to assessed great expansion, and were summar to those; coard the sensed, which rest to the part of the bat, being a semi-transparent membrane ex- it them. The vessel retained to Andreastonegic and place and of the bat, being a semi-transparent memorane the property were furnished with new from and place any enemy of the same class, panded in curvilineal division by means of straight when they were furnished with new from and place any enemy of the same class. radii, united at the back by the dorsal integranents, teen under greater restrana tone and orea reports was one man, who, although he might have had gi-But what astonished us very much was the executive open them before them any any that was one man, who, atmough he might have had given and of this membrane being continued, from the been seen by Mr. McCormick they would undoubte ven to him by nature "the human countenance distance of this membrane being continued, from the been seen by Mr. McCormick they would undoubte ven to him by nature "the human countenance distance of this membrane being continued, from the been seen by Mr. McCormick they were worked vine." Yet he had so don't tance of this membrane being continued, from the been seen by Air. Mecoranics they were work- vine," yet he had so disfigured and besineared it houlders to the legs, united all the way down, the best effected their eccupe, as they were work- vine," yet he had so disfigured and besineared it houlders to the legs, united all the way down, the best work winds and blockers the best with block and blockers the handers to the legs, united all the way down, the range neve enected even errors, as they neve and with blood and blubber, that no one feature was to handled decreasing in width. The wings seemed ing up to windward of the schooner.—Canadian with blood and blubber, that no one feature was to handled decreasing in width. The wings seemed in the windward of the schooner.—Canadian with blood and blubber, that no one feature was to of the creatures whom we saw patning in the water. | MIDLAND DISTRICT. - For Several months pass for about two hours to have his countenance altered; stread them instantly to their full width, waved the gentlemen of Lineston and other parts of the beautiful have been been but he was given to underwant to their full width, waved the gentlemen of Lineston and other parts of the barry but he was given to underwant to their full width. _campletely under the command of volition for those | Emigrant. them as ducks do theirs to shake off the water, and Midland District, much to their credit, have been then as instantly closed them again in a compact unceasing in their exercions, to lay before the eye form. Our further observation of the habits of of the Emigrant and traveller, the advantages that these creatures who were of both sexes, led to re-that District possesses, its hydraulic privileges, qual- his face and hands out to a character should be creatured who were of both sexes, led to re-that District possesses, its hydraulic privileges, qual- his face and hands out to a character should be controlled by the character should be characte these creatures who were of both sexes, see the state of soil, beauty of scenery, purity of water, cheap- his face and hands out to the steward, he cried "albe first laid before the public in Dr. Herschel's own ness of Land &c. To effect the settlement of that he make the make work, where I have reason to know they are fully & beautiful and fertile portion of the province every head; at which the action in his turn, shaking his faithfully stated, however incredulously they may herve is straightened. Communication after comthen almost simultaneously spread their wings, and pers, well calculated in themselves to induce settlers were lost in the dark confines of the canvas, before to locate in the District; monthly sales of Crown we had time to breathe from our paralizing aston- Lands and Clergy Reserves, are opened at the Land ishment. We scientifically denominated them the offices in Kingston, Belleville & we believe Napanee. less, innocent and happy creatures, notwithstanding Mr. P. V. Elmore of Hallowell, author of a map by himself, and therefore, turning to his wife, he Vespertilio homo, or man-bat; and they are, doubtsome of their amusements would but ill comport with our terrestrial notions of decorum. The valley itself we called the Ruby Colosean, in compliment to its stupendous southern boundary, the six nile sweep of red precipices two thousand feet ligh. And the night, or rather morning, being far advan-

The night of the 14th displayed the moon in her mean liberation or full; but the somewhat humid state of the atmosphere being for several hours less

PROVINCIAL.

