HURON DISTRICT.—An Inquest was held on the 5th inst., in Wawanosh, before George Fraser, Esq., Coroner, and Jury, on the body of an aged man, James Fry, the particulars of the cause of thanks, for the support so generously accorded to whose death are as follows:-- The deceased lived him, since his removal from St. Paul Street, to on Lot 19, in the 5th concession, and this being by burning off the brush and logs, on land intended for spring crups, the deceased had gone out, by himself, to born brush, and at dinner time his wife, a feeble old woman, surprised at his not coming home, blew the horn for him. This having attracted the attention of the deceased's son-in-law and daughter, who live on an adjoining lot, she went to see what was the occasion of the horn's blowing, and proceeding to search for her father, supposing he had fallen asleep, found him lying on his face dreadfully humed, at a brush heap. and quite dead, a large log having rolled on his legs, which held him fast. There was a hill adjoining, at which, it was thought, the deceased had rested, leaning against a supling on which the log pressed, and this giving way had precipitated him down the hill into the burning brush pile, where he was burned to death. To Mesers. Rowland and Son, 20, Hatton ? Garden, London. GENTLEMEN,-I consider it almost an imperative duty to state the efficacy of your excellent Macassan Oil. For the last fifteen years I have been bald, necessand by a drenful fever whilst in rence, they have this day received their India. I have used almost every means to pro. cure a head of hair again, but all my efforts seemed fruitless, until accidentally a friend advised the use of your valuable " Hair Restorer" (I can for this Season, imported per packet ship give no better name,) and after using a 3s. 6d. bottle, every sympton of a new head of hair began
