Storage and Wharfage.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has rented the well known Stores, Houses and Wharf formerly occupied by Mr. John Macaza at the foot of Store Street. As to location they have not their equals in town. Those who wish to store property or dispose of it by consignment, may rely on the utmost endeavors of the subscriber to give satisfaction for all orders he may be favored with in the above line of business.

N. B.—For the accommodation of travellers, there will be a room fitted up for the reception of baggage.

BARTON PHILLIPS.

Kingston, April 23d, 1835.

CAUTION.

THIS is to caution all persons from making bargains of sale or otherwise, with James Schroder in my name, as I have at present no connection with that young man. Also, my customers are requested to notice of whom they buy the articles I manufacture, as some persons are vending them, pretending to be sent from me.

THE MANSION HOUSE.

KINGSTON, U. C.

THE subscriber continues to occupy this extensive and well known establishment as an HOTEL for the accommodation of the public.

THE MANSION HOUSE

Is pleasantly situated in Store Street, being the principal and most central street in Kingston, in the business part of the town; is convenient to the different Steam-Boat wharves; and no establishment of the kind in the province can surpass it in the excellence and comfort of its apartments, in regard both to parlors and bed rooms; all of which are furnished in the very best style. The Hotel has been recently painted throughout and otherwise improved.

The Subscriber having kept a Public House for many years, has acquired experience in that line; and he trusts that with unremitting attention to the comfort of his guests, he will continue to merit public patronage.

In the rear of the Mansion House there is a large YARD, and extensive Stabling, and where a Livery Stable is constantly kept.

☞The Mansion House Carriage and Porters will always be in readiness to convey passengers and luggage to and from the different Steam-boats.

CAREY'S LIBRARY
OF Choice Literature.

TO say that this is a reading age, implies a desire for instruction, and the means to gratify that desire. On the first point, all are agreed; on the second, there is diversity both of opinion and of practice. We have newspapers, magazines, reviews, in fine pamphlets of all sizes, on nearly all subjects, which have severally their classes of readers and supporters. And yet, copious as are these means of intellectual supply, more are still needed. In addition to the reviewers of the day, and passing notices of books, the people, in large numbers, in all parts of our great republic, crave the possession of the books themselves, and details, beyond mere passing allusion, of the progress of discovery in art and science.—But though it be easy to ascertain and express their wants, it is not so easy to gratify them. Expense, distance from the emporium of literature, or family, valuable works, complete, on all the branches of useful and popular literature, and that in a form well adapted to the comfort of the reader.

The charm of variety, as far as it is compatible with morality and good taste, will be held constantly in view in conducting the Library, to fill the pages of which the current literature of Great Britain, in all it valrous departments of Biography, History, Travels, Novels and Poetry, shall be freely put under contribution. With, perchance, occasional exceptions, it is intended to give entire the work which shall be selected for publication. When circumstances authorize the measure, recourse will be had to the literary stores of Continental Europe, and translations made from French, Italian, or German, as the case may be.

Whilst the body of the work will be a reprint, or at times a translation of entire volumes, the cover will exhibit the miscellaneous character of a Magazine, and consist of sketches of men and things, and notices of novelties in literature and the arts, throughout the civilized world. A full and regular supply of the literary monthly and hebdomadal journals of Great Britain and Ireland, in addition to home periodicals of similar character, cannot fail to provide ample materials for this part of our work.

The resources and extensive correspondence of the publishers, are the best guarantee for the continuance of the enterprise in which they are now about to embark, as well as for the abundance of the materials to give it value in the eyes of the public. As far as judicious selection and arrangement are concerned, readers will, it is hoped, have reason to be fully satisfied, as the editor of the Library is not a stranger to them, but has more than once obtained their favorable suffrages for his past literary efforts.

TERMS.