The case of the soldiers of the 15th Regt. whose unprisonment for rioting in March Street, we nored in our last, was yesterday brought before the been written to the commanding officer, hy a permed Jesiah Kendrick, which stated, that the with the letter which caused the examination. A trict .-- ib. number of witnesses were produced, but it was clearinterest. Colonel Horton at length said he was Constables but that having reversed and the Migistraces that the matter might be investigated .- This now being fully done, he felt convinced that the Constables did not overreach their duty, and that the decision regarding the prisoners was just.

The Mayor and Alderman Gurnett, also spoke in high terms of the very proper conduct of the Constables in the execution of a most arduous and difficult duty; having to deal as they have, with men not be tolerated for one moment.

Regarding this riot, we can only now say, that was it not for the activity and promptitude of the Magistrates, assisted at once by the Constablesthis riot, we have no doubt, would have only termien active and efficient Constabularly at present, and we hope and trust that very respectable and well-af the execution of their duty. The charges made aminst the Constables in the letter of Kendrick to.

 The Assizes for the District of Johnstown closed our Saturday evening last, at which time the follow-'ag sentences were pronounced :--

The King vs. Thomas Bowers .-- Forgery-Mistemeanor .- Imprisonment in the common Jail of the District for nine Months. The King vs. Mary Ann Smith.-Petit Larceny.

-One Month's Imprisonment in the Common Jail of the District. The King vs. Silvester Duffey .- Misdemeanor -Receiving stolen Goods .- Six Months Imprisonment in the Common Jail of the District, The King vs. Thomas Nicholson .-- Horse Steal ing .- Five years in the Penitentlary. A man by the name of Hogan who had been committed on a charge of Petit Larceny was discharged on his own recognizance, no person appearing against

The case of Phillips vs. Sly, Brown, Morris and others for damages in the destruction of his property confessed judgement for £50, and are to pay all costs .- Brockville Recorder.

· SALE OF INDIAN LANDS .- When our last paper the penalty of 5l. and costs. returns were then made. Below we briefly give the particulars:-

· Amount of sales of Town Lots in Brantford - - £5814 0 0

Do. do. do. Farm Lots in the Township of Brantford and the Gore, North of Dundas St. in Dumfries 7862 13 74 Town Lots in Cayuga

- 111 0 0 . Farm Lots in the Townships of Cayuga and Dunn - 2663 2 11

Total amount of sales - - £14480 16 11

ESCAPE AND RE-CAPTURE OF TWO CONVICTS .-- TWO of the Convicts, Duchesne and LaMott, on their l'ele laland. The schooner was at anchor off Gosfield, waiting to take in iron from the Furnace .-- g like spread eagles on the skirts of partition of the ware sum overtaken and conveyed on 225 feet, beam upwards of 50 feet, and of the latter, powered the crew and took possesion of the vessel.

We could then perceive that their wings them. They were sum overtaken and conveyed out 225 feet, beam upwards of 50 feet by 45. Both vessels will be of a contract the crew and took possesion of the vessel. be wood. We could then perceive that their wings | them. They were soon overtaken and conveyed on 122 level occur upwards of 50 feet, and of the latter, powered the crew and took possession of the vessel. Both vessels will be of strength of Sardinian ship" the letter goes on to say, "was because expansion, and were similar to those board the schooler, which had strength which ought to enable them as blow our of the court of the co

. . . The three families munication grace the columns of the Kingston paa scale of 150 chains to an inch, exhibiting all the or repugance, the most underly and affectionately Mail Roads, Cross Roads Rivers, Rivulets, L.kes, Churches, Meeting Houses, Saw Mills, Grist Mills, Towns, Villages, Wharves, Steam Boat Landings. rention. By degrees the face began to assume its &c. &c. by Lot, Concession and Township, inclu- natural features, and in the space of a quarter of an

