

EDWARD JOHN BARKER, M. D. AT THE ATHENEUM, In Bagot Street, next door to the Lambton House.

ROBERT R. SMILEY, PRINTER. LITHO-PRESS PRINTING. Orders executed in the best style, on reasonable terms.

ROBERT McCORMICK. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN WINES, SPIRITS, TEAS, GROCERIES, &c.

J. A. McDOWALL, FURRIER AND HATTER, BROCK STREET, KINGSTON.

CRAIG & WATT, ACCOUNTANTS, ONTARIO STREET.

DR. HOWARD, PRINCESS STREET, KINGSTON.

MR. MACDONALD & CAMPBELL, BARRISTERS & ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

MR. KENNETH MACKENZIE, BARRISTER AT LAW, SOLICITOR IN CHIEF, &c.

M. T. HUNTER, SHIP CHANDLER, No. 4, Hardy's Buildings, Ontario Street.

PAINTING, DAVID MARTIN, (From Scotland).

PAINTER, GLAZIER, & PAPER HANGER.

FASHIONABLE TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, BROCK STREET, KINGSTON.

JAMES RICHARDSON, BEGINS leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the Shop formerly occupied by Mr. Elton.

QUEBEC FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. THE Subscriber, Agent for this Institution.

PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE. MRS. HILTON begs to intimate to her friends and the public generally.

NEW BOOKS & STATIONERY. THE Subscribers have lately received a variety of new and interesting books.

NEW ENGRAVINGS. THE Subscribers have just received a large collection of new and beautiful Engravings.

PROVINCIAL JUSTICE. A few copies of the new Edition of this work may be had on application to the subscriber.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber, Mr. TIMOTHY MURPHY, in retiring from his business and shop.

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER. 60 BBLs. Pot Barley, No. 1 North Shore Hering.

The British Whig, AND GENERAL ADVERTISER FOR CANADA WEST.

VOL. XIII. KINGSTON, CANADA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1844. NO. 98.

H. MATHISON, MERCHANT TAILOR, KING STREET.

THE Subscriber respectfully begs leave to inform his friend and customer that he has just received from Montreal his Winter Supply of BROAD CLOTHS AND CASSIMERES.

WINTER VESTINGS of every description. H. MATHISON, Kingston, Nov. 5, 1844.

REMOVAL. THE Subscriber has removed his CANDLE MANUFACTORY, to Ontario Street.

BY PRIVATE SALE. BOXES Canada Plates, 27 kegs fresh Dairy Butter.

TO EMIGRANTS POSSESSED OF A SMALL CAPITAL. RENT, A FARM OF 50 Acres.

LUMBER. FOR SALE by the Subscriber, near the Government Wharf.

PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE. MRS. HILTON begs to intimate to her friends and the public generally.

NEW BOOKS. THE Subscribers have received Large Additions to their Stock of Standard English Works.

VETERINARY SHOEING ESTABLISHMENT. On the Corner of King Street and the Place des Arms.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber, Mr. TIMOTHY MURPHY, in retiring from his business and shop.

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER. 60 BBLs. Pot Barley, No. 1 North Shore Hering.

GENUINE TEA AND COFFEE WAREHOUSE. Corner of King and Brock Streets, next door to the Chronicle & Gazette Office.

WILLIAM J. MARTIN, RESPECTFULLY informs his Friends and the Public, that he has opened a large and choice Stock of Genuine Groceries.

TEAS. Imperial, Gunpowder, Young and Old Hyson, Single, Double, and Old Hyson.

COFFEE. Green, Roasted, Fresh Ground.

SUGARS. Double Refined Loaf, Single, du. du.

OIL. Olive, Sperm, Lard, Castor.

WINE. Port, Sherry, Madeira, Cognac, Champagne, Claret, &c. &c.

BRANDY. Cognac, Brandy, Pale.

Tobaccos. Cavendish, No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, No. 8, No. 9, No. 10.

TO RENT. In Colborne Street, and possession given on the 1st of December next.