The work will be published in weekly numbers, in stitched covers, each number containing twenty imperial octavo pages, with double columns, making two volumes annually, of more than 520 octavo pages, each volume; and at the expiration of every six months, subscribers will be furnished with a handsome title page and table of contents. The whole amount of matter furnished in a single year will be equal to more than forty volumes of the common sized English duodecimo books, the cost of which will be at least ten times the price of a year's subscription to the "Library." The paper upon which the Library will be printed, will be of the finest quality used for book-work, and of a size admirably adapted for binding. As the type will be entirely new, and of a neat appearance, each volume, when bound, will furnish a handsome, as well as valuable and not cumbrous addition to the libraries of those who patronize the work.

The price of the Library will be five dollars per annum, payable in advance.

A commission of 20 per cent. will be allowed to agents; and any agent or postmaster furnishing five subscribers and remitting the amount of subscription, shall be entitled to the commission of 20 per cent. or a copy of the work for one year.

A specimen of the work, or any information respecting it may be obtained by addressing the publishers, post paid.

Editors of newspapers, to whom the prospectus is forwarded, will please insert the above as often as convenient, send a copy of their paper containing the advertisement marked, and entitle themselves to a free exchange for one year. Address

THE

LADY'S BOOK

FOR JULY.

Was published on the First inst.

THIS number commenced a new volume, and contains one of the plates of Fashions, which has rendered this work so celebrated;—also, the Fashions of the olden time. Five similar plates will be given this year.

$3 PER ANNUM, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

Every number contains a steel engraving, or a plate of Fashions, elegantly coloured; two pieces of Music, and Embellishments of distinguished authors; embellishments of scientific subjects, or views of remarkable places.

GALLERY OF PORTRAITS.

Under this head will be published, likenesses of distinguished authors in this country and in Europe. Already have been issued, striking resemblances of Bulwer, Brougham, Hogg, and Cunningham, and the following are now ready for press, and will be published, two in each number, until the whole is completed, Shelley, Lewis, Moore, Coleridge, Rogers, D'Israeli, Neele, Mad. de Stael, Jane Porter, Campbell, Roscoe, and Southey. A fac simile of Washington's hand writing, and of his accounts, will be found in the August number. Also, Steel Engravings of the Parting Hour, illustrated, by N. C. Brooks, A. M.; a view of Park Place, New York; Excerpta; Anthologia, by M. Carey, Esq. Embroidery; Music, &c. The signatures of distinguished citizens will be continued. In short, no effort is spared to render this work paramount to all others of a similar nature.

L. A. GODEY, Publisher,
No. 3 Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

The subscriber, to convince those persons wishing to subscribe for the Lady's Book, that there is no deception in the work, will forward any month's number as a specimen, by sending him a letter, post paid.

If any of our agents should have extra numbers of volume 10 on hand, that they cannot use, they will confer a particular favor on the publisher by returning them immediately, accompanied with a note stating the number sent, and who they are from.

We are so nearly out of volume 10, that we wish to provide a supply in season.

Newspapers exchanging with the Lady's Book, will confer a favor on the subscriber by giving the above three or four insertions.

THE GENTLEMAN'S

VADE MECUM;

ON THE

Sporting and Dramatic Companion,

INTERSPERSED WITH A

MULTITUDE OF ENGRAVINGS,

INCLUDING

Portraits of Celebrated Winning

HORSES,

Philosophical and Natural Phenomena,

Legerdemain, &c.

IT is now six months since this publication was commenced in Philadelphia—and although the publishers have used no extraneous means to circulate a knowledge of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifested by that portion of the public who have been made acquainted with its character and contents, that its list of patrons continues constantly and rapidly to increase. This paper is now distributed regularly every week over a wide portion of the Union, & the most satisfactory assurances are received that it will eventually become one of the most popular among the numerous excellent periodicals which issue from the American press. No exertions will be spared to establish its permanent reputation more extensively, and if the liberal sanction of those for whom it is especially designed shall warrant, its future improvement—both as regards typographical neatness and embellishment—will be materially advanced.

