

Extracts from late English Papers.

CANADA.

On the order of the day for the consideration of the report of the Committee of Supply on Colonial Services.

Mr. Gladstone... the attention of the House to certain... compensation for rebellion losses in Canada.

THE IRISH POOR LAWS. The following is the eleventh report from the select committee appointed on the Irish Poor Laws.

Resolved 1st.—That the Committee approve of the principle of fixing a maximum rate of Rents.

Resolved 2nd.—That no greater proportion than one-half of the poor-rate actually paid shall in any case be deducted from the gross receiving rent in respect of any rateable property.

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION. The New Common School Act, which passed the Legislature during the last few days of the late Session, will not come into operation till the beginning of the year 1859.

What a revolution the Telegraph has made in the value of our existing papers. With the exception of the large cities, New Orleans, especially, four fifths of the papers on our immediate exchange list, are of no practical use to us, save as wrapping paper.

THE BAY OF QUINTE QUEL. To the Editor of the British Whig. Your columns of the 21st inst. contained remonstrances to Steam Boat Proprietors on the Bay of Quinte, which were worth no vindictive feelings, asserting the truth of what did occur, and from no reasonable person could have drawn conclusions. I consider that public rights are infringed upon, it is regrettable that a remedy should be sought, and I conceive no more proper method than that to bring the parties to a proper settlement; the matter however would have come before the public, despite their evasiveness and loss I have sustained, the parties in charge on a review at the given me any satisfaction, or rendered account of what had become of some poor merchandise, which there is no doubt shipped at Kingston, and one of who this late date has not made its appearance.

CURT HALL, July 2nd.

There was no quorum until nearly ten o'clock, when it was too late to proceed to business, and after some formalities, the Council adjourned.

COURT HOUSE, July 3rd.

The Quarter Sessions and the District Court are both in Session. Little business is doing in the former Court, and only 17 Records in the latter.

THE SURGEON OF THE PENITENTIARY.

Some time last year we published a list of grave accusations preferred by Mr. Francis Smith and others, against Dr. Sampson, the Surgeon of the Penitentiary.

THE REPLY OF THE COLONIAL SECRETARY TO THE PETITION TO THE QUEEN.

We have been favored with a copy of the Answer to the Petition to the Queen, from a portion of the inhabitants of Upper Canada, including those of Kingston.

BRITISH WHIG.

FRIDAY MORNING, July 6, 1849.

The recent news from Europe is any thing but encouraging to the friends and well wishers of peace and order.

Business is excessively dull; the times are excessively bad; and the weather is excessively hot.

RETIREMENT OF THE HON. MR. BULLOCK.

The Brookville Recorder has changed hands. After a long continued public service of twenty-six years, Mr. Bulluck has concluded to relinquish charge of his old and well worn newspaper.

THE BAY OF QUINTE QUEL.

Your columns of the 21st inst. contained remonstrances to Steam Boat Proprietors on the Bay of Quinte, which were worth no vindictive feelings, asserting the truth of what did occur, and from no reasonable person could have drawn conclusions.

A significant sign of what Canada is fast coming to, is the fact that the anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo was not celebrated on the 18th of June, in Montreal.

THE PROVINCIAL AGRICULTURAL SHOW.

The following note we take the liberty of publishing. We doubt not it will have the effect of stirring up our farmers to some exertions.
