young man he's insultin me, sir. Thus appealed to, Mr Dempsey quietly turned in his seat, and evening the sergeant sternly, exclaimed

"See here now, sargint, av ye don't lave

A roar of laughter from all the occupants of good-will that clearly demonstrated how keenly he enjoyed the observation, although it told ly failed.

"Are ye expected at Boljoderun, sir ?" "Well-yes-ob, yes, certainly," I replied. somewhat confusedly. "Yer an English gintleman by yer way av talkin', sir !" Yes, I'm English.

"Maybe ver from London, sir !"

"An seen Miss Kitty over there. Whew ! Here he gave a prolonged whistle, which might have been intended for the horses, but il I feit that it bore direct reference to myself. "Troth, thin, you are expected sir, an' there'll be bright eyes and red cheeks at the cross-roads whin we rache there, or I'm I did not know whether to be amused or

"You seem to be very well aware of Miss

Biake's movements, Mr Dempsey. "Arrah, didn't she tell me herself, the necessity, quit the political arena, it crayture. Didn't she say to me, says she, be hoped that the Orange Incorporation Dimpsey, take care of a very handsome London, says she. 'Is it the gintleman that | next session of the Ontario Legislature. 'the ow o' that, Dimpsey, says she. Blur-auager! why didn't we tell me ye wer Misther | Brookley, and I'd have roused the griddle for ye, sir, an no mistake.

I could have taken Phil Dempsey to my arms and cherished him. "Begorra! there's the crass-roads, and there's Miss Kitty in her basket shaudhradan like a pitaytee creel. Didn't I tell ye, sir, now it wild be !"

perienced that sinking sensation at the heart which the immediate prospect of meeting with the amored one never fails to create; that pretended to be looking the other way, and not to have perceived her; that I bounded from my perch with the agility of an acrobat, and that I "tipped" Phil Dempsey to the utmost limit of his satisfaction. "I tuk good care av him, Miss," observed that worthy in a tone known as a pigs whisper, "but he was as wild as a young coit in me hands; but hels a nice man, an a nice mannered man, an' I wish yez joy." Stupid creature! I never can understand

At this crisis we were joine i by Mr Blake, pere, a splendid specimen of paterfamilias, who welcomed me to Connemara con amore my portmanteau was placed in the basketcarriage, and Kitty rattled away with it. leaving me to walk across the mountain to the Hali. And such a mountain, bare and bleak | which the law is supposed to protect !" and precipitous; and for any step I made in advance I made two in the opposite direction; but I pushed bravely on, and sacrificed a brand-new pair of paten leather buttoned boots | Mr Samuel McCammon, of Gananoque, men- by cared I for boots, or mountain, or physical anguish? Was there not love light in the eye of Kitty Blake ?-was I not approaching the | ular, and if he consents to stand, will un-Mecca of my hopes ! I remained a month at Boljolderun Hall, held the sterotyped interview with Blake were in his study, which terminated most satstactorily-

Well, yes-I am to return to Connemara before Valentine's Day, and claim the hand of the sweet little Irish girl who called me an English boor.

The Daily Aews.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 1.

