KINGSTON FOUNDRY.

THIS Establishment is now in full operation, and the Proprietor is resolved to spare no expense to render it worthy of public encouragement. He trusts that as to materials and workmanship, and variety of Castings, the Kingston Foundry will be found second to no similar establishment, and that there will hereafter be no necessity for sending to the United States for Castings, when they may be had in this Province.

There will be kept on hand, or manufactured to order all kinds of Castings for Saw Mills and Flour Mills. This establishment is now furnished with patterns of the Oswego and Rochester plans, and persons building Mills can be supplied with good Castings on as reasonable terms, as they can be procured in the State of New-York. Saw Mill Cranks; Fulling Mill Cranks; Mill Screws, at £3; Lighter Screws and Clothier's Screws; Die Stalks, Taps, and Dies for Screwing Bolts, on the best plan; Sleigh Shoes and Fanning Mill Irons; Four different kinds of Ploughs; Waggon Boxes; Pipe Boxes, and Axle-trees for Carriages. Screw Tops made from 4 to 20 threads to the inch. Letters cut for brands and stamps.

BRASS CASTINGS

made of every dimension. Cast Steel Axes, wholesale or retail. All kinds of Iron Finishing done in the best manner. In addition to the present conveniences for casting, the proprietor is now building a Cupola, so as to be able to make a casting from 1000 to 2000 lbs. weight. The public are invited to examine the works of the Foundry, and judge for themselves. The Proprietor thinks it will compare in finish and cheapness with that of any other establishment of the kind. A Pattern Maker kept at the Foundry, to make patterns, if required.

—ALSO—

Burr Mill Stones of every size and Bolting Cloths of the best description, fully as cheap as can be procured in any part of the United States. The former manufactured here by Mr. L. Bostwick. Kingston, January 1, 1835. The Hollowell paper, Belleville Intelligencer, Cobourg Star, Port Hope Warbler, and Brockville Recorder, will give the above three insertions; sending their accounts to the Chronicle & Gazette Office.

TO SHOP KEEPERS.

THE Subscriber has constantly on hand, a quantity of PATENT PAISLS. To be sold wholesale at the Manufacturer's prices. Kingston, Dec. 18th 1834. W. P. COOK.

PROSPECTUS

OF A WORK TO BE ENTITLED THE MILESANS, OR AN INQUIRY INTO THE ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE IRISH, BY ROBERT JEFFERS. TO THE PUBLIC.

SOME of the Greatest and most Important Discoveries had their rise from (apparently) trivial or accidental circumstances. One of the most distinguished Members of the Highland Society of Kingston, in a company where the author of this "Inquiry" was present, asserted that "the Irish had their origin from the Highland, or what he called the Celtic Scots; and that the Progressors of both the one, and the other, had come across the Strait of Dover, from the continent of Europe." This simple occurrence determined the Author to institute this inquiry. He hopes to prove beyond possibility of successful contradiction— I. That the Irish are Progressors, in this case, and not Descendants. II. That all who have rightful claim to the Gaelic and Irish as their native Language had ONE common origin. III. That their First-Fathers did NOT come across the Strait of Dover, nor from the Continent of Europe. IV. That although Geographical and Providential circumstances cause the Highlanders to be now considered as part and parcel of the Scottish Nation, their natural connection is with Ireland. And that as to Origin and Language, they have no more connection with the Low-land Scots, than they have with the population of Sweden or Russia. In the prosecution of this Work, a "mite" will be thrown in, towards the most desirable of Irish things, a union among the Sons of Erin; as well as a kindly feeling between them and all other Nations. It is also hoped to remove just ground of prejudice against the National Character: and by wiping off the tarnish of unjust misrepresentation to exhibit the pure EMERALD in all its native lustre: so that it shall be proved an honor (and not a disgrace) to be connected with Ireland. In fine, the Author is confident he can prove that the IRISH is the most peculiar and interesting nation (the Jews not excepted) that exists, or has existed on the face of the Earth.

