KINGSTON, FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 6, 1835.
FIVE DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.
By the packet ship North America, capt. Dixey, from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 2d of October, the editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received their files of London papers to the evening of the 1st, and of Liverpool to the morning of the 2d inclusive. The intelligence derived from these papers will be found below.

GREAT BRITAIN.
Our last London paper, before this arrival, was of the evening of the 25th of September; we continue our summaries and extracts from that date.
The recent ebullitions of popular violence in this country, are much and severely commented on in the English papers. Full details are given of the various "lynch" affairs, of the riotous proceedings in several of our principal cities, of the purse said to have been made up as a reward for the seizure of Mr. Tappan of the letter written by the postmaster-general, and other matters which serve to vilify the good name of the America people.
The King and queen of Belgium arrived at Ramsgate, on the 29th of September on a visit to the duchess of Kent, who is king Leopold's sister.
Mr. O'Connell had set out on his return to Ireland and was expected in Dublin on the 29th of September. Great preparations were made for his reception. He wrote from Kelly on the 24th, to a friend in Dublin, insisting either that their should be no procession in his honor, or that all banners, badges, &c. should be laid aside without exception.

SPAIN.
The latest intelligence from Madrid is to the 23d of September. A postscript to the Paris letter of the 29th in the Morning Post of the 1st October, states that great agitation prevailed on the Bourse, and that Spanish Securities were rapidly falling, on account of alarming rumors from Madrid. It was reported that the queen and the ministry had fled, and that a strong force of liberals was marching upon the capital, demanding the constitution of 1812. These, however, were mere reports.
From other sources it appears that the formation of Juntas still continued, and that they were resolute in their demands. The dismissal of the Torneo ministry gave great satisfaction. A conspiracy is said to have been detected at St. Sebastian, the object of which was to deliver the place to the Carlists. The English auxiliaries were actively engaged in raising extensive fortifications at Bilbao.

The Junta of Cadiz have published a manifesto, declaring Count Torneo guilty of high treason.
Gen Mina has been once more appointed captain-general of Catalonia. General Azaa had set out for Madrid, to enter upon the duties of his appointment as secretary for foreign affairs.
The French papers say that the Portuguese government has refused to march troops into Spain, at the requisition of the queen regent.
There are various and conflicting reports of skirmishes between the Carlists and Christians, but nothing certain or authentic.

Count Almodovar, president of the Valencian Junta, had been compelled to fly, by a popular commotion.
The English captain commanding at the Biscay station has transmitted the following letter to Don Carlos, accompanied by a French translation of the same:
"I was this morning the witness of the most atrocious insults ever committed by the troops of any civilized country, in direct violation of the most positive assurance on the part of the responsible officers who blockaded Bilbao that the English flag should be respected. Upon the faith of this promise, two open boats, belonging to his Britannic majesty's brig Ring-dove, descended the river, to communicate with the superior officers of the Portuguese, when they were attacked by a strong body of troops entrenched on each side of the river, and persons killed and wounded. As the superior officer in the command of his Britannic majesty's ships employed off this coast, I protest, in the name of my country, against this atrocious and deliberate assassination; and unless the most complete satisfaction be given to the insulted flag of Great Britain, your royal highness will have to expect that vengeance which you have had the temerity to provoke. On board the brig Ring-dove, stationed at Olavenga, September 3, 1835."

FACTS AND SCRAPS.
Unless we beslobber our contemporaries with fulsome praise, they are not satisfied. We imagined we had praised the U. C. Albion to the editor's heart's content, but it seems we are mistaken. Like Moses we mentioned the slipper of Venus, and lo! we have committed a mortal offence. We repeat, again and again, that unless our contemporary will make his compositors learn the distinction between a comma and a semi-colon, the force of half his writings will be much diminished. In the very column in which he alludes to a typographical error in the Whig, fifty errors of that kind may be found, to the serious detriment of the writer's meaning. The True Briton is also angry with us for noticing his political bias. With him however our crime proceeds from ignorance! Be that as it may, we take the liberty of telling him, that we consider such publications as the Montreal Herald and True Briton, however ably conducted, to be highly detrimental to the liberties of the British part of the Lower Canada population. They keep alive that enmity, unhappily existing with the Canadians of French origin, and those from Great Britain; and are the main cause of preventing concessions being made by the House of Assembly, that are so loudly called for by every honest man in the province. As in our ignorant opinion, it is the British part of the population that is laboring under political and domestic grievances, so we must also think, that every person who prevents those grievances from being redressed, must be an enemy to that part of the population.
The New York Commercial Advertiser gives the following important piece of information to the American public.
"A new London Mayor has been elected for London; William Taylor Cupeland, Esq. one of the Board of Aldermen."
One would have imagined, that a newspaper so profoundly learned in English affairs, would have known, that a new Lord Mayor is annually elected in London on Michaelmas Day, and that he must be chosen from the Board of Aldermen. Oh! these Yankee!