position made a great mistake when they independent, is hounded day and night with a Garibaldi of Hamilton, Laly Dufferin, Pana- excellent dramatization of Mrs Henry Wood's rick, the member for this county, to aid themen thus pursued as it is indecent as a Lakes, Queen of the North, Jane Ralston, known to play-goers that a synopsis of it is Commons on Thursday will be read with crisy" as applied to such a party. interest, especially by his constituents whose representative he is. He fully explains his position. He set out by denying that he approved of the conduct of the leader of the Opposition on the memorable 13th of August. He was anxious that an immediate investigation into the Pacific Scandal charge should was a very young barrister, scarcely more some ten hours ahead of the schooner St. An good actor. There is too much monotony in take place, and upon his expressing his views | than qualified for the office, had he received | drews, has not arrived yet. to the Premier the latter assured him that it, while Mr Steele's claims on the ground of such would be done—a promise which had lengthened experience alone could not well be Ira Chadsey, Esq., of Hillier, has this seabeen fully carried out. He had expressed overlooked Mr McDonald, however, was son raised from one potato 347 lbs. (or 5 bushhimself in favour of a Royal Commission to very warmly recommended to the Premier at els and three pecks) of good sound potatoes. several members. After a careful examination | that time, and the question of politics had | Beat it, ye who can !- Picton Gazette. of the evidence he had come to the conclusion | certainly nothing to do with the matter. that the charges of Mr Huntington were not true; he was convinced that no corrupt bargain had ever been made with Americans or Sir Hugh Allan for disposing of the charter; and from the evidence adduced he did not see "how any honest man could vote to turn out the Government. Regarding prorogation, the point on which the Opposition thought they had secured him. Mr Kirkpatrick said : "After mature Ottawa Citizen. consideration I have come to the conclusion that was the wisest and only course to pursue on the I3 of August." His Excel. lency the Governor-General, who from his day train yesterday to attend to his parlia- chairman. We understand that the committee 'Ireland as it was." position is removed from all party prejud. been working; all week at the Assizes, being spector's complaint, but have gone back to the ices and can therefore be safely regarded as giving an unbiassed opinion, said in his dis- at last, however, to transfer the conduct of connection with the Institution. It is hoped patch on this subject of prorogation: "After several of his cases to other members of the that they may be able to report at an early town he was discharged. ground, I finally announced to him that the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdon ald. on due consideration of all the circumstances of the case the prorogation of Parliament seemed to me inevitable ;" and again, " prorogued Parliament for what I considered not only full and sufficient but IMPERATIVE reusons." Mr Kirkpatrick regards the act in the same light as His Excellency. The peculiar circumstances of the case made A. M. Brown, Esq. prorogation a necessity. Mr Kirkpatrick has fully justified the course he intends to

The car was pretty well crowded, and upon kenzie's ingeniously constructed amendone side amongst the occupants was a sergeant ment, which condemns the Government for having advised His Excelslauder brought by William David against Mars was seated beside a very good-looking lency to proregue Parliament, condomna Robert Scrivens, the defamation consisting in young girl, to whom he paid the most chival the appointment of the Commission and the defendant's having, on different occasions, declares the Government guilty of to bound gaily from the car, enter a shebeen, charges preferred by Mr Huntington. Mr having "laid in" a little refreshment during Government (which he was elected to suphis temperary absence. His attention to the port) at this crisis may be stated thus young lady became more marked as we pro- The circumstances of the case made prore as "Gelang owt o' that, sargint," "Lave me gation a necessity ; - the appointment of a alone, "Single yer freedom, an' double yer Royal Commission was the only alternative distance," tended to prove that the gallant left whereby an immediate investigation. and visited at each other's houses. It was althe laws of conventionalism. At length, after | these witnesses being examined upon oath a playful but elephantine effort to snatch a could take place; and the evidence adduced fully disproved the charges. Kirpatrick is fully satisfied in his own mind that he is acting conscientiously.

The Opposition organs may abuse but convinced of the righteousness of his that young woman alone, I'll take them three course and being supported by his constisthripes aff yer arm, an lay them across yer tuents he can afferd to treat their invectives with the utmost contempt. As far as the vehicle followed this sally, in which the Mr Kirkpatrick is concerned, Mr Macken gallant sergeant joined with a heartiness and | zie's little plot to trap him has ignominiousnot guilty, and also added a plea of justifica-The constituents of Mr David Glass. M.P., for East Middlesex have called upon him to give up his seat. Mr Giass has forfeited the confidence of his constituents and there is only one course open to him-

The debate at Ottawa continues to excite considerable interest. The Hon. Mr Tilley. Mr Carter and Mr Laflamme spoke address of Mr O'Reilly being an able and night. It is thought a division will scarcely beccagh Miss Kitty will be there, sir, in her | take place before Tuesday or Wednesday

