value is felt in the usefulness of even a tract or a magazine, and if those who give a cup of cold water only shall be remembered, we are warranted in saying they shall in no wise lose their reward. While we lay before this society the account of our past success and prosperity, it is necessary to state that we wish to enlarge the horders and strengthen the stakes of this infant association. The immediate object presented before you prospectively is certainly most desirable, that we obtain some suitable person as missionary to the seamen in the port of Kingston, Garden Island, and Pertsmouth Harbor; to establish a temperance boarding house for seamen on christian principles; and a free school for the education of seamen's children.

We do not doubt but that this benevolent community will meet and sustain, as they have ever been ready and forward to do, all reasonable and just claims upon their charities, their sympathies and prayers; and we now look to the citizens of Kingston and Canada for its accomplishment, with confidence that this appeal will not be made in vain.

FRANKFORD BRIDGE .- We understand that about 90 feet of the centre of this Bridge, gave way on Sunday last, by which a man narbut it is fortunate for the District, that the work was not received. It was we are informed, one of the worst pieces of works ever seen, and never could have been expected to stand. This we think, shows the wise provision of the Law, prohibiting the Council to undertake works, exceeding in estimate £300. Had we had a proper Civil Engineer for this Frankford Bridge, the District would have saved money by it .- Belleville Intelligencer.

It is evident. ly the work of the person or persons from whom the articles were seized -They should, however, know that in the eye of the law, this is as much a Robbery as if they had taken so much of Mr. Sanderson's goods .- Brockville Recorder.

TELEGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE .- On Saturday we received information as to what sum the Telegraph Co., would furnish regular reports to the Press for ; the sum is £12 a week. If every Press on the line enters into the arrangement, the cost will be about $3 a week to each, or $156 for the year.