CONDITIONS.

The work shall come out in numbers, price one quarter Dollar each. And as the Author does not expect to gain, (except in his National gratification,) he cannot afford to lose—It is therefore expected that each subscriber will pay for one number in advance, on putting down his name, to the Author, or to Mr. David Leahy of Kingston, with whom the account will be deposited, until the numbers are given into his hands for delivery. Public spirited and influential Irishmen in Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, &c. &c. are requested to add in the subscription for, and sale of this work. When any amount worth forwarding is subscribed, they will please enclose their money directed to Archibald McDonald, Esq. (not McDonald) Huzar Bank, Kingston, who shall retain it, until the numbers are delivered to him to be forwarded. As there is a Fellow Citizen (of Cork) with the Author, who fills a high situation in Charleston, S. C. HE is hereby most respectfully solicited to assist in the furtherance, and sale of this IRISH Work. All Editors in Canada and the United States, who feel friendly to the "Irish," will please to insert this Prospectus, and those who continue to do so, shall be entitled to a copy of the Work. Kingston, February 17, 1834. N. B.—Those who wish to act as Agents for this work, on their forwarding the price of $1.00 in numbers, they shall have forwarded to them 10. For 16, they shall have 18; for 25, they shall have 25, for the price of 54, they shall have forwarded 63.

GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM.

Embracing Dramatic Literature—Sporting—the Turf—Fashions—and various subjects of interest and amusement. About the first of January, 1835, will be commenced in PHILADELPHIA, a new periodical, bearing the above comprehensive title. Its contents will be carefully adapted to the wants of that portion of the public who patronize DRAMATIC LITERATURE, THE TURF, SPORTING, and the FASHIONS. From the growing wealth and increasing population of the United States, and the near assimilation of the national appetite with whatever promotes the rational recreations of Life, it is estimated that the number of persons who will be employed in the various pursuits of the Turf, and in the various amusements of the day, will be so great, as to demand a determination to render them subservient to the formation of a correct taste in all matters relating to its designs.—cannot fail to meet with a liberal and creditable support from an enlightened community in every quarter of the continent. The difficulty of sketching out such a plan as might be fancifully strewed with any of the charms of novelty to ensure its popularity and encouragement has been the least embarrassing obstacle which the projectors of this work had to surmount in inception. Feeling confidently assured however, that a successful result can effect in completing the filling up of the work, and that they never will be found deficient or negligent in the prosecution of this enterprise, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable result to themselves and to others.

THE DRAMA will form a material portion of the Gentlemen's Vaude Mecum. It is intended to publish alternately, every week, an article play and farce—to be selected with a single eye to their merits alone; a reference, however, will be extended, in all cases, to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their merit, will be regularly inserted.—besides Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots, of prominent Comedians of the present and past ages, of which a rare and inexhaustible compilation is in store.

It is not altogether the feasible, when a new publication is contemplated, to present in detail to the public its prospective attractions. It is necessary nevertheless, that its principal features should be drawn out, as it is by them that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more readily accomplished, the more fully the projectors are satisfied that whatever industry and a watchful eye can effect in completing the filling up of the work, and that they never will be found deficient or negligent in the prosecution of this enterprise, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable result to themselves and to others.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purpose of our sheet may appear to be confined to the four leading subjects which have been stated—we deem it proper to say, that there will be, in addition to these, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matters—such as Tales—Poetry—an Edition of News—List of Hotels in this city, and Places of Amusement.—Statistics—The Grain Market—Agriculture—Prices of Stock—List of Broken Banks—Counterfeit Note Detection—and all other matters, regarding which an interest may be supposed to exist.