Now that Mr H. S. Macdonald has been appointed to a judgeship, and must, of posted all the letters to in Westport, miss? | will be the duty of our city member, Mr Robinson, to take the matter in hand, and unable to agree upon an award. Mr O'Reilly we are satisfied from the course he pursued Q.C., for the plaintiff; Mr Britton for the in aiding Mr Macdonald last session, that defendant. the Bills may be safely entrusted to his care. We regret that Mr Macdonald will which commenced yesterday, was resumed not be present to advocate the passing of this morning at the close of the plaintiff's the Bills, but we have every confidence in throughout the United States at the manner in bringing a number of witnesses to court he in which justice has been, outraged in the | would allow the case to go to the jury and | verdict in the Stokes case. The New York | reserve leave to the defendant in case a verdict should go against him to move to enter a Herald says: "A grand vindication of the nonsuit in term. Mr Britton for the plaintiff law, truly! Civilization has reached its acme | Mr John McIntyre for the defendant. when the assassin and his friends must have the amount of an account for goods sold and consideration. * * A human being delivered by the plaintiff to the defendant. A was shot down like a dog. To-day the slayer | verdict was entered for the plaintiff by conhim," said Kitty Blake, with a saucy toss of ber head; "I'm afraid he has been taking the looks pleasantly forward to forty-eight Duff, Esq. Mr Britton for the plaintiff. Mr the success of his assembly and the excellent months in prison garb. Will justice be satis- A. S. Kirkpatrick, Q.C., for defendant. fied with this lame and impotent conclusion ? The law says that justice is satisfied; but of next week, as there are yet two cases, Hal. will that inspire respect for the law, or den vs. The Cataraqui Bridge Company, and (with the knife and pistol ruffian) for life. O'Brien vs. Lyons, to be disposed of.

South Leeds. - . Ve have heard the name of luring the excruciating process. But what | tioned in connection | warders will soon be called upon to close up of South Leeds. Mr McCammon is very pop doubtedly poll a strong vete. A Liberal Conservative Convention will be called shortly to | 510 bush of wheat, is the only arrival. decide on a candidate.

Magnet arrived last night, but had to lie The conduct of the Opposition at Ottawa is over on account of the storm. The Bavarian. reported to be disgraceful in the extreme. | which came up on Thursday night, left along Professing themselves to be pure, and called with the Magnet this morning. apon to censure the members of the Government for corruption, they are endeavouring to Rockaway, Erie, Toronto, coal; schrs Sea bribe members of the Conservative party to Bird, Cleveland, Hamilton, stone; St. Anabandon their chief and their party at this drews, do, Toronto, coal; prop St. Albans, to the advertisement in another column critical time by promises of office-promises, Chicago, Ogdensburg, gen cargo; schr Two the one-half of which, supposing they attain. Brothers, Cleveland, Prescott, stone. ed to the treasury benches, they would be un- Up-Schrs Gold Hunter of Milford, Queen able to perform. The Montreal Gazette states of the Lakes, props Nashua and Armenia. MR KIRKPATRICK'S Position.—The Op- that any member supposed to be doubtul or Vessels in harbour wind bound-Schrs crowded to its utmost capacity to witness the counted on the vote of Mr George Kirkpat- shameless persistency, as insulting to the gen. dora, Gold Hunter, Bry Trader, Queen of the novel of "East Lynne." The piece is so wel, them in carrying out their factious purpeses. | political warfare. Could anything be more | Paragon, Morning Light, D. Sharp, J. Pugs. | unnecessay; so we will only say that as a Mr Kirkpatrick's speech in the House of appropriate than the term "organized hypo- ley, barques Fanny Campbell, Erie Belle, whole it was well put on the stage. As Lady

The statement in a contemporary that at Oswegatchie, Lowell, Lawrence. the time of Judge Steele's appointment Sir | Wind to-day from southeast, fresh, until of the audience—particularly in her last meet-John Macdonald refused Mr H. S. McDonald, noon, when it changed to southwest. It is ing with her seducer, and her appearance as M.P.P., the Judgeship of Leeds and Gren- now blowing a gale from that quarter, with | Madame Vine in the last two acts. Mr Mal. ville "on the ground that he was a Reformer" snow and freezing. Very heavy sea outside. | lyan as Mr Carlyle was good, and if he could is utterly untrue. Mr McDonald at the time | The barque Arctic, which left Cleveland | be more natural in his voice would be a very