dian one range of townships in this District. this time our brethern of the Kingston Press have masterly manner, that it was evident that the good pre-eminently distinguished themselves, and well wife was an adept in the art of licking; and accorddeserve the cordial support of its inhabitants .- it g to some observations which were subsequently favorable to a minute inspection than to a general What shall we now say for this District? (Newcas- made, it was ascertained that it was the method asurvey of her surface, they were chiefly devoted to the,) improvements on an extensive scale going on dopted by these uncivilized people in the cleaning the latter purpose. But shortly after midnight the in all parts; steam boats gliding over the glassy of their own hands, whilst the duty was performed last veil of mist was dissipated, and the sky being waters of the interior lakes and rivers, Rail Roads by the others in the cleaning of their faces. Whilst as lucid as on the former evenings, the attention of about being constructed to connect the front with this singular scene was enacting between Meytak the astronomers was arrested by the remarkable out- the back townships; Saw Milis, Grist Mills, and his duriful and obedient spouse, a no less singlines of the spot marked Gycho No. 18 in Blunt's other machinery erecting; Post Offices establishing, ular one was performing by their children on the thart; and in this region they added treasures to and Villages raising their heads above the primeval bodies of the seals, which had been just skinned, human knowledge which angels might well desire forest; one circumstance may serve to show the and on which the blood was as yet pure and fresh. state of improvement which this District is fast ap- The carcases were lying on the deck, preparatory proaching, upwards of twenty miles back of this to being cut up for the dozs, when the children, attown improved farms often sell from four to five tracted by the inviting smell of the blood, squatted pounds per acre, and wild land from $6 to $10 per themselves down by the animals, and with a zest acre .-- Port Hope Warder.

bers of the Farmers' Bank in this District particu- they licked, with all their natural greediness, the Myor and Migistrates. Colonel ilbron was about they these of fore thepre and Comey of Dophum. in attendance. The cause of this second examina- on the appointment of our much respected towns- his trencher cleaner, than these human brutes did tion arose out of the circumstance of a letter having man Captain Kingsmill, to the responsible office of the bodies of the seals,-Light's Account of Ross's District Agent to this institution.

A more judicious and in every way qualified selecsoldiers were very ill-treated by the Constables, and | tion could not (in our opinion) have ben made, than heaten very severely by them on taking them to that of appointing Captain K. as he appears to be Jail. The Colonel made the Mayor acquainted a general favorite with the people of this Dis-

Early on Friday mornig the St. George steamer is shown that no more violence was used by the called at our wharf, but finding no one on the pier Constables than was absolutely necessary to take head at that moment (it being scarcely light) we them to the Gaol, as it required 4 or 5 persons to understand Captain Barper called out "where is the carry some of them. It was also clearly proved Warder now ?" referring, no doubt, to things long that Kenderick had not the most friendly feelings since gone by. We respond to the call-the Wartowards the Constables, and that he had threatened | der is at his post, and we beg to assure Captain | to be revenged of some of them. The investigation | Harper he shall ever find an advocate in us, when he occupied a great portion of the day, and the three is neglected at our port, which we believe was the soldiers were brought from the Jail and interroga- case on the morning in question. We have made ted-but not a single impropriety was proved against enquiry into the matter, and find that the hands who bate another bear-garlen scene took place between magne, the proprietor. He gave gave his name as the City Constables. The details are not of any usually attend the steamboats were at that moment absent; we believe attending to some business at perfectly satisfied as to the proper conduct of the light house-creeting on Gull Island; at the same sence was unmaniered.

MISCELLANY.