By the following extract from a London paper, the Canadian public will perceive that the humbug "Morrison's Pills" has exploded at home. When we have a little more leisure, we shall attempt the same thing in Upper Canada.
"Critic must be a very foolish individual if he can persuade himself that THE DESPATCH has 'never done any good.' Why vanity apart, with regard to one feature only, of our numerous exposures of vile frauds and public shames, we can clearly show that we have saved the lives of hundreds of our countrymen. Escize gum. The 'Hygeist' vendors of the 'universal vegetable' poison were pocketing thousands of pounds per annum by the sale of that vile compound of gamboge and aloes but which the highest medical authorities, backed by the solemn decision of the Juries, declared to be horribly destructive of human life. Still the fellows carried over their thing before them—their lying puff of pretended miraculous cures, and their enormously expensive pills, were swallowed with avidity throughout the land. In fact, they raged like the cholera, till THE DESPATCH, with its thirty thousand power of exposure, came down upon them, and now that species of Quackery is literally extinct. The 'Hygeists' are floored, never to rise a new hammer for the Mock Auctioneer, or a haggis for his bludgeoning Scotch partner.
In several of the Upper Canada papers we hear mention made of the 'Rector' of certain places, such for instance, as the appointment of the Rev. James Geddes to be 'Rector' of Hamilton. In the name of common sense we ask who made this gentleman, or any other Church of England Minister, in Canada a 'Rector'? A 'Rector' is a clergyman who receives the 'great titles' of a parish, and it is the receiving of those titles, that constitutes him a 'Rector'. Other parish ministers are called 'Vicars,' and their assistants 'Curates.' The real designation of a Church of England Minister in Upper Canada is 'Missionary.' Until this province is subdivided into parishes, and saddled with the 'great titles,' we hope we shall hear no more of the odious name of 'Rector.'
A number of enquiries have been made relative to the identity of the 'gentleman' who performed the office of hangman on the late melancholy occasion. Some persons assert him to be the 'white nigger'; others again, are positive that one of the prisoners was Jack Ketch; while we are almost equally certain that the editor of the 'Belleville Intelligencer' was the man who earned the ten pounds: one thing is certain, no man ever evinced so much anxiety to hang his fellow creature as the Belleville Jew.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE BRITISH WHIG.
DR. GEORGE BAKER, J. P., AND HIS 1500 ACRE FARM!!!
Although for several years past, in various circles and on various occasions, Dr. Baker has been the subject of remark on account of the tremendous swath he cuts, and dignity and importance he assumes, without any regard from whence he sprung, or in what way he was educated and brought up, but merely in reference to what he really is, in and of himself, and more particularly since he has had a handle added to his name, and become overflowing with loyalty;—for I must not forget to mention, that among all this small talk, his exploits were more than hinted at, accompanied with a wink or a shrug of the shoulder. But Sir, neither myself, those said critics, nor the public, who have also had an eye upon him since he commenced spouting loyalty, and since it was known that the government in addition to fixing the handle to his name, had also fixed him out with land acres, One Thousand, (a snug farm in these hard times,) by way of supporting his dignity I suppose, were not prepared (until we saw your remarks in the Whig of the 27th of last month) to have, what used only to be hinted at, and whispered as a secret, proved beyond the possibility of a doubt, viz. upon no less authority than the affidavit of Peter Davy, Esq. of Bath. No one, I am sure, that has the least acquaintance with that gentleman, will for a moment doubt the truth of what he stated. I say we were not prepared to have such proceedings proved against the most superb loyal Dr. J. P. I wonder if it was for those loyal acts mentioned by Mr. Davy, that the government made a J. P. of him, and gave him the 1000 acre farm. If it was not, I wonder what they will think of their new friend and brother. And I also wonder whether, as they cannot take back the farm, they will let him keep the handle also. And I further wonder whether (if the government does not see fit to take back the J. P.) our other worthy J. P.'s of the District will rest easy, and set with him on the bench, with Mr. Davy's statement strating them in the face,—or whether they will refuse to do so, and desire the government to send him adrift. I suppose time will show what is to become of all my wonderments. However, I may perhaps be permitted to make one remark, and that is—our J. P.'s generally of this District are tolerably, and some of them superlative loyal also in their professions;—and if I am not much mistaken, if they continue to bench with the J. P. under consideration, other folks will consider them just about as loyal as he is. An old saying is, that you can know a man by the company he keeps. But I will not anticipate evil, but good, and therefore will believe (until forced to do otherwise) that in case the government do not take it up, our Magistrates will, and that Squire Davy will manfully step forward first on the list. Relative to the grant of land, I assure you that since it has been known, not a little dissatisfaction and distrust has been manifested among the public—and no wonder; for it must be remembered that at the time his valuable services were rewarded with 800 acres, the government were throwing every obstacle in the way of the faithful and honest militia obtaining 100 acres for six months privations, sacrifice and faithful duty, and the U. E. Loyalists for their true and faithful attachment, &c. And the circumstances you mention of his not having a license at the time he served, will increase rather than diminish that dissatisfaction and distrust. And there is another circumstance which makes it still more squally—his having received 200 acres in the year 1818, as a settler,—for I will thank any one to show in any one instance where a grant has been made to a settler of the description of George Baker (an American born subject) since the late war, except in this instance. It would seem he does not spout loyalty for nothing. Anxiously hoping that either the government, our magistrates, or both will take such steps as the public have a right to expect, under the circumstances of the case, allow me to subscribe myself for the present,
HOPE.
Camden, Nov. 3d, 1835.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—We have been solicited to publish the official documents referred to by us in our expose of Mr. Baker's grant of land. Their length prevents us. We can find room however for Mr. Davy's affidavit.
Bath, June 25th, 1835.
Hearing that Dr. George Baker, late of Bath, now of Kingston, had made application for a grant of land for his services during the late war, and knowing him to be wholly undeserving of the same, I hereby inform Your Excellency, that I have known the said Baker to harbor that noted spy and pirate, William Johnston, all through the late war, in his house and about his place in Bath. I have seen him myself personally.
PETER DAVY, J. P.
To His Excellency, Sir John Colborne, &c. &c.
