BILL TO LIMIT THE NUMBER OF EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONARIES.
April 20, 1849.

Mr. Balfour (Newcastle) moved the second reading of the Bill. He wished to direct the attention of the House to three points. The first was to reduce the number of Executive Functionaries. The second was to limit the number of members of the Council in England, and the third was to limit the number of members of the Council in Canada.

sample, the number of chiefs of departments who might sit in the House, is the number of them. It would be a great advantage, if the number of chiefs of departments were limited to the number of members of the House, and if the number of members of the House were limited to the number of chiefs of departments.

BRITISH WHIG.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Some few months ago, the British Whig took to great dislike with a portion of its numerous readers, because it allowed a member of the Hook & Ladder Company to state, through its columns, the treatment which the Hook & Ladder Company met with at the hands of a military gentleman, in command of a party sent out to assist at the Penitentiary. We acknowledge, and ever have acknowledged, the inestimable services which the Military tender at the great fairs so constantly rendering in these provinces; but while we do them this great justice, we should be very sorry to see their important services so deteriorated by unnecessary impertinence. The error committed by the British Whig at the time alluded to is in allowing a member of the Hook & Ladder Company to state, through its columns, the treatment which the Hook & Ladder Company met with at the hands of a military gentleman, in command of a party sent out to assist at the Penitentiary.

THE APOLOGY OF THE MONTREAL HERALD.

The Montreal Herald says, that it is a "scandalous falsehood" to say that it is a "self-avowed" and "submitted" to a "villainous" attack. Whatever the Herald may think of its own conduct, our other have equal right to think, and to enable the public to judge properly, we here annex the said "apology" as it appears in the Herald's own columns.

LETTER TO THE TORONTO UNIVERSITY BILL, &c.

BY AN UPPER CANADIAN CATHOLIC.

To the Hon. E. P. Roman Catholic Pastor of U. C.

MY DEAR REV. FATHER,

I suppose that in the absence of any private intelligence worth sending you in respect to the University Bill, you will not be disappointed by my present mode of communication on a public matter. Indeed, I am rather inclined to think you will be glad enough to receive from me an account of the progress of the Bill, and to see that you are not left in the dark as to the result of the proceedings.