The Grits were virtuously indignant at Mr Kirkpatrick yesterday for reading extracts this town" that it is not good policy for him house. Mr Melville, as Lord Mountsevern, from public documents which, they allege, to discommode a dozen or more rate payers in were laid before Parliament in an "irregular order that he should be able to vent his spite for a share of applause, and Miss Wallace, as manner." We have not heard any of them upon one man. express much indignation at the "irregular manner" in which certain private documents were made public, and yet the Opposition orators quote from them very extensively .-

would have reported on it before the present FOR OTTAWA. - James O'Reilly, Q.C., M.P., left for the Seat of Government by the mid. time, but for the illness of Dr. O. Yates, its programme will be "The Factory Girl," and mentary duties. The learned gentleman had are not only scrutinizing the Government Inengaged on nearly every case. He was obliged very commencement of the Superintendent's some conversation in which we (Sir John learned profession, in order to be at his post day, when the subject will be thoroughly ex-Macdonald and himself) went over all the in Ottawa to stand by his leader and friend, amined and discussed.

Mr John Seddon has been appointed Cus" toms Appraiser at London, in place of the late Wm. Barker, Esq.

Among a batch of Justices of the Peace, lately appointed by the Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, we find the name of our old friend

Hallewe'en passed off very quietly, and we Co's. Great rush for our New Dress Jurisue-namely, to vote against Mr Mac | have not heard of any mischief being done.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

The Assizes.

David vs. Scrivens. This was an action of could repay himself whonever he wanted plaintiff "You stole oats out of our barn, and of the plaintiff. Evidence was also offered that the plaintiff had been seen at the barn powerful effort on behalf of his chent. After a short absence from the Court the jury returned with a verdict for the plaintiff for $10, which carries full costs. Mr J. O'Reilly,

Q.C., and Mr John, McIntyre for the plaintiff

third arbitrator, in the event of their being

Pater on v. Townsend - The trial of this case case. Mr John McIntyre moved for non-suit on the ground that there was no evidence of Colton vs. Cameron. - An action to recover

The court will not rise before the beginning

Marine News -

-The barque Arabia, from Chicago, with 19,-

James Swift & Co.'s wharf -- The str.

Port Colborne, Oct. 31. - Down-Scow

Wно is не?-The Picton Gazette says :

House of Industry. The correspondent of a contemporary would have done well to have exercised his patience a little longer,

seeing that the matter spoken of has been re-

The next meeting of the Wesleyan Literary Association will be held in the lecture room

f Sydenham Street Church on Monday even-

REMINDERS.

If you want a Cheap and Fashionable Dress, go to Maepherson

Troupe at the City Hall this evening.

Goods invited.

Saturday, Nov. 1

Thursday, Oct. 30.

(Per Montreal Time.) From Ottawa.

(Press Despatch.) when the trial was resumed. A great number of witnesses were called on both sides, and the facts appear to be as follows: The parties, thined by a majority ranging from three to being neighbours, appear to have been on very | six. good terms, and to have interchanged work,

It is thought that two of the Prince leged by the plaintiff that in the tall of 1872 | Edward Islanders will support the Governthe defendant's brother, Joseph Scrivens, bor ment, and the other four the Opposition. rowed some oats from him, telling him that he The latest rumour is that some of the

them; that some time afterwards he did go | leading supporters of the Government have to the defendant's barnand took about a bush- consented since the House rose last night to | el of oats without acquainting the defendant, form a coalition with Blake. This, like all to take them when he wanted them. A few other rumours just now, must be taken days after that, meeting Joseph Scrivens in a cum grano salis. neighbour's house, he told him of having taken

All parties are in the greatest state of the oats, and he answered "All right." Several months after, and on the 4th of June, at | excitement, and await the result with the a sale of a job of making a road, some 20 or 25 utmost anxiety. persons being present, the defendant said to

The House will probably gain more mem-I can preveit." Evidence was given that on two | bers on the vote than have ever voted subsequent occasions the slander, in almost the | since confederation. same words, was repeated. Defendant pleaded

Mr Dodge, of North York, did not take tion, and attempted to show that the plaintiff his seat as stated by the Mail and Mon was really guilty of the crime charged, basing | treal Gazette. his position chiefly on the alleged admission Every possible supporter of either side one night, and on a brother of the defendant doubtful men that great disappointment speaking to him he said he wanted to bormust result somewhere. row a bag of oats, and got them. This was, however, totally denied by the plaintiff and To-day, being All Saints day, is a statu one of his witnesses The jury were address. tory holiday, and the departmental build ed at length by counsel on both sides, the

will be whipped in, but there are so many ings are empty. Mr O'Reilly returned last night from Kingston where he has been attending the

