

Principality of Ireland without confirmation, or a Protestant one without it?—I look at the sun, which is an open chapter, which no one will ever close, for the love of him should a plowman be made, which few will care to make, for fear of being condemned with the rest; and a nation asserted to be on the side of rebellion on account of one other, is too rich and the other too poor, to be called truly Irish. May we not then, that when one church shall be equalized, and the other set in its place, all parties will not be just over them were before, wrangling, squabbling, fighting and, of course, annihilating England as the cause of all their misery and confusion!

VANCOUVER'S ISLAND AND THE Hudson's Bay Company.—In the House of Commons on the 15th ultimo Mr. Christy rose to call the attention of the House to the proposed grant of Vancouver's Island to the Hudson's Bay Company, and strongly deprecated such a proceeding on the part of the government.

Mr. Hawes defended the policy of the government. He said that for some time there had been a great anxiety to colonize that island, and many plans had been suggested, and in no instance had they tendered to the government any security that they would be able to carry out these plans. The honorable gentleman pointed out the assurance that would result from giving a territorial grant of the island to the Hudson's Bay Company, insuring that the government and management of the internal affairs would remain with the colonists, who would have the right to make their laws. As regards the charges brought against the Hudson's Bay Company, they had been satisfactorily answered; and upon a further investigation by Lord Elgin, the report was again most satisfactory.

Mr. Gladstone protested against Vancouver's Island being handed over to the Hudson's Bay Company, which being a fur trading company, had interests in opposition to colonization. He also contended that the company had exercised despotic power, and that their servants being in fact slaves, were the most wretched persons in the world to be sent to colonize a new colony.

Mr. C. Butler said that much interest had been taken in the Hudson's Bay Company.

The emperor has fled Croustadt. A provisional government has been established, at St. Petersburg.

Father details are yet not known.

The Russian messenger at St. Petersburg has arrived here with the Vladimir news.

This same train has also arrived; a Russian Courier says he will soon arrive for the authenticity of this intelligence.

From our own correspondent, who in general may be relied upon, although we must confess there are grounds for a suspicion on account of the uncertainty of all news respecting the Russo-Turkish war.

The Irish Times contains the same information, but adds that nothing has been heard from us which were reported to the English papers.

The Irish Times, of the 26th ult., doubts the above.

The Evening papers of the 17th and 18th ult., received this morning state the colonists are sailing in the Baltic of the Empire, and that the disease is exceedingly malignant at Riga, where as many as one hundred are dead daily, out of a population of 40,000 to 50,000 inhabitants.

It is remarkable that the parents of many of the patients who have recently died of children, were carried off by the same disease in 1831 and 1832.

THEIR LIFE-SAVING OF THE

PACKET-SHIP OCEAN MONARCH.

The packet ship Ocean Monarch, captain Marlow, from Liverpool, 21st, for Boston, was burnt in the English channel soon after leaving port, and 150 persons perished.

The Ocean Monarch, capt. Marlow, left Liverpool, August 21, with 300 steerage passengers, 200 cabin, 200 crew, and 100 servants, and 100 horses, when she struck the rock, and was holed in her side.

After the action, the diamond was found on the field by a S. S. who sold it to a Noble man of France, named Janey. In this family the treasure remained upwards of a century, until the period when the descendants, a captain of the Swiss troops, and his wife, the third of France, received a commission from that monarch to reinforce his army in the same nation. It is from him, from his sons, and from his wife, that the diamond came into the possession of the present owner, and in this emergency, he resolved to leave the diamond to the British Government, and that he might place it in the hands of the Queen, as a hostage for the fulfillment of his engagements.

Janey, having secured the treasure, and the diamond, and the rest of the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers, and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,

and the crew, and the horses, and the

steerage passengers, and the cabin passengers,