SIXTH VEAR OF THE Let ID VOS BOOK,

PHILADELPHIA MOSTHLY MAGAZINE.

Of Literature' Fushions, and Pertraits. THE LADY'S BOOK was the first publication in this country to in-troduce and perfect a taste for COLORED PLATES OF THE PASHIONS; and the universal popularity which the book obtained, with the aid of these beautiful and costly embellishments, although they appeared every quarter only, was unprecedented and unexampled. The ablisher, emboldened by his long experience, and the success which has crowned his former courts to signalize his work, intends, with the comng volume, to introduce alternately every other month, in the comments be year, SIX SPLENDID PLATES OF THE FASHIONS, SU-PERBLY COLORED. The engravings will be copied from original esigns, prepared expressly for that purpose; thereby farnishing the pacons of the work with correct and constant information of the latest and most approved styles for ladies! dresses, as they come out. This arrangement will materially advance the value and beauty of his work, and although it will add considerably to the publisher's neavy outlays; he trusts with confidence to the liberality of a discerning public for future to moneration, corresponding with his exertions and unrelaxing efforts to keep pace with the rapid progress of the improvements of the age. The following is the order which will be adopted for the Embellishments of the Lady's Book for 1836, viz: January, March, May, July, September, November, superb engravings of the prevailing fashions, elegantly colored. ly ENGRAVED TITLE PAGES, and a general Table of contems for February, April, June, August October, December, fine steel engra tings, illustrating a variety of interesting subjects. Besides, every number will be enriched with a Plate from the POR TRAIT GALLERY, containing the Likenesses of two distinguished in dividuals. In addition to which, other and various Engravings will be regularly added-with two Pages of POPULAR MUSIC. The publisher has at present in the hands of an excellent artist a steel Engraving, which will contain a likeness of all the present reignin Queens of Europe, which will be given as an extra in the January No. To meet these expensive unsurements, it is absolutely necessary that remittances should be promptly unde. At the end of the last six months learly six hundred names were crased from our list, in consequence of appearing from the books that each owed two year's subscription .-Many have since paid, and some had previously settled with agents .-These and other grievious inconveniencies a publisher has to encounter, which should, as far as the Agent is concerned, be remedied by his rendering an account of all the sams that he has received, at least once in every six months. Subscribers become amoyed when their names are erased for delinquency, and when they settle, thep will not again renew their subscription. This, consequently, is a serious loss to the proprietor. The following suggestions are respectfully tendered for the consideration of persons who are now in arrears. Let those who owe two years, or hat will owe two in December or June next, send a Five Dollar note, on account. Many refrain from forwarding their dues because they cannot remit the exact sum; this is not necessary, if they continue their subscrip tion. It is only when a person stops the work, that a liquidation of the Whole amount due becomes necessary.

GALLERY OF PORTRAITS.—Under this head will be published very month, likenesses of distinsuished Authors in this country and in Europe. Striking re-emblances of Bulwer, Brougham, Hogg, Cunning-ham, &c. &c. have been given. The following are now ready for press, and will be published two in each number until the whole is completed; Shelley, Lewis, Moore, Coleridge, Rodgers, D'Israeli, Neele, Mad. de Stael, Jane Porter, Campbell, Roscoc, Southey, &c.

Fac similes of the writing of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Adams, Byron, Scott, and other distinguished persons, have already appeared. Those of Napoleon, Franklin, La Payette, &c. &c. are in preparation.

The publication of views of beamiful scenery and remarkable public edifices, will be continued as heretofore.

Every number of the work contains forty eight large octave pages printed on fine white paper, the whole nearly stitched in covers. The postage for each number is 3 cents for any distance under 100 miles-5

To convince persons wishing to subscribe for the Lady's Book, that is equal in point of embellishments, the interest of its contents, and gene rai beauty of appearance, to the descriptions repeatedly given at large, and the flattering notices that have been made of it by editors in different sections of the Union, the publisher will forward any monthly number as a Specimen, by sending him a letter, post paid.

The work will in future be published and delivered on the first of each month, in Philadelphia, Vew York, Boston, Baltimore, and Charleston-in New Orleans about the 5th. Subscribers missing a number will please inform the publisher, free of postage, and a duplicate will be sent there.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, 3 dollars per annum, payable in sh vance. Postmusters undagents can have two copies forwarded to any direction, by advancing five dollare. L. A. GODEY, Philadelphia. Will those with whom we exchange please copy the above ad-Vertisement, and notice the change in the manner or embeddishing the

RESPECTFULLY inform the Printers of the United States, to whom they have been individually known as established Letter Founders, that they have now formed a co-partnership in said business, and from their united skill and extensive experience, they hope to be able to give satisfaction to al who may favor them with their orders. The introduction of machinery in place of the tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand a desideratum by the European founders, was by American ingenuity and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine cast letter has fully tested and established its superiority in every particular over those cast by

Expense, distance from the emporous of literature engrossing occupations which prevent personal application or even messages to libraries and book sellers, are so many causes to keep people away from the feast of reason, and the enjoyment of the roveted hierary aliment. It is the aim of the publishers of the Library to obviote the difficulties, and to couble every individual, at a small cost and without any STAPLE & FANCY BRY GOODS, personal effort, to obtain for his own use and that of his favored friends or family, valuable works, complete, on all the branches of useful and popular literature, and that in a form well adapted to the comfort of the

The charm of variety, as far as it is compatible with morality and good taste, will be held constantly in view in conducting the Library, to fill the pages of which the current literature of Great Britain, in all it carrows departments of Biography, History, Travels, Novels and Poetry, shall be freely put under contribution. With, perchance, occasional exceptions, it is intended to give caure the work which shall be selected for publica tion. When circumstances authorize the measure, recourse will be had to the literary stores of Continental Europe, and translations made from French, Italian, or German, as the case may be.

Whilst the body of the work will be a reprint, or at times a translation of entire volumes, the cover will exhibit the miscellaneous character of a Magazine, and consist of sketchs of men and things, and notices of novelties in literature and the arts, throughout the civilized world. A full and regular supply of the literary monthly and heldomadal journals of Great Britain and Ireland, in addition to home periodicals of similar character, cannot fail to provide ample materials for this part of our work.