A JUVENILE COINER. -On Tuesday a boy ramed Curtis, only ten years of age, was charged with coining. Inspectors Fagan and Brown, of the M. division, having received information that counterfeit shillings and sixpences had been passed off in who think they may assault and insult them with the Borough, obtained a clue to one of the places impunity. Such conduct, the Mayor said, would where they were coined. They, they therefore, proceeded to a house, No. 3, Bailey's court Pepperalley, Tooley-street, where a number of the lower order of the Irish reside, and on going up stairs they observed through the key-hole the prisoner busily engaged over the fire-place. The inspectors enternated in the most lamentable manner .- We have ed the room suddenly and ran towards the fire, or which was placed a small crucible containing molter metal, which the prisoner attempted to capsize into fected citizens will be aiding and assessing them in the fire, but was prevented. On the bob stood two moulds rudely constructed with chalk, one for form-Col Horton were completely disproved .- Toronto and there were some metal spoons also found, a portion of which had been used for the purpose of making the spurious money. There was no person in the room but the little boy, who had evidently been well trained, and no doubt had been placed there in the exent of a surprise by other parties, who imagined that his youth would save him from the consequences. In reply to Mr. Trail the prian hour before he was taken into custody, leaving him to take care of the things. He was remanded. the Mi-gistrates directing the inspectors to use every CRUELTY TO A Horse .- On Friday, Edwin Gaskell fusing to sever the provisions relating to an approa lad in the employ of the proprietors of The Sun printion of the surplus revenues of the Irish church; red and beaten a horse in so cruel a manner as to existence. cause its death. Desendant, it appeared, was enthe animal beyond its strength, and spurred it so Lord Palmerston was called on for information

these Sales to lay before our readers, as no regular Nusretive, or the Victorious, was launched at Con- so taken up in the house of lords on the 30th .-deck, beam 521 feet, and is to carry 74 42-pounders. counsel against the corporations reform bill. She is consequently, although a frigate, equal in The ministers were defeated by Mr. O'Connell force to almost any three-decker, and in a gale of and his tail on the 30th, in the lower house, on a mowind would be infinitely superior, because the three- tion for a committee on the conduct of general Darer ports, and her remaining guns would be too much tion was made by Maurice O'Connell, opposed by elevated or depresed to do much good; whereas the ministers, and carried by a majority of eight- and child, whose names we are unable to learn. of top-weight, will scarcely career over at all. Nearly all Constantinople was collected to see the laurch, vestigation into the conduct of the police while emand the scene was most animated. The Sultan and ployed in the collection of tithes in the parish of all his Ministers were in attendance, and the foreign- Killorglin, Kerry, for the Rev. C. O'Neill. A barers of distinction had vessels placed at their disposal to rister is to be sent down for this purpose. view the fine sight. She went off in high style, at way down to Kingston, on board the schooner John exactly 32 minutes past five a'clock, Turkish time, Poleen factions at Newcastle, county Tipperary, Magill, effected their escape on Saturday evening the precise moment appointed by the astronomers hant, but were retaken next morning, near Point au as a fortunate conjunction of the stars, and it required all the management of her American architect, Mr. Rhodes, so to time it as to be punctual. -Foring the night the two convicts managed to free He, however, succeeded admirably. The Sultan massives, one of his handcuffs and the other of called Mr. R. to him immediately afterwards, and portance either from the capital or the scat of war. pital St. Louis, four have undergone amputation.

received running down the valley to the large lake. they were fairly out of sight. They arrived at the lat the same time, and, on his replying in the affirand having on its eastern margin a small wood. [Island early in the morning, when metr appearance matrix, it is moneration give orders for a three-that a Spanish brig had Leen brought into that port.

The length of the former will be skirts of Cormick, Esq., who dispatched a best in chase of 30 10-possibles. The length of the former will be skirts of Cormick, Esq., who dispatched a best in chase of 30 10-possibles. and of these creatures had crossed this water, and and manneavers excura the suspenses of the former will be received this water, and and manneavers excura the suspenses of 30 10-pounders. The tength of the former will be not with 150 Carlist prisoners on board, who over relying like spread eagles on the skirts of Cormick, Esq., who dispatched a host in class of 30 10-pounders, and at the large not of the large relative preceive that their wines them. They were soon overtaken and conveyed on 225 feets beam unwards of an fact and of the large nature of the large relative preceive that their wines them. They were soon overtaken and conveyed on 225 feets beam unwards of an fact and of the large nature of the large relative preceive that their wines them.