Mr B M. Britton and Mr John Mudie for the on the question at issue, the Speaker, Riel and Dodge making up the full House. The Hooper rs. Harty. - An action brought to is to recover the price of a quantity of whiskey | Speaker of course does not vote. Riel sold by the plaintiff to the defendant last will certainly not be in his place and Dodge spring. A verdict was entered by consent young gintleman that's comin' to see me from Bill will not be lost sight of during the for the plaintiff for $200, subject to the award is not expected. Every other member is William Robinson and James Swift, Esqs. | here now. of Kingston, with power to them to appoint a

> APPOINTMENT - At a meeting of the Police | remnants of the clothing they wore. The Commissioners to-day, Mr Conley was apscalp of one of them was found in the top pointed policeman to fill the existing vacancy of a birch tree, and the heart many rods HERNDON'S in the force.

Ex-Mayor Drennan. -- A splendid portrart of ex-Mayor Drennan is on exhibition at Mc-Auley & Co.'s bookstore. It is by Sawyer, and It is scarcely necessary to observe that I ex: Mr Robinson's ability to fight the battle, in negligence on the part of the defendant, or his represents Mr Drennan in a standing position, which we are sure he will not be backward. | servants or agents. The learned Chief Justice | with his chain of office. The picture is hand agreed with Mr McIntyre, and thought that the There is universal indignation expressed plaintiff should be non-suited but owing somely framed, and will be an additional orna to the large expenses the parties had incurred | ment to the civic portrait gallery.

> THE ASSEMBLY. The assembly in the Victoria Music Hall last night was a splendid success, between 80 and 90 couples being present, and that notwithstanding the incle mency of the weather. The programme dances was a long one, and the fun was kept up with great spirit until five o'clock this manner in which all the arrangements were carried out is deserving of all praise. Prof Montgomery supplied the music in tirst-rate style, Mr Perry himself acting as the Master Ceremonies. Supper was served about midnight, Mr Swanston being the caterer.

The arrivals of grain are becoming "smaller To-day, being All Saints' Day, is observed y degrees, and beautifully less." The for as a holiday in the Roman Catholic Church The festival is appointed in commemoration of all those saints and martyrs to whom no par-Montreal Transportation Company's wharf | ticular day is assigned.

Dancing. - On Thursday evening last the leties may have taken the form of doubt- Bell, A H National Dancing Academy held their regular meeting in Untario Hall, there being about 50 couples present. The greatest order and har. mony prevailed, and a good time was spent. The next meeting will be held on Thursday the vote is taken. That will not be very Bridge, A evening next (Thanksgiving Day), when a long deferred, and the tenor of these lines Briggs, George much larger attendance is expected.

GREAT AUCTION SALE. - We call attention Mrs Haven's sale. It is one of the most im. portant ever held in the city.

THE HERNDONS. - Last night the hall was | aged 54 years. steam-barge Belle P. Cross and barges Lathrop, Isabel, the jealous wife and deserted mistress, Crocker, Albany, props Armenia, Nashua Mrs Herndon displayed great power, and her fine acting brought tears to the eyes of some his tones. Mr Healy as Francis Livison was decidedly the best character after Mrs Hern don. The insinuating manner of the libertine was well portrayed; and his cool manner of parting with Lady Isabel showed his skill as an actor. Miss Corney Carlyle (Mrs Healy) was very humorous. Miss Corney was splendidly taken by Mrs Healy; and as the fussy, We would suggest "to the man who runs | consequential old maid, she brought down the and Johnny Ward as Richard Hare came in Barbara Hare did her part well. The minor character were also well done. The entertain. ment concluded with the laughable farce, "Contentment vs. Riches," in which Mr-Herndon displayed his great comic powers, well supported by Miss Wallace, Miss Lagrange, and ferred by the Directors to a committee, who Messrs Lagrange and Lewis. To-night the

POLICE COURT.-The city keeps rigidly T ADIES COMPANIONS, moral, only one prisoner being up this morn-His name was Vallier, and he was drunk last night. On promising to leave

Weather Report.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Probabilities :- For the southern portion Middle States northwesterly winds and clear or partly cloudy weather. For Lower Lake Region south-west winds partly cloudy and clear weather.