The different Plays and Farces that will appear in the course of a year, or the money refunded, will be worth more than FIFTEEN DOLLARS the amount of subscription. The following is a list of those which have already appeared:—

Charles the First,	Miss Mitford.
Is she a Bride,
The Monomaniac,
Shakspeare's Early Days,	Dr. A. Sedgwick.
Sixth Quarter,	T. Morton.
Quite Correct,	R. P. Smith.
Beggar of Bethnal Green,	J. S. Knowles.
Husbands and Wives,
Man of Ten Thousand,	Thomas Holcroft.
The Ladies' Man,	William E. Burton.
I'll Tell You What,	Mrs. Inchbald.
The Golden Farmer,	Benjamin Webster.
Speculation,	F. M. Reynolds.
Olympic Devils.	Planche & Dance.
Englishman in India,
Shakspeare Festival,	W. T. Moncrieff.
The East Indian,	M. G. Lewis.
My Friend the Governor,	J. R. Planche.
Victorine,	H. M. Milner.
The Omnibus,
The Child of Nature,	Mrs. Inchbald.
The Repentance,
The Duel,
The Sheiks,	R. B. Peake.
Videcq,	W. Barrymore.
Hermit,
Irish Ambassador,	James Kenney.
	Tyrone Power.

The Sporting Intelligence (at home and abroad) occupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is collected from the most authentic sources. Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have been given, are—

The American Trotting Horse, EDWIN FORREST.
The Imported Racing Horse, MESSENGER.
The favorite Racing Mare, ARIEL, and her FOAL by ECLIPSE.
Bond's celebrated Trotting Horse, NORFOLK PHENOMENON.
The true blooded popular Horse, CHATEAU MARGAUX.
The well known English Race Horse, TOUCHSTONE.
A correct PICTURE OF A RACE COURSE, occupying the width of seven columns.
The noted Blood-horse MUNDIG, the winner of the Derby Stakes in June, 1835.

Among a variety of other Embellishments of subjects of interests which have been published, are the following:—

A complete treatise on RIDING, with FOURTEEN ILLUSTRATIONS, for the improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises.

Explanation of the AUTOMATION CHESS PLAYER, illustrated by ELEVEN ENGRAVINGS.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the VADE MECUM will be more distinctly understood from the following summary of them:

The Turf and all matters connected therewith.
On the Structure and Character of the Horse.
On the Improvement of Horned Cattle.
Rules for Novices in Shooting.
Methods for Feeding and Training Dogs.
Biographies of celebrated Horses, with their Portraits.
Hunting, Fishing, Fowling, &c.
Approved games, from Hoyle and others.
Criticisms on Plays and Actors.
The most popular Songs, set to music.
The Art of Legerdemain illustrated.
A variety of Receipes adapted to Domestic Economy.
An Epitome of important passing events.
Gentlemen's quarterly Review of the Fashions.

The VADE MECUM is printed on large imperial paper, of a beautiful white texture, and is published every Saturday, at Three Dollars per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, and the paper carefully packed to prevent it from rubbing by mail.

The MODERN ACTING DRAMA—a volume of about 300 pages—containing the PLAYS, FARCES, &c. which appear in the Vade Mecum, neatly printed, and bound in elastic covers, for transportation—is published every six weeks. Eight volumes will constitute a set, or one year's subscription, the terms for which is three dollars, payable in advance.

Subscribers to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a deduction of one-third on the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four sets will be thankfully received, and the work forwarded to any direction, by inclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid.

A premium consisting of two volumes, 600 pages each, of the Novelette Magazine, containing eight different Novels, by the most popular authors, will be presented to the Agent, who shall procure four names to the Modern Acting Drama or the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, and remit the amount of one year's subscription for each.

Gentlemen wishing to subscribe in either of the above works, will address CHARLES ALEXANDER, No. 3, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

A specimen Copy will be sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publisher, post paid