MIDLAND DISTRICT .-- For several months past bled that of a prizefighter who had been standing would be provided him, wherewith he could divest his face of the filth with which it was covered : naka cat or a dog would its jaws, after having immersed them is a dirty kennel. But then the great question arcse, in what manner was the face to be licked clean the operation could not be performed ten, no bear its sub, with greater assiduity and athe seen. The operation was performed in such a equal to that which Quin evinced whilst regaling FARMERS BANK .-- We congratulate the subscri- upon a John Dory swimming in sause piquante, blood from the careases; and no dog rould ticked

THE BRITISH WHIG.

Several Packet Ships have arrived at New York lately, bringing English dates down to the 1st Au-The chief news is the attempted assasination of the King of France and his sons. Nothing is said concerning the prorogation of the Imperial Par-commons on 29th July In the course of the deumuy"-an uproar erauet, which was with difficul- the barrels at the moment of the explosing the w

Mr. Shaw said that the hon, and learned gentleman had alluded to his spiritual ferocity; his, howhead and cross-bones-(loud cries of "Oh!"

It is now clear, beyond doubt, that even the Min-

bill into two, and leaving the principle of approprino one who has read the late debate can doubt .--which relates to the settlement of the tithes, reveexertion to take the parents of the boy into custody. destroy all chance of carrying this measure, by re-

IRELAND. - The lord lieutenant has ordered an in-

In a late dreadful contest between the Gow and one of each party was killed.

At Waterford Assizes, Baron Joy sentenced two men to transportation for taking forcible possession of a small farm.

fetters, and while the watch on deck was enjoy- presented him with an appropriate decoration in Proops continued to arrive from England, and the Girard has confessed his crame, but maintains They were not water on deck was enjoy- presented min with an appropriate decoration and propriate decoration and propriat

A letter from Gibraltar, dated 17th of July, states A letter from Gibraltar, dated 17th of July, states and basing down the valley to the large lake. They were pairly out at sight. They arrived at the parties, it is understood give orders for a three-that a Spanish brig had been brought into that port.

Island early in the morning, when their appearance matrix, it is understood give orders for a three-that a Spanish brig had been brought into that port. are the crew of the vessel, who have also been overpowered and murdered.

From Galignani's Messenger. Attempt upon the King's Life by an Infernal

Machine. Paris, July 39 .- It is with the deepest concern that we lay before our readers the details of the ahove horrible event, that took place at the review vesterday. After having passed along the Boulevard the point at which the National Guards and the troops were drawn up, his majesty, accompanied dence of the minister of justice, in the Place Venby the duke of Orleans, the duke de Nemours, the dome, to witness the filing off of the troops, when prince de Joinville, and a numerous and brilliant staff, was returning along the same line to the place | General de Rumigny brought her the news of what Vendome, where the troops were filed off before had taken place on the Boulevard du Temple. It him. At twelve, at the moment when he had reached the Boulevard du Temple, a little before the Theatre des Funanthules, a tremendous explosion, the reality, and excessive confusion ensued -- an infernal machine had just poured forth a shower of balls upon the cortege that surrounded the king!---The falling of some horses, among which was that ded to the tumult, which it would be difficult to de-ble courage by riding up in the direction of house from which the explosion came. After the first eamidst shouts of joy for the preservation of the king's life, and threats of vengeance against the assasins. The bodies of the slain and the persons who were wounded were immediately carried to the Cafe Ture opposite, where medical assistance was afforded to such as were still alive. Smoke was seen to proceed from the third story of the house No. 50 on the Bouleverd du Temple, of which the ground floor and first floor are occupied by a wine dealer, named Parrault. Each story consists of one chamber, which is lighted by a single window in front .---The house was immediately surrounded and all the persons forme in it arrested. The room in which the machine had been constructed is very small, its dimensions being only six and a half feet by seven.

