Alliance which assembles in New York tomorrow. As many readers of the Daily Queen's University - Opening of News, take considerable interest in the alliance, and others may not know much about it, we propose stating a few facts regarding its origin and the object it has in view.

Henderson, had a wide circulation. These essays did much towards spreading a feeling. of Christian unity among the Protestant churches. It was felt that there was surely some platform on which they could meet France, Belgium, South Germany and part of Switzerland; British North America; and the West Indies. Since that time branch associations have spread to Sweden, Turkey, Africa, Australia, and New Zealand. Five general Conferences of the Alliance have already been held-London in 1846; Paris in 1855; Berlin in 1857; Geneva in 1850, and Amsterdam in
