That night I dreamed I heard it again; all for the great joy that filled my being. through the week following it was with me ; "As I went out of the minster that day, should have recognized it among athousand | words of the most sacred tenderness. others. "Allow me," it said, "to help you down the steps! the rain has made Them slippery." I thanked her as best I could, and gladly accepted her help, only because I was blind.

who held the position. I accepted the offer

"One day, shortly after my brother's death, Organist. was sitting in the sunshine outside my father's door, feeling the sadness in the autumn air, and listening to the rustling of death and falling leaves, when a carriage relled up, and some one descending from it asked me if John Harvey, the organist of Heathly Church, lived there. I answered that I was the man. Then I heard the carriage door open, some one alight and come towards me, and immediately a gentleman introduced himself as Mr Vernon of Drayton Hall, who wished to hold a conversation with me for a few minutes, if I was not otherwise engaged. led him in, and in a few words he explained his errand. His only daughter had taken a the Hall. He had heard me highly spoken wardly. What if this stately gentleman was ily, and asked me if I thought I was going to and traitors." work-house officials. He must have noticed my disturbed manner, and I suppose he laid it to the charge of bashfulness. In his kindly tones he told me at what hour he would send | ED HYPOCRