We now come to:

" The new arrived. Whom who hath seen shall never wish to see. " Mrs .- visited her friends at the head of the Consecon Lake early this fall, bringing To the President of the County and Township with her the ever present and unseen friend. Agricultural Societies in the Midland Dis- She advised them of the fact, and in a few days many had heard it, and the news-the astonishing news, that a "Spirit" had visited our Prince Edward District, was trumpeted abroad, and become the wonderous theme of all from Dan to Beersheba. Crowds came and went daily to hear and grow wise. Many learned the day, nay, the bour when death's rude hand would snap the tender cord of life, et cetera. The whole affair is certainly curious. The "Spirit" is very choice of its company, for all cannot enter within the pale of its abiding place. They who desire to char with his "spirituality," must first ask Mrs .-whether they can be answered by the 'Spirit's the Exhibition known thus early, in order that or not; if they can, are admitted: I am torre all the inhabitants of the Province may have to confess that I was rejected; the pro and an opportunity of bringing forward at the con are unknown. There is no doubt in the world but that the noise has been beard. I have been told by many whose veracity cannot be doubted, that they asked many questions, and were answered correctly all they asked. It answers in the following manner: for the affirmative, two distinct raps; for the negative, silence. If you wish to ask a question, videlicet. How old am I? The "Spirit" then raps the number of years, and so on. If I should give in detail, all that has been said, all that has been learned, I would fill a vo-

It is also said that this our "Spirit" holds communion with all other spirit of the celestial world. From it you can learn whether friends are in Heaven or Pandimonium; bare revealed to you many of the scenes above; and things are made simple which heretofore puzzled the wisest heads-and farther, it has resorted to physical force to conrince the unbelieving, by slapping in the face, pinching, &c. This according to report has been done to many.

THE PROTESTAL PENITENTIARY .- The nembers of this most iniquitous Commission are just dow separated, far as the winds axinder. Mr. Sheriff Tho nas is minding his own business at home. Messrs. Bristow mid Browns are relaxing from the fatigues of a long addled-egg sitting, by a journey to the States, doubtless to look at Sing Sing and Auburn State Prisons. And Messrs. Fergus-on and Amiet are in Kingston winding op the Warden ; that is to say listening to his defence. But, as they do not intend to pay the least attention to any explanation the Warden may make, two of the Commissioners are sufficient to sit and play dummy; white the others enjoy themselves. When the Province has to pay the bill of these patriotio and importial gentlemen, their labors will be hetter appreciated than they appear to he now. Reform ! what a humbug thou art !
