

My brother's agent, from whom I have made the inquiry, informs me that I have been the subject of a complaint to the effect of the following nature:—That on the 25th of January, 1849, a man named John Smith, who is a resident of the town of... (text continues with details of the complaint and the person's actions)

HORRIBLE BRUTALITY.
From the Montreal Gazette.
The Honorable the Chief Justice, Thursday, February 3, 1849.
The Honorable the Chief Justice, Thursday, February 3, 1849.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH, MONTREAL.
Thursday, February 3, 1849.
The Honorable the Chief Justice, Thursday, February 3, 1849.
The Honorable the Chief Justice, Thursday, February 3, 1849.

MORALS IN BYTOWN.
From the Bytown Gazette, Feb. 17.
The state of society in this place would seem to be in a state of... (text continues with a detailed account of social conditions and incidents in Bytown)

AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.
A meeting of the Directors of this Association was held at the... (text continues with details of the association's activities and financial matters)

It was determined to make a strong appeal to the people of the Province, in favour of the Association, and to induce them to vote for the... (text continues with details of the appeal and the meeting)

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM BILL.
On Tuesday evening last, the second reading of the Lunatic Asylum Bill was taken in the House of Commons... (text continues with details of the bill's progress)

THE SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.
NON-SUBSCRIBERS to the British Whig... (text continues with details of the session and the subscription list)

BRITISH WHIG.
"Opinion per O'Brien Deane."
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1849.
TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS
In Belleville, Sidney, Randon, Murray, Trent Port, Brighton, Coburg, Coburg, Port Hope, Whitby, and the Prince Edward District.

as a brute. We are quite aware, that under the Mutiny Act, commanding officers have a legal right to confine soldiers in the Penitentiary; but these gentlemen should observe the spirit of the law, as well as its letter.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

It was determined to make a strong appeal to the people of the Province, in favour of the Association, and to induce them to vote for the... (text continues with details of the appeal and the meeting)

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM BILL.
On Tuesday evening last, the second reading of the Lunatic Asylum Bill was taken in the House of Commons... (text continues with details of the bill's progress)

THE SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.
NON-SUBSCRIBERS to the British Whig... (text continues with details of the session and the subscription list)

BRITISH WHIG.
"Opinion per O'Brien Deane."
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1849.
TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS
In Belleville, Sidney, Randon, Murray, Trent Port, Brighton, Coburg, Coburg, Port Hope, Whitby, and the Prince Edward District.

as a brute. We are quite aware, that under the Mutiny Act, commanding officers have a legal right to confine soldiers in the Penitentiary; but these gentlemen should observe the spirit of the law, as well as its letter.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

It was determined to make a strong appeal to the people of the Province, in favour of the Association, and to induce them to vote for the... (text continues with details of the appeal and the meeting)

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM BILL.
On Tuesday evening last, the second reading of the Lunatic Asylum Bill was taken in the House of Commons... (text continues with details of the bill's progress)

THE SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.
NON-SUBSCRIBERS to the British Whig... (text continues with details of the session and the subscription list)

BRITISH WHIG.
"Opinion per O'Brien Deane."
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1849.
TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS
In Belleville, Sidney, Randon, Murray, Trent Port, Brighton, Coburg, Coburg, Port Hope, Whitby, and the Prince Edward District.

as a brute. We are quite aware, that under the Mutiny Act, commanding officers have a legal right to confine soldiers in the Penitentiary; but these gentlemen should observe the spirit of the law, as well as its letter.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

THE RIGID AND PARTIAL IN IRELAND.
The Rigid and partial in Ireland were proceeding, and partial order has been restored. The King of the French had not completely recovered his health, and an abdication is talked of, though there is nothing authentic on the subject.

It was determined to make a strong appeal to the people of the Province, in favour of the Association, and to induce them to vote for the... (text continues with details of the appeal and the meeting)

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM BILL.
On Tuesday evening last, the second reading of the Lunatic Asylum Bill was taken in the House of Commons... (text continues with details of the bill's progress)

THE SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.
NON-SUBSCRIBERS to the British Whig... (text continues with details of the session and the subscription list)

BRITISH WHIG.
"Opinion per O'Brien Deane."
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1849.
TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS
In Belleville, Sidney, Randon, Murray, Trent Port, Brighton, Coburg, Coburg, Port Hope, Whitby, and the Prince Edward District.