THE MANSION HOUSE,
KINGSTON, U. C.

THE subscriber continues to occupy this extensive and well known establishment as an HOTEL for the accommodation of the public.

THE MANSION HOUSE

Is pleasantly situated in Store Street, being the principal and most central street in Kingston, in the business part of the town; is convenient to the different Steam-Boat wharves; and no establishment of the kind in the province can surpass it in the excellence and comfort of its apartments, in regard both to parlors and bed rooms; all of which are furnished in the very best style. The Hotel has been recently painted throughout and otherwise improved.

The subscriber having kept a Public House for many years, has acquired experience in that line; and he trusts that with unremitting attention to the comfort of his guests, he will continue to merit public patronage.

In the rear of the Mansion House there is a large YARD, and extensive Stabling, and where a Livery Stable is constantly kept.

☞The Mansion House Carriage and Porters will always be in readiness to convey passengers and luggage to and from the different Steam-boats.

$25 REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, about the middle of March, an apprentice to the Printing business, named James Dunbar Buchanan, aged about eighteen years. He has a tolerable knowledge of his trade, and may possibly pass himself off as a Journeyman Compositor.—It is expected that he has gone South, and will, in all probability, change his name. He is of small stature, light complexion, and possesses a petulant and sulky disposition, which renders him exceedingly OBNOXIOUS to all with whom he has intercourse. The above reward, and all reasonable charges, will be paid for his apprehension, so that his master may get him again. All persons are forbid harboring him at their peril. C. ALEXANDER,

BRITISH WHIG.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

In compliance with the expressed wish of a number of our friends, we have resumed our original days of publishing, and at the same time returned to our old plan of issuing a full sheet on Tuesdays, and a half sheet on Friday; the latter being almost entirely devoted to the benefit of our numerous advertisers.

Our Country friends will not by the above understand that the COUNTRY PAPER will be re-published;—that publication was unremunerative, and cannot be re-issued.

We have promised punctuality so often, that we dare not say one word more upon that subject. In an office worked so economically as the BRITISH WHIG'S, and in a town where extra aid cannot always be procured, it often happens that a more than usual supply of job work will retard the publication of a newspaper many hours. In such cases the will must be taken for the deed.

KINGSTON, FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 1, 1835.

The General Quarter Sessions for the Midland District were held at the Court House on Tuesday, John Macaulay, Esq. Chairman. There was an unusual attendance of magistrates, and a good deal of business relative to roads and other country matters was gone through. The only criminal case was that of Joseph Verritt, convicted of stealing an axe, and sentenced to one month's imprisonment. The court rose on Thursday afternoon.

From the London Patriot we learn that a commencement has been made in Upper Canada, of remunerating by salary the magistrate who performs the arduous duties of chairman at the Quarter Sessions. By vote of the magistrates in the London District, forty pounds per annum will in future be paid to that officer. This appropriation of the public money has been severely handled by the London journalist: our own opinion is, that if the District is rich enough to pay a chairman, he should be remunerated like any other judge; but if the contrary be the case, gentlemen of worth and talent should be sought after and selected, who would perform the duties of the office for the sake of the honor it confers.

The lamentable death of Wm. Hands, the soldier of the 24th regiment, affords a new proof, if any were wanting, of the implacable resentment and malice which the French Canadians bear towards all persons in the immediate employ of the King. This unfortunate man could not be, even for a few minutes, in a situation unprotected by his companions, without being slaughtered like an ox by persons whose enmity towards him originated solely in the color of the coat he wore. In a British province such doings as these can be tolerated no longer; and much as we know the inhabitants of Lower Canada to be misgoverned by a rapacious nest of bureaucrats, still we think they are entitled to no relief, until they learn to exhibit towards their fellow subjects something like common humanity.

☞Matthias the impostor, has been lately tried for the murder of Mr. Pierson, and acquitted. He was subsequently arraigned for an assault committed upon his own daughter and convicted. Sentenced to three months' imprisonment, with an additional month for contempt of court.

☞The Editor of the Brockville Constitution appears to be "dead to the fact," that asserting a thing is not proving it.

