Itis precisely on this latter principle hat the Pills now offered to the public are formed; and as their activity can be increased or lossened, merely by taking a larger or smaller quantity, they not only furnish an Aperient Medicine proper for general use in a Family, but are also well calculated to answer most o. the purposes for which purgative remedies are necessary.

The Pills are not, however, recom. mended as a SPECIFIC for the cure of ALL diseases; such preposterous statements are worse than ridiculous, and are only put forth for deception. But they will prove a Valuable Remedy for lays the foundation of much suffering. forthose occasional obstructions to which all are liable, and for all those disorders BONE LINIMENT-A certain cure for the Inthe stomach and alimentary canal.