TO LET. May, the Premises in the COMMERCIAL MART, at the foot of Princess Street.

TO SHIP OWNERS & MASTERS OF VESSELS. THE Subscriber has on hand and for sale, at his Ship Chandlery Store.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT. HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY. DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS.

Mr. ROLAND McDONALD moved, seconded by Mr. COLVILL, that an Address be presented to His Excellency, acquainting him that this House is gratified that an early period has been selected by His Excellency the Governor General.

That this House, in common with the other subjects of our Gracious Queen, throughout Her vast dominions in every quarter of the Globe, rejoice at the auspicious birth of another member of the Royal Family.

That the earnest consideration of this House will be devoted to all subjects before them, concerning the welfare of the Province. They recognize the improvement of the People as one of their most urgent duties.

That the attention of this House will be devoted to the Municipal Institutions of the Province, as well as to the state of the Prisons, and the want of Lunatic Asylums in Lower Canada.

That this House will avail itself of the earliest opportunity of taking into consideration the framing of such a measure as may give efficiency to that same.

That this House is gratified to learn that the state of the Revenue will be the subject of congratulation.

That this House learns with profound satisfaction that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

of vacancies in several of the most important offices of the administration, immediate efforts were made by His Excellency to fill them by gentlemen supposed to possess the confidence of the people.

That this House, in the full exercise of its constitutional powers, will earnestly endeavour to maintain the harmony with the other branches of the Legislature essential to the well being of the people.

That this House, in common with the other subjects of our Gracious Queen, throughout Her vast dominions in every quarter of the Globe, rejoice at the auspicious birth of another member of the Royal Family.

That the earnest consideration of this House will be devoted to all subjects before them, concerning the welfare of the Province.

That the attention of this House will be devoted to the Municipal Institutions of the Province, as well as to the state of the Prisons, and the want of Lunatic Asylums in Lower Canada.

That this House will avail itself of the earliest opportunity of taking into consideration the framing of such a measure as may give efficiency to that same.

That this House is gratified to learn that the state of the Revenue will be the subject of congratulation.

That this House learns with profound satisfaction that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

Mr. COLVILLE seconded. The Hon. gentleman, in rising, said he need not allude to the address of the House when he stood before them.

That this House, in the full exercise of its constitutional powers, will earnestly endeavour to maintain the harmony with the other branches of the Legislature essential to the well being of the people.

That this House, in common with the other subjects of our Gracious Queen, throughout Her vast dominions in every quarter of the Globe, rejoice at the auspicious birth of another member of the Royal Family.

That the earnest consideration of this House will be devoted to all subjects before them, concerning the welfare of the Province.

That the attention of this House will be devoted to the Municipal Institutions of the Province, as well as to the state of the Prisons, and the want of Lunatic Asylums in Lower Canada.

That this House will avail itself of the earliest opportunity of taking into consideration the framing of such a measure as may give efficiency to that same.

That this House is gratified to learn that the state of the Revenue will be the subject of congratulation.

That this House learns with profound satisfaction that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

last twelve months. It would have been in accordance with the principles of the Constitution not to have left the hon. members who had just sat down to give explanations which the House had a right to expect from the Ministers themselves.

That this House, in the full exercise of its constitutional powers, will earnestly endeavour to maintain the harmony with the other branches of the Legislature essential to the well being of the people.

That this House, in common with the other subjects of our Gracious Queen, throughout Her vast dominions in every quarter of the Globe, rejoice at the auspicious birth of another member of the Royal Family.

That the earnest consideration of this House will be devoted to all subjects before them, concerning the welfare of the Province.

That the attention of this House will be devoted to the Municipal Institutions of the Province, as well as to the state of the Prisons, and the want of Lunatic Asylums in Lower Canada.

That this House will avail itself of the earliest opportunity of taking into consideration the framing of such a measure as may give efficiency to that same.

That this House is gratified to learn that the state of the Revenue will be the subject of congratulation.

That this House learns with profound satisfaction that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.

That this House is gratified to learn that the Government has graciously received the assent of the last Parliament on the subject of the Civil List.