PARTICULARS OF THE NEWS PER STEAMER CADACIA. FRANCE. M. Charles Louis, ex-ambassador, and M. Billard, formerly secretary to the Minister of the Interior, are appointed Comptroller of State.

THE Minister of War has announced that, upon making an enquiry into the state of the armaments, he found that he was able to place 200,000 muskets and rifles at the disposal of the national guard of Paris and the provinces, which, in addition to those which had been distributed in 1839, would make a total of 1,500,000 stand of arms.

THE 3rd instant being the day fixed by the Provisional Government for the reception of the Irish delegation, Mr. Smith O'Brien and the other members of the Irish Confederation went to the Hotel at half-past three to present their address. They were received by M. de Lamartine, and the other members of the Provisional Government being present.

THE Bureau de la Marine has directed the dismissal of all the English engineers and stokers employed in French steamers.

THE election of the officers of the national guard commenced on the 5th instant, and was proceeding quietly, but considerable excitement would probably mark their close.

CITIZENS OF IRELAND.—If we required a fresh proof of the pacific influence of the proclamation of the great democratic principles, this new Christianity bearing forth at the opportune moment, and dividing the world as formerly into a few nations, and now into a vast number of nations, surely discloses this proof of the omnipotent action of an idea in the visible spontaneous part of the world.

THE persons employed on the railway were armed with muskets and bayonets.

It is stated in the British Gazette that 150,000 Russians are already concentrated on the Polish frontier, under command of Prince Paskewitch.