This work, then, as will be seen, by the above explanation of its probable character, is particularly designed as a companion for the patron of "The Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. &c." It will prove, also, as all its publication of facts will be authentic,—a ready Record for Reference for Travelling Gentlemen, and should consequently be kept in every hotel in the United States. Its worthy notice, that its patrons, in the course of our year, will be furnished with fifty-two popular Plays and Farces—the price of which, separately, at any of our book stores, would be at least Thirty cent Dollars. There is an excellent saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Tourist's Library, to be had for an unprecedented small sum—not taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is to accompany it, without additional charge! Tailors who desire to procure early and correct information of the FASHIONS, will find it in our hands, and will be glad to furnish every Saturday, on fine imperial paper, of the largest size, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance.

By enclosing a five dollar note to the publishers, postage paid, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. It is respectfully requested that those who desire to subscribe for the Journal will forward their names immediately—the terms will be strictly adhered to.

Address SMITH & ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia. The publishers will exchange with any of their Country Brethren who will oblige them with an occasional insertion of this advertisement.

PROSPECTUS OF THE IRISH ADVOCATE, CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMER, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER. TO BE PUBLISHED THREE TIMES A WEEK, IN MONTREAL.—Although the population speaking the English language in Lower Canada is composed of natives of Ireland, and descendants of Irishmen, it is a source of regret, that a great number of them, who are entitled to the name of Irish, do not protect their National Character from misrepresentation and insult, or serve as the accredited organ of their Political sentiments. To remedy this evil, and to give to Irishmen that influence and power in which their numbers entitle them, a number of Irishmen, in Montreal, have resolved to establish a Paper, to be called the IRISH ADVOCATE, CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMER, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER; to be published in this City on the MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY of each week.—As the "Irish Advocate" will be essentially the Irishman's Paper, and as it will spare no pains to render itself worthy of this honorable distinction, it must mainly depend on the Irish population of both Provinces for encouragement and support. Besides affording such information on the subject of Politics, Commerce and Literature, as may be attractive to the general reader, the "Irish Advocate" will regularly lay before its patrons the most interesting portions of Irish Intelligencer. Although, from the nature of our position in the present crisis, the energies of the "Irish Advocate" must be directed towards the producing concern among persons from Great Britain and Ireland, and their descendants; yet it will neglect no opportunity of advocating the Reform of abuses under which the latter Country has so long labored. Deeply impressed with the conviction that the speedy development of the resources of this Province is of paramount importance, the "Irish Advocate" will strenuously encourage, and cheerfully open its columns to the insertion of such matters which may conduce to the general welfare of Irishmen and Britons, and promote their tranquillity among us.

Under present circumstances, the "IRISH ADVOCATE" will ever hold in view the counteraction of any attempts to provoke Revolution, to sever this Colony from the Mother Country, or effect any change in the Constitution, upon whose integrity, it is now plain as ever, that those speaking the English language in this Province, must rely for their existence and prosperity. From the tone and style in which the Paper will be conducted, its friends feel assured that it will bear comparison with the most respectable Periodicals in North America.

The Proprietors will use their utmost endeavors to render the Paper useful as a medium of Commercial Intelligence, and they, therefore, trust they will receive the support of the influential body of Merchants. The Editorial department will be entrusted to an Irish Roman Catholic gentleman, of ability and character. In Politics, the "Irish Advocate" will support the cause of Constitutional Reform; it will oppose, deprecate and condemn abuses, and will use its utmost efforts for the removal of such abuses, and will use its utmost efforts to advance the prosperity of old countrymen, and particularly of Irishmen.

The "IRISH ADVOCATE" will be printed on good Paper, of the size now used by the English Journals of this city, and will be changed to the size of the FUR BILLS per Annum, exclusive of postage, payable semi-annually, in advance. Postmasters, Country Merchants, and others, in both provinces, who may feel an interest in the success of the paper, are respectfully requested to use their best exertions in promoting its circulation in their respective neighborhoods.

Any gentleman who may procure subscribers, and vouch for the respectability of the parties, will be entitled to one paper for every ten subscribers so obtained, before the 1st of February next. Subscriptions will be received in this City at the Book-Store of John Campbell and H. McGregor, St. Francois Xavier Street, and at the Exchange News Room. Montreal, Jan. 5, 1835.