A most unparelled act of atrocity was committed in this city on the evening of Wednesday, upon William Hands, a private of the Grenadier Company of the 24th Regiment, which has led to his premature death. He was proceeding to the barracks with two of his comrades between seven and eight o'clock, and was ascending the hill near the National School, in Bonsecours Street, when he had occasion to remain for a few minutes behind them. He arrived at the Barracks some time after his companions, and reproached them for having left him, stating that he had been most severely beaten on the head by some Canadians, who jumped out of a caleche. He described the blows to have been inflicted with a heavy stick which stunned him, and that when he fell he was repeatedly kicked. He answered to his name at roll call, and made down his bed, apparently in tolerable health, though he complained of a giddiness, and fainted away during the evening. At about eleven o'clock, he complained that he felt much pain, but never spoke more. In the morning he was conveyed to the Hospital, and died in the evening at seven o'clock.

The Coroner held an inquest on the body yesterday, when a verdict was returned to the following purport:—

"The deceased came to his death by a blow from a blunt instrument, which caused a fracture of the skull and an effusion of blood on the brain, which said blow was inflicted by a person or persons unknown to the jurors."

The deceased was a remarkably sober and exemplary man, and during the ten years he has served in the regiment, has received the approbation of his Commanding officers for his good conduct. He was an Englishman by birth, and about 27 years of age..

The blow which led to the unfortunate man's death, was apparently given by a heavy stick, it caused a complete fracture of the skull above the right temporal artery. The outer plate of the cranium was broken to a considerable extent around the fracture.

In consequence of information lodged at the Police office yesterday, by a person who was a witness to the transaction, two individuals have been committed to gaol, charged with the murder. They are called Monarque and Chapeleau, and have been repeatedly brought before the Quarter Sessions accused of violent assaults and batteries.—Montreal Gazette.

On Saturday, the funeral of William Hands, the Irish soldier, murdered in St. Louis Suburbs, was attended to the New Burying Ground, by a vast concourse of the most respectable citizens. The train of citizens would have been much larger, had not many people expected the procession to pass through the city either to the St. Antoine or the St. Lawrence Suburbs.

Every soldier, that was not bed-rid or on duty, attended the funeral; the whole band incessantly played the most appropriate airs in the most magnificent style during a long half hour's march. A mingled feeling of sympathy and horror prevaded the whole moving mass.

The elegant coffin, decked with the unfortunate grenadier's cap and belt, was borne on the shoulders of four men of his own company.

Before the earth covered the poor fellow's mortal remains, twelve grenadiers fired three volleys.

The whole ceremony, from beginning to end, was affecting and imposing.—Montreal Herald.

The murderers of William Hands have been discovered. We cannot prudently publish the depositions; but the nature of the evidence makes it perfectly plain that a butcher of the name of Monarque gave the fatal blow.—Ib.

Four Durham boats, chiefly laden with the baggage of two companies of the 24th regiment, start today for Kingston. The whole regiment will speedily follow. It will carry with it the best wishes of Montreal.—Ib.

Our port begins to look quite lively. Twenty or thirty rafts have come down the river; and the Canada yesterday came up from Sorel with four barges in tow. There is reason to believe that St. Peter's Lake is now open.—Ib.

The water was let into the Lachine Canal on Thursday last, eleven days later than last year, and boats were yesterday despatched from port for the Upper Province. Several boats arrived yesterday at Lachine from Prescott and Brockville. The Welland Canal was to be opened on the 17th and several vessels on Lake Erie were in readiness to pass through.—Montreal Gazette.

The Cobourg Star tells us, that a person near Penetanguishine, has put a period to his existence by shooting himself, and that before having thus comfortably disposed of himself, he confessed he was the person who fired the fatal shot in a duel with Mr. George Cooper!!!

The Correspondent tells us, that a Mr. Mitchell had cut his throat at Niagara, and that before he thus finished himself, he confessed he was the person who shot Mr. Cooper!!!

We wonder how many more booby-would-be-duelists, before they shoot themselves or cut their throats, will aspire to a moment's posthumous notoriety, by claiming the honor of killing this poor young man? Fudge!!!—Courier.