The muchine was made with great skill of wood, with iron braces, and extremely solid. Two up-KINGSTON, TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 15, 1835. rights supported two cross bars of wood, placed parallel to the window, and in these were formed grooves, in which were laid twenty-five gun-barrells The front cross bar, placed at about a foot from the window, was rather lower than that behind, so that the balls might reach the body of a man on horseback in the middle of the Boulevard. The charge was so heavy, that five out of the twenty-five barrels had burst, notwithstanding they were very substan-ENGLAND .- The various clauses of the Irish church tial and new. The assassin was immediately taken bill were agreed to in committee of the house of into custody. About three months ago he hired the rooms of the second and third stories of M. Dalle-Mr. O'Connell, a Mr. Shaw, and a Mr. Finn. O'- Girard, a mechanician, and appears to be about Cornell charged Mr. Shaw with stating falsehoods twenty-four years of bge. His room had a window respecting him; Mr. Finn (a friend of Mr. O'Con- in front and another behind, and he had taken the uell) rose in great hest, and exclaimed that what precaution to fasten a rope to the latter to assist him Vir. Shaw had said was "a false and arrocious cal- in making his escape. By the bursting of some of ty quieted, and the affair ended in the following ele- sassin was wounded in the forehead, the neck, and gant interchance of compliments between two of the lip. Notwithstanding his wounds he rushed out of the window. Some Polish officers having ran into the inner court, and seein Girard slipping down the rope, one ever, was not like the frocity of the hon, and learn- of them exclaimed: "Ah wretch! we have you."ed gentleman, for that exhibited itself in a death's Giratd, who was at the moment at the height of a wall, threw himself over it into an adjoining court Mir. O'Connell-Anl yours in a call's head .- (A | and there a police officer apprechended him. He placed upon a hand-barrow, and conveyed to prefect of police, and several magistrates went to the isters themselves have not the slightest expectation | house, and in the assassin's chamber they found the of being able to carry the Irish Church Bill in its remains of the infernal machine still smoking, a present form this session Yet professing the deep- straw bed and a fire lighted. A delay of half a seest anxiety for the welfare of the Established Church | cond perhaps in the explosion saved the life of the and no less commisseration for the destitute state of King The cortege advanced in the following order: the unfortunate Irish Clergy, they resolutely refuse The King, the Prince de Joinville, the duke of Orto adopt the only means, which, according to the leans, the duke de Nemours, marshal Lobau; and ing the impression of a shilling the other for sixpence Constitution, and the present state of our Legisla marshal Mortier. All those in the cortege who ture, are presented to themsof relieving the distress were wounded were nearly on the same as marshal of the one, and of affording the protection to the Mortier. The news of the attempt was rapidly propagated through the capital, and produced a power-That they have the power to do so by severing the ful sensation. General de Rumigny, aid-de-camp to the king, set off full gallop to inform the queen ation to be discussed separately upon its own merits, that his majesty and the princes had escaped the danger, fearing that she might be seriously alarmed Yet notwithstanding an almost absolute assurance if she had heard of the event from any one that soner said that his father and lived in the room where from Sir R. Peel to this effect, notwithstanding the had not witnessed it. In passing along the lines he all but certainty of passing that portion of the bill mentioned to several officers what had occurred, and soon there was not a soldier that remained agnorant nues, and income of the church generally, ministers of it. As the troops of the line did not extend to the have thought fit, we cannot say to hazard, but to Boulevard du Temple they were ordered to shift in that direction, that they might be ready to act in case of attempt at disturbance. At the moment of filing off before the king, the newspaper, was charged by the Society for the it being much more than problematical, it should be National Guards shouted vive le Roi! which was Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, with having spur-recollected, whether such surplus will ever have any answered by the troops of the line. The guards of Notice was given that the attorney-general for and men, addded cries of A bas les assassins ! The inevitable; but as to his motives he confines himself ployed on the 4th inst. to bring an express from the Ireland would move for leave to bring in the Irish king returned to the Tuilleries about five o'clock; to saying that he disliked the king, and farther declared to the Tuilleries about five o'clock; to saying that he disliked the king, and farther declared to the Tuilleries about five o'clock; to saying that he disliked the king, and farther declared to the Tuilleries about five o'clock; to saying that he disliked the king, and farther declared to the trial leave to bring in the Irish king returned to the Tuilleries about five o'clock; to saying that he disliked the king, and farther declared to the Irish king returned to the Irish kin evidently deeply affected by the scene he had witunmercifully that it fell down on Waterloo-bridge relative to the three British subjects said to have vening crowds flocked out of curiosity to the melan- he had none. Nevertheless, a woman who resides and expired the next day. He was convicted in been shot by order of Don Carlos, and stated in re- choly spot, in consequence of which a strong detach | behind the house, has deposed, that an instant after ply that a letter had been received at the admiralty, ment of municipal guards was stationed there to went to press, we could not obtain the particulars of On the 10th of May a beautiful ship, named giving information of the fact. The subject was al- keep the peace. The following are the persons stantinople. She is 220 feet in length on the berth Their Lordships were engaged that day in hearing de Trevise, struck in the heart by a ball; General whose lives have been sacrificed. Marshal the duke de Lachasse de Terigny, struck on the forehead by a ball; Captain Villate, aid-de-camp to Marshall two hundred arrests, it is stated, bave already been Maison; Lieut. Col. Rieussee, of the 3th legion, made. decker would then be compelled to shut in her low- ling, ex-governor of New South Wales. The mo- chard, Leger, and Benetter, grenadiers of the 8th legion; a colonel in the army, two citizens, a woman

