of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one pair it is respectfully requested that those who desire to subscribe by the

PROSPECTUS OF THE IRISH ADVOCATE, CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. ER, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER. TO BE PUBLISH, ED THREE TIMES A WEEK, IN MONTREAL.-Although hag he population speaking the English Language in Lower Canada is conmosed of notives of Ireland, and descendents of Irishmen, it is a source of regret, if not of mornification, to many of them, that no Press in this Pro-vince protects their National Character from misrepresentation and insult, or serves as the accredited organ of their Political sentiments. To remedy this evil, and to give to Irislanen that inflaence and power in which their maner cal strength, their respectability, and growing wealth cutiffe them, a number of Irodanen, in Montreal, have resolved to estabish a Paper, to be called the Irish Advocate, Constitu-tional Metormer, and Commercial Advertiser; to be published in this City on the MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY of each week.—As the "Irish Advocate" will be essentially the Irishman's Paper, and as it will spare no pains to render itself worthy of this honorable distinction, it must mainly depend on the Irish population of both Provinces for encouragement and support. Besides afford-ing such information on the subject of Politics, Commerce and Literature, as may be attractive to general readers, the "Irish Advocate" will regularly lay before its patrons the most interesting portions of Irish intelligence. Although, from the nature of our position in the present crisis, the energies of the "Irish Advocate" must be directed towards the producting concord among all persons from Great Britain and Ireland, and their descendants; yet it will neglect no fit opportunity of advocating the Reform of abuses under which the latter Country has so long labored. Deeply impressed with the conviction that the speedy development of the resources of this Province is of paramount importance, the "Irish Advocate" will siremonsly encourage lumnigration, and cheerfully open as columns to the insertion of such matter as may conduce to the general sever this Colony from the Mother Country, or to effect a change in the Constitution, upon whose integrity, it is now plainer than ever, that those speaking the English language in this Province, must rely for their existence and prosperity. From the tone and style in which the Paper will be conducted, and the mechanical neatness with which it will be execued, its friends feel assured that it will bear comparison with the most respectable Periodicals in North America. The proprietors will use their atmost endeavors to render the Paper useful as a medium of Commercial Intelligence, and they, therefore, trust they will receive the support of the influential body of Merchants. The Editorial department will be entrusted to an Irish Roman Catholic gentleman, of ability and character. In Politics, the "Irish Advocate" will support the cause of Constitutional Reform; it will oppose, deprecate and condemn abuses, and will use its utmost efforts for the removal of acknowledged grievances. On all occasions this Journal will display a firm and patriotic determination to advance the prosperity of old country men, and particularly of Irishmen. The IRISH ADVOCATE will be printed on good Paper, of the size now used by the English Journals of this city, and will be charged to subscribers at FOUR DOLLARS per Annum, exclusive of postage, payable sena-annually, in advance Postmasters, Country Merchants, and others, in both provinces, whe may feel an interest in the success of the paper, are respectfully requested to use their best exertions in promoting its circulation in their respect tive neighborhoods. Any gentleman who may procure subscribers, and youch for the resportability of the parties, will be entitled to one paper for every ten subscribers so obtained. Subscribers names to be forwarded to either of the Agents in this city, on or before the 1st of February next. Subscriptions will be received in this City at the Book-Stores of John Campbell and H. McGregor, St. Francois Xavier Street, and at the Erchange News Room. Montreal, Jan. 8, 1835.
