

from the first page

French had laws. We can do well without him, and better if we had him; a man only fit for words, but not for action."

"What would be the reason?" asked Mr. Papineau, "that he did not come home for the action of the Assembly?"

"It was to escape the odious consequences of his conduct, peradventure to find a place of his own shoulder."

"Do you have Responsible Government?"

"It must settle it among us; what would be the consequences of the Kilkenny Cat?"

"To arrive at a correct conclusion.

NOTES FOR MONTREAL.

The New-York Advertiser, party have issued a proclamation, and quiet is now restored in the Metropolis.—

The citizens of Montreal, in their anxiety, consider it to be best to peace. Whatever may consider to have been in you, the remedy must be sought in a general manner, and is now in progress.

Montreal, 1st May, 1849.

NEW YORK STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

As will be seen by the following notes to the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, intends to be at Syracuse when the next Fair and Cattle Show is held:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15, 1849.

Sir—I have received your favor of the 12th instant, extending on the part of the Executive Committee of the New York State Agricultural Society, an invitation to attend the next annual exhibition of the Society to be held in September, at the City of Syracuse.

Deeply interested, as I have always been, in the cause of Agriculture, and given the highest pleasure to be present at the meetings of the Hebrews' Sabbath, at which they were together in the Egyptian dispensation.

I beg you to receive for the Executive Committee my sincere thanks for the invitation, and my best wishes for the success of the cause in which they are engaged.

I remain,

With high respect,
Yours obed't servt,

ZACHARY TAYLOR.

BESS. P. JONES, Cor. Sec. N. Y. State Agricultural Society, Albany, N. Y.

WM. LYON MACKENZIE.

This repeatant agitator is continuing his letters, which are much too long for our little sheet. We make room for the following glorification of his fellow demagogues, Mr. Papineau.

The Fight of St. Denis—Hegira of the Greek Patriarch.

On the 22nd of November, Col. Gore, with nearly 400 regulars, and a small party of mounted cavalry, took passage for Suez, which he left at 10 at night for St. Denis, 12 miles distant. About six next morning, and formally reached St. Denis that Col. Gore and his party were gone, and the unopposed troops were drawn up, and the unopposed patriot, though half off for arms, advanced from the neighbouring for the purpose of contesting the passage of the national troops.

Dr. Walford Nelson, who was a tall strong-built, bold man, was the most influential man in the camp; $2,000 had been offered for his capture by the Executive Committee in the upper part of his dwelling house, and he was a liberal gentleman, a member of the Assembly, who has never forsaken him; he also was principled.

It was at once resolved to resist. Dr. Nelson went through the village making preparations for the conflict. Mr. Papineau kept it in his aisle, and never showed himself to the people. The French captain who had been sent to the camp, and who had been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had

been sent to the camp, and who had been sent to the camp, and who had</p