EMIGRATION TO THE MIDLAND DISTRICT.—We are happy to learn that the Magistates at the present Sessions have signed a Petition to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that some means may be adopted to open to settlers the Crown Lands in our District, and to direct the fertilizing tide of emigration to this hitherto neglected region of country.—Kingston Gazette.

ESCAPE FROM PRISON.—On Thursday morning about five o'clock, James Smith, under sentence of death, John Endicott and Lyman C. Way, sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary, and James Jackson, a soldier about to be sent to a condemned regiment for robbery, made their escape from the Jail in this City. The prisoners had cut through the thick door of the cell, and afterwards bent one of the strong iron bars, with a piece of wood, which secured the window, from whence they descended by a rope into the yard, and crossing the paling made their escape. One of the constables immediately gave the alarm, and Mr. Barnhart, the Jailer, fired at Endicott, who was the last in crossing the paling, but without effect. They were pursued, and Smith was retaken by constable Platt, in Yonge-street; the others made their way good into the woods.—Toronto Recorder.

An investigation took place here last week, respecting the suspension of Messrs. Goodhue & Shaw, from the post-offices of this town and St. Thomas; the investigation was private, and the proceedings will have to be approved by Mr. Stayner, D. P. G. before the result will be made known; the persons to whom the enquiry was entrusted, were Messrs. Macaulay, Postmaster of Kingston, Rourke, Postmaster of Port Hope, and Hamilton, Postmaster of Queenston.—London Patriot.

STATE OF HEALTH IN THE CITY OF TORONTO—An iniquitous report has been made from both ends of the Province, that this City has been again visited with the cholera, or some other epidemic disease. We have already contradicted this report, and we do it again. The Board of Health have requested the Medical Board to report on the health of the City, and to state the best means of promoting and preserving the health of its inhabitants. The report states that the City is exceedingly healthy; and they recommend draining and purifying, as the best means of keeping it so. The report will be published. In the mean time, we earnestly recommended to our fellow citizens, a vigorous attempt to adopt the suggestions made by the Medical Board. The Corporation are hesitating, from the state in which the City Funds are left by the late Mayor; but this is of comparatively little importance. Health is the very first consideration and at any rate, it must be attended to. The citizens owe it to themselves as well as to the Corporation, to give such an expression of their sentiments upon this subject as will warrant their taking the most prompt and active measures for continuing to them the enjoyment of this most invaluable blessing.—Toronto Courier.

Our Canal is in successful operation, and our wharves are lined with canal boats and vessels discharging and taking in their cargoes. On Monday the canal boat York, Capt. Kellogg, arrived from Troy, bringing a cargo of merchandize from New-York for Cleaveland, Ohio, and the Schooner Winnebago, Capt. Howe, cleared with the same freight yesterday for Cleaveland, via the Welland canal.—Oswego Palladium.

PRIVATE BILLS.—The number of petitions presented in the house of Commons for private bills amounts already to 169. Of these 20 have been read a first time, and 8 a second time. The objects of the bills are roads, railways, canals, harbors, gas-light companies, water-works and general improvements.

We understand that the Duke of Wellington has conferred the Russian Embassy on Sir Robert Gordon, whose only claim to such an appointment is, that he happens to be a Tory, and the brother of Lord Aberdeen.

Lord Stuart de Rothsay has been appointed Ambassador to the Sublime Porte, in the room of Lord Ponsonby; the latter is supposed to be the only British statesman who has ever thoroughly comprehended the Turkish question in all its bearings.

The Governor or Superintendent of Honduras (Colonel Cockburn) has resigned, or is about to do so, his appointment, and is returning to England. The post is worth about £2,000 per annum, but the climate is extremely unhealthy.

It was expected there would be from 250 to 300 members of the Opposition present at a great dinner to be given by them to Lord John Russell, as their leader at the Freemason's Tavern on 28th March.

IMPROMPTU.

When Pat had seditiously dared to exclaim,
That in Britain we wanted no King,
To justice was brought for asserting the same,
Thus went on his accusers to fling:
Yer worship, what I said I'll never recant,
For my trial I now am quite ready;
For surely in Britain we no King do want,
Whilst we have such a good one already.