It is not often that a husband and wife "The Factory Girl" by Herndon's Opera are poets. But the Bishop of Derry and Mrs. Alexander are exceptions, and they have contributed some exquisite joint verses on the late Bishop of Winchester's death to new book of religious poetry edited by Canon Baynes, which will shortly be issued by Messrs. King.—John Bull. by Crockery, Blankets and Pictures,

DREADFUL EXPLOSION AT WIND-

fearful explosions that perhaps ever occur red in this country. The Windsor Powder charged the plaintiff with having stolen a quantity of oats. The parties are both farmers greatest possible uncertainty. Rumours of This substance is as yet little known, and the parties are residing in the Township of Kingston. The all kinds are flying about, but none are its power and liability to explode seems to have been under-estimated or not been accu not being finished at seven o'clock the jury | really reliable. The Opposition claim a cer- have been under-estimated or not been accuwere allowed to separate until this morning. tain majority, and the Government sup- rately ascertained. It seems to be equally dangerous as nitro-glycerine, and it is the opinion of your correspondent nitro-glycerine enters largely into its composition. These works were in charge of Mr Gordon Ferrier, who at the time was finishing off the stuff, and who incautiously applied water Friday next, November 7th. to it which was too hot, which it is said, will at certain times cause an explosion.

lence beggars description.

Be it as it may, it did explode, and its vio-

The whole country round swayed to and ! fro; it moved like a thing of life, and nature was convulsed as if by a severe earthquake. Doors were burst open a mile away, dishes rattled in the cupboards, and people rushed wildly out of doors to find out the matter. The detonation was truly terrible; it rang from hill to hill, and as it struck one point of the woods after another it sent back reverberation after reverberation, until it gradually died away in the distance. Shortly after your corresponof land. Large trees adjacent to the building were cut down, and a road was actually moved into the bush by the flying debris; here and there posts were found imbedded in the ground, while others went careering end over and tearing up ground, and level-It is expected that 203 members will vote | ling bushes and small trees in their course. A bar of iron ten feet long was carried over thirty rods and buried half its length in mother earth, and the two unfortunate young men who were working in the building were literally torn to atoms. Their mangled corpses lay spread over many rods of ground, here a piece and there a piece. while on limbs and bushes, and in the tops of tall trees, might be seen dangling from the scene of the disaster. In every direction pieces of flesh and bowels might be seen hanging on bushes. Their boues were ground into fragments, and not a SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 1st, New Fashionable Goods indeed heartrending, and the most terrible scene I ever beheld. Truly in the midst of life we are in deatg; a few hours before these young men might have been seen going round in all the pride of manhood, and without a moment's warning they were launched into eternity. Mr George Gordon Ferrier, one of the unfortunates, was a "IRELAND AS IT WAS." very promising young man, and was gradually but surely making for himself a large circle of friends, who admired him tor his many virtues, pleasing and gentlemanly | cents. manners, and his exemplary conduct. W

AFFAIRS AT OTTAWA.

dent Montreal Witness.

all deeply sympathize with the bereaved

parents in their great affliction. -- Correspon-

It is but natural that the public mind | Agger, Charles should have been in a state of some un- Adair, Hugh certainty as to the issue of the contest now | Allen, Aaron B (2) going on at Ottawa. What with the desertion of professed friends, and the untiring misrepresentation of his orical enemies, the result may have appeared somewhat doubtful to many who are the well-wishers, Bartlette, Joseph as they have been the supporters, of Bartlette, Horace P the Government. In the presence of Bass, E L the event which must soon declare itself, Bass, CP and acting under a consciousness of that Bailey, Ethan B fact, we desire to reassure any whose anx- Bonneer, William ing. Success is certain, and that to a most | Blacklock, Thomas gratifying degree. The feeling in the House | Benjamin, Miss H W in favour of Sir John Macdonald has under- Breuster, J gone a manifest if not a sudden improvement, which will fully express itself when Brown, George confirmed. The assaults of the Opposition | Briden, Miss Etta have been discomfited, their mines des- Bureau, Peter troyed, and a retreat will soon be the order | Burns, Patrick of the day. - Ottawa Free Press.