Galignani's Messenger of the 30th says :- The number of victims is much more considerable than was at first believed. Several persons wounded were immediately taken to their own homes, and therefore were not included in the list before published. The number of killed and wounded is said to be thirty-four, including sixteen who ded immediately, or subsequently perished from their wounds .--Among them was M. Labronste, aged seventy, a member of the legion of honor, one of the oldest receivers of taxes of Paris. His wounds are very serious, but hopes are entertained that his life may would indicate that at least two parties were cognizant to the construction of the murderous engine .-The assassin concealed his preparation by Persian blind, and did not unmask his machine till the moment the king was passing before the house. It is presumed that he had not made his calculations of distance with sufficient precision, and that the time required for opening the window caused his project o fail. All the barrels that were discharged were fired at the same moment, by means of a train of of gunpowder running to the touch holes. Each barrel contained at least six balls, and the charge filled eight inches; this had been ascertained by an examination of those that missed fire. The five that burst did so with such force that the walls of the room were much damaged. A journal of this morning states the death of the assassin last night. but we have ascertained that this is not the fact, and that it is fully expected he will survive the effects of his wounds.

The queen, with the princesses, was at the resi-

was at first thought that it would be prudent to conceal it from her till after the review, but her majesty could not help seeing, from the countenances of resembling irregular platoon firing, was heard. At all those who approached her, that some very serious first it was supposed to be a discharge of fire-works misfortune had happened, and M. Guizot and the but the falling and cries of the victims soon revealed keeper of the seals acquainted her with what had occurred. As the king had resolved to continue the review, and consequently, did not make his appearance in the Place de Vendome for some time efter, Marshal Mortier, duke de Trevise, fell and expi- it was impossible to convince her majesty that he red without uttering a word. Several other officers and her sons were uninjured, and it was impossible and some of the National Guards were also killed. to describe the agonies of mind she endured. The and a considerable number of persons wounded. duchess de Broglie coming in, the queen threw herself into her arms, and having found relief in tears, of Marshall Mortier, and the capering of others, ad- became sufficiently calm to listen to the assurances given her that they were safe; and then she lamented sincerely the losses that had been really sustain-During this scene, the king, whose arm had been ed. As many of of the wives and daughters of the grazed by a bullet, and whose horse had received 'a officers, who were in attendance on the king, were wound in the neck, maintained the calmness by in the same saloon, and as it was known that several which he is distinguished, and displayed remarka- of the officers had been mortally wounded, a melancholy scene continued till several aids de camp arm ved with particulars, which put an end to the misemotion had passed, the cortege continued its route ry of suspense, and made known the misfortunes which each had sustained. On leaving the queen General de Rumigny went to the family of Marshall Morrier to announce the great loss they had sustained. It would be in vain to describe the affecting interview. It is a singular fact that the Marshall's family, fearing the consequences of heat and fatigue, had endeavoured to induce him no. to attend the review; but the Marshal, who was remarkable for his stature, and alluding to that and the reports of id-

