The troops sent there hence may keep the natives quiet at present, but war is in their hearts, or the character of the New Zealander feelings are anti-British. That is enough for us.

The only man who, it appears, is likely to keep the New Zealanders quiet, is Mr. Clarke, and the clergy and missionaries of all sects, Protestants and Roman. PROSPECTUS

A NEW GEOGRAPHICAL MAR vinces, &c.

BY JOSEPH BOUCHETTE, D.S.G. HAVING undertaken to publish the above undersigned begs to submit the following Prospectus to the Public :
Deeply impressed with the expediency and large Yard adjoining, upon which, with importance of a new Map of the Province of Canada, exhibiting the manifold and extensive local improvements that have marked the advancement of the Country within the last can be piled in the Winter, an article fifteen years, the Author has been, since the which commands a ready market in the Union of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Summer, for the use of Steamers. Canada, laboriously engaged in the reconstruc-The scite for business cannot be sur- tion, revision and amelioration of his Map of passed by any place from Kingston to the British North American Colonies, published in London in 1830.

The Map, thus improved, contains not only an accurate exhibit of United Canada, but emy Scotia, Newfoundland and Prince Edward's conterminous States, and the Boundary, as settled by the Treaty of Washington in 1842,

It also embraces, on a detached scale, that section of the British dominions lying between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and extending Northward to the Polar Seas, showing the most recent discoveries and explorations that byye taken place in that portion of the Arche megions, and comprising likewise the Oregon Ter-

In its details, the Map contains a faithful delineation of the existing divisions and subdivisions of Canada into Districts, Counties, Seignories and Townships, its municipal and four (7 x 4), laid down upon a geggraphical projection, and on a scale of 14 statute miles to one inch. In the construction of the Map, the author has devoted the greatest care and attention, and in its compilation has appealed to documents of unquestionable accoracy and authority; a very considerable proportion of which were collected by him at great personal research and labor, and were in general possessed of official authority.

The author humbly believes, that in the improved state of the Province, and after the recent Union, the publication of such a Map will be of high public interest and utility; and thematics, - - 2 0 0 aware of the magnitude and expensiveness of the design of the Subscriber is to the undertaking, he begs now to solicit the liberal support and the patronage of the Public, without which he can scarcely hope to be able to accomplish the tasighe has assumed,

The Map is now in the course of Engraving by those excellent Artists, Messrs. Sureman & Smartt, of New York. The price to Subscribers will be £2 10s. in sheets—or £3 mounted on canvass and rollets. N. B .- The Subscriber will be in Kingston in the course of a few days, for the purpose of receiving orders for the work, which is expected to be ready for publication about April ROBERT W. S. MACKAY, Rookseller and Publisher, 115, Notre Dane Street, Montreal. Montroal, 3rd October, 1845.