In this city, on the 31st of October, Mrs Trenheile, wife of Mr Benjamin Trenheile, Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral to-morrow (Sunday) at 2 o'clock p.m., from her late residence, Ontario street, to Cataraqui Cemetery.

Store Princess Street,

Large Arrivals of

TOROOCHES AND EARINGS,

TECKLETS, RACELETS, TIGH COMBS,

DELTS, LBUMS,

OLLS,

TATORK BOXES,

ARVED PICTURE FRAMES,

TILT FRAMES, THERMOMETERS,

TATCH STANDS,

CITEREOSCOPE VIEWS,

Auction Sale of China, Glass and on Saturday Evening, Nov. 1st. at

Hutcheson's Auction Rooms

A sidence, corner of Earl and Wellington streets. Portraits from life or photograph. l'hotographs enlarged and coloured in water OF ELEGANT Household Furniture,

W. Sawyer, Portrait Painter,

TN Kingston for a while. Studio at his re-

However, on this point there is no certainty. | THE Subscriber will sell at Public Auction | NO. 1 LABRADOR HERRINGS, extra all the Household Furniture and effects

> Mrs. Haven, at her Residence Earl Street, emprising in part of TWO MAGNIFICENT

PIANOFORTES. (A Chickering and a Fox respectively,

Set of Handsome Drawing Room Farniture Elegant Brussels Carpets, Oil Paintings, Pictures, Centre Tables, Card Tables, Extension dent visited the scene, which proved to and Tete-a-tetes, Haireloth Chairs (Rocking be one of destruction and carnage, and and Plain), Mari le-Top Bureaus and Washno pen can describe the fearful havor stands, Toilet Tables, Feather Beds, Spring and devastation committed by this terrible and Hair Mattrasses, Quilts, Blankets, Sheets, explosion; it tore the building out from Pillows, Pillow-Cases, Bedsteads, Sideboard, very bottom, and the timbers Cheffioneer, Refrigerator, Window Curtains composing the foundation were shivered and Blinds, Mantle Ornaments, Mantle Clock, and broken into fragments, and what a few | Bookcase and Secretary, Books, Silver Pated | hours ago was a beautiful building is now a | Ware, Knives, Forks and Spoons, China Sets, complete wreck, scattered over many acres Crockery and Tinware, Cook Stove and Furniture (for Wood and Coal), Heating Stoves, Pipes, Firewood, an excellent Sewing Ma-

Robes and Harness,

and numerous other articles. Sale at 10 o'clock a.m. punctually. TERMS CASH.

CHAS. McMILLAN, Kingston, November 1st, 1873.

CITY HALL

CONTINUED SUCCESS OF Opera House Company.

Will be presented the Splendid Comedy of "FACTORY

To conclude with the Beautiful and Thrilling Irish Drama, entitled

Doors open at 7:15; commence at 8.

IST OF LETTERS, remaining in King- Plumes, Flowers & Millinery,

Lashford, George Allen, Mrs Wm Anderson, John Moor, James B Moore, Miss Minnie Arnold, Mrs Robt Monrow, Chas H Mills, Mrs Eliza Massy, Mrs M Marshall, Margt Matton, Capt Wm Macomber, D W Murphy, Thomas McCartney, Robt McAdoo, Jennie McGiffin Fred McIlgorm, Elizabeth

McWaters, William

McNaughton, D

McMillan, M

Neyland, R B

Nelson, John

Notton, Mrs M

Pound, John

Purny, Julien

Picot, David S

Perry, Rev. N A

Patterson, Thomas

Patterson, John

Pagee, Icanny

Phelps, Frank D

Revel, Mrs Mary

Rockur, Wm C

Rogers, Anna

Rader, Janet

Robberson, W

Scott, Thomas

Simpson Adam

Smith, Robert

Smith, James

Stevenson, W

St Nichols, Mary

Trotter, W J

Tappen, Barham and Webster

Vanalstine, Jno D

Varault, Margt A

Watson, William

Waite, Miss Emma

Wilson, Thomas (2)