> go; for I am tall, and may perhaps cover the king." When Martial Mortier was struck, M. Thiers was so close to him that he was covered with the blood of the illustrious victim. General Pelet's wound is an inch and a half wide and down to the bone. Speedy bleeding has had a > tended attempts on the king's life, which had been current for several days, said, "No! no! I must beneficial effect and he is doing well. The form and dimensions of the wound show that the barrels of the infernal machine were not only loaded with bullets, but also with slugs. General Blin had two fingers amoutated at the Cafe de la Gaite. Two gendarmes, named Roussel and Royer, were wounded and had their horses killed under them.

Colonel Raffe, who belonged to the gendarmene of the Scine, received a ball in the left side, but was able to keep his seat in the saddle for some time when he fainted, and fell from his horse. He was taken into the restaurant of the Candran Bleu .-After about two hours he was visited by Colond Feisthamel, to whom he said, "You are the first of our friends who has come to me. I know I have not more than two hours to live, but tell me whether the king is Counded or not?" "No! not her be for any of the princes? "Give me your word of honor." "I swear it." -"Well! Vies le Roi! The had luck is mine." Colonel Rolle died, we regret to state, in the course of the evening.

An immense number of persons of all ranks pres sed to the Tuilleries vesterday evening, and it was observed that all the ambassadors and foreign minis ters in Paris presented themselves.

At six o'clock the king and queen broke from the numerous visitors with whom the Tulleries was growded, and went in a close carriage, unattendenty any cocort, to other cousolation to the Duches de Trevisc.

In Paris, on the 23th, agrand, dinner was given at the Tuilleries, at which all the ambassadors an foreign ministers were present. At dinner m throughout the evening the king, displayed the ut most calmness. He frequently expressed in affecting terms his regret at the death of Marshal Mos tier and the other welfins of the day.

After the review, the king paid a visit to General Heymes, who had been carried to the Tuilleries. At the moment the explosion took place, the kin had inclined slightly on one side to receive a pe collar of his cont.

The duke de Broglie received a bullet through the

Girard, the assassing was employed as a deale in second hand articles of all kinds, and was more particularly engaged in cleaning and repairing of fire-arms, and is a very stie and skilful workman He was known among his companions to entertain legitimate opinions, and it was even believed the he received a pension from the duchess of Angous leme. He is 39 years of age Notwithstanding the serious nature of his wounds, he is expected to recover, and is now able to converse. Being ques tioned as to his motives for such a crime, and urget to declare whether he had any accomplices, he ful the Sth legion which had lost some of its officers ly admitted his guilt, and said he knew his fate was red, that were he even put to the torture, he could the explosion she saw two men, both wounded, ma king their escape. In the room of Girard, two white hats of different size were found, which would indicate that at least two parties were cognizant to the construction of the murderous engine. Upwards of

The government has decided that one funeral shall be formed of all the victims of yesterday, instead of taking place separately. The day fixed was tomorrow, but it is thought that the necessary preparation will not allow the melancholy ceremony to take place before Friday.

The melancholy feeling produced by the lamentable event of yesterday is forcibly expressed by most of the shops in the capital being closed this

ONE DAY LATER FROM FRANCE.

FARTHER PARTICULARS OF THE ATTEMPT ON THE King's LIFE. -Some further details are given of the attempt upon the life of the King. Girard, the assassin, is said to have declared that he was instigated by the Carlists. Another man, named Boireau, had been arrested, and is said to have confessed his participation in the plot. Suspicion was directed to him by the fact that he was visited on the night prerent sizes, were however, found in his room, which sed, and that after they left life, he advised his om vious at his workshop, by two persons, richly dres-