Hon. Mr Campbell-It turns out that they were not both, but only one from Mr were got from Mr Abbott. I see that in one of Mr McMullen's letters, his letter of the 4th of August, in the Montreal Herald he says that over $100,000 were sent to Sir John from Montreal besides a large amount paid to the Central Committee. As to the fund that I got from Montreal these were exactly the sums I have mentioned. There was a contribution of 25,000, without my previously having asked for it. I had no communication with Sir Hugh Allan, and never asked him to give that $25,000. have no doubt that Sir George Cartier asked him, and I have the intimation of Sir Broadway, New York Hugh Allan that he did subscribe that amount, and the other two sums of $10,000 each were certainly given at my request. wrote to Sir George Cartier at Montreal, sons that Sir Hugh Allan never said so. Again, Mr McMullen says, "I met Sir John Macdonald in Montreal after the close of the session, while on his way to meet Lord Dufferin at Quebec, and he suggested that as Allan had made so many enemies, I Sir John Macdonald's evidence given before bring about an amalgamation, promising to write a personal letter to Mr Macpherson to aid in the desired object." Now, that is in substance untrue—entirely untrue—exapply any portion of it to my own election.

He informed me that he would go. I made no suggestion to him in regard to it. It would be quite absurd to suppose that, if I could not persuade Mr Macpherson to go in for the amalgamation of the two incorporated companies, he could do so. It is quite a mis-statement. Mr McMullen says again, "After having Sir George sign an agreement, as stated in the letter of Aug. 6th. he commenced paying money, but as he told me, having Cartier's order in each case, and taking a receipt therefor. When making the agreement, he had no idea that the amount of money would be excessively large, and when it had run up to between $150,000 and 200,000, he became alarmed, and told Cartier that he must stop paying the drafts which were coming in so rapidly, unless the whole Government would sanction the bargain. He then stated that Sir George sent to Ottawa, and received a telegram from Sir John Macdonald confirming his action. After this Allan said he proceeded paying until he had advanced $358,000 inaddition to $40,000 drawn from New York." Now this is altogether untrue. He received no such telegram from me. He could not do so, because I never was in Ottawa during that time. was always in the West attending the elections. From the time I left Ottawa at the end of June or beginning of July until the elections were all over I never was once at Ottawa, and I neverhad such a conversation. It is altogether a falsehood. Then again, as to the meeting which he alleges to have taken place on the 31st of December, he says "on the 31st of December I had an interview of some two hours duration with Sir John, and placed him in possession of all the facts, and showed him the letters which I had from Sir Hugh in regard to the matter, as well as the original contracts and President, which were recently published a connection with other correspondence." dence published as some of the passages read. said was, that according to his own statement if his statement were true, and those passages read seemed to carry out his statement, that I ed, Mr McMullen came, accompanied by Mr Smith, of Chicago, and Mr Hurlburt, of Chicago, and they went over the story again They told me that they had been very badly used, and that they had in good faith advanc-ed for preliminary expenses of the railway a sum of money, that is, for the preliminary ex-