Vandusen, E H

Wallia, James

Wilson, Alfred

Weldrick, George

Williams, David

Woods, Mrs Wm

Walker, RJ

Simpkins, Miss Jane

Smith, Bill

Slavin & Ironside

Rowan, F J

Rye, Miss

Reid, M

Newman, W James

McKay & Comport McKibbin, Robert McKeever, Francis McMichael, Asmond McLaughlin, Edward Nisbet, Duncan, (2) Conlan, Richard Collier, Sidney D Cochran, Mrs Wm Norris, Charles Connors, Mrs Mary J Osekn, M P Carter, Capt Wm Prinear, Joseph

Phipps, Capt Spencer Draffin, Miss Eleanor Drew, Charles Dorille, Capt Joseph Davis, Miss M C

Elliott, (i E English, James Elliott, James Elliott, William Farrell, Margaret Fairbanks, Geo. Field, Charles Flick, G H Fraser, Evan E Gordon, Joseph Goddart, & Michel Gorman, Mrs Sam Givens, Susan Gray, F W Guest, James Hollet, W H Hanault, Gilbert Hardy, John C Hopkins, Joseph Hollowell, Mrs H Henderson, RS Herbert, John Hickes, Henry A

Hiscock, Mrs Henry, Robert Healey, D Heward, W Horning, Jacob Hogan, Thomas Hysop, John Hunt, Mary Ann Hutchins, Wm Irwine, CA

Jones, Catharine Jennings, George Jenman, Capt Ge Johnson, Oliver Jackson, Jethro V Jones, Henry A Kerr, James Kavanagh, Jas

Wilson, James Lolonde, Mad Baptiste R. DEACON, Kingston Post Office, Oct. 31, 1873.

BOARD.

with board at Mrs Beel's, opposite St. George's Hall, with separate bedrooms and use of sitting-room, at five dollars per week. Dinner at 6 o'clock. Bath Room attached

SALT-WATER SALMON.

SALMON TROUT,

WHITE FISH, &c., &c.,

All of, which we will sell very cheap, small profits and quick sales being our motto.

John Y. Parkhill, PRINCESS STREET, Kingston

BOOKS RECEIVED

A TEMORIALS of REV. JOHN MACHAR. Questions of the Day, by John Hall, D.D. Gems from Talmage-one thousand brilliant passages.

NIGHTSHADE, by William Johnston,

Life in the Red Brigade, by Ballantyne. Blanche and Beryl, by De Stolz. Ganot's Physics, by Atkinson. College Text Books.

Translations of Classical Works. The Chandos Classics. Ancient Classics for English Readers :-The Iliad, Odyssey, Herodotus, Cæsar, Virgil, Horace, Aeschylus, Xenophon, Cicero, Pliny, Sophocles, Euripides.

Medical and Surgical Publications

> AT E. STACEY'S Music and News Depot.

C. ANGLIN'S.

A I.L THE NEW SHADES IN IRISH POPLINS. COLOURED GROS GRAIN SILKS. GLACE SILKS. SERGES AND LUSTRES.

SATIN CLOTHS

A LARGE STOCK OF BLACK LUSTRES AND NEW MOURNING GOODS.

Also FUR JACKETS AND CLOTH MANTLES, our own importation, selling at PIANO & TABLE COVERS. LACES, ALL KINDS AND SHADES. WOOL SHAWLS, &c., &c.

Also 1 Case, ex Sarmatian, of OTTER, BEAVER, SEAL and GREBE SETTS, New Ruffling, Oxydized Buttons and Belts and all the Novelties. C. ANGLIN.

Wellington Street, Kingston, October 29th, 1873.

ARRIVING. Malaga Grapes,

Lochfine Herrings,

At the GOLDEN LION. W. R. McRae & Co.

SYRUP! SYRUP!

A MBER SYRIT CILVER DRIPC

TONEY SYRUT COLDEN SYRUT

For sale cheap at the GOLDEN LION.

McRae & Co. FIRST PRIZE CHEESE.

TATE OFFER FOR SALE 300 CHEESE from Peters' Celebrated Factory. W. R. McRAE & CO.,

FIGS at the Golden Lion.

W. R. McRAE & CO.

New Currants TIWENTY-FIVE BARRELS CURRANTS. very fine, Crop 1873.

LIEBEG'S MEATS

October 10th.

TUST ARRIVED, FRESH, in 2 ounce and 4 ounce Pots. W. R. McRAE & CO.,

W. R. McRAE & CO.

Where do you Buy your

morning, roasted and ground on the W. R. McRAE & CO.