

The motion was cordially approved by Sir J. P. ... The motion was strongly opposed by Dr. Minnell.

THE ARMY AND NAVY. The Army in Ireland consists of 7 regiments of Cavalry, 17 regiments of Infantry, 16 Infantry Depots, 3 companies Royal Marines, 1 Troop of Royal Horse Artillery, and 1 Troop of Foot Artillery.

THE SATELLITE. 18, Commander Rowley, is at Spithead, ready for orders previously to her departure for South America. The Boyne, transport, arrived at Spithead, on the 21st ult., from Antigua, bringing home three companies of the 17th Regiment, under the command of Capt. Rooke.

THE HELMS. Commander Ricketts, sailed from Portsmouth on the 21st ult., the newly-appointed Minister to Mexico, whom she will visit at Jamaica; after which she goes to the Cape of Good Hope.

COMMERCIAL

Trade is brisk, and the general tone of commercial affairs is cheering. Money is abundant and discounts low. The Cotton market is in a feverish state of excitement, and is very active.

BUENOS AYRES AND MONTEVIDEO. We find news up to the 3rd of December in the London Herald of the 1st instant.

It appears that the department of Colonia had suffered much from the frequent incursions into that district by the combatants.

LATER NEWS FROM PERU AND CHILI. The following is an extract of a letter received by the ship Robin Hood, at this port, dated.

FRANCE. The French Chambers have been almost exclusively occupied since they met in discussing the clause of the address to the King in answer to the royal speech, of which the address is nearly an echo.

SPAIN. The news from Spain may very briefly be summed up. The latest date from Madrid is the 11th instant.

RUSSIA. The accounts from Russia state that the ambassador who was summoned so peremptorily from Greece, on the breaking out of the revolution, had succeeded in justifying himself to the emperor.

allowed to have any arms, not even fowling-pieces, without giving previous notice to the Russian authorities, who heard the armistice statements that look like fables respecting the magnificence displayed at the court of St. Petersburg on the marriage of a Russian princess with the presumptive heir to the crown of Denmark and also of Hesse, an event of the highest importance to Germany.

NEW ZEALAND.

New Zealand papers to the 21st. September have come to hand, according to which the excitement caused by the late fearful massacre in the Waikato country, near Clouby-bay, had in a degree subsided.

The most interesting information received by this arrival is the commencement of the export trade of the colony, the Nelson, the first ship coming home with a full cargo of oil, whalebone, and wax.

Mr. Fox will not return home for some time. Mr. Bankhead, now attached to the British Legation at Constantinople, will previously attached to that at Washington, will succeed Mr. Pakenham in Mexico.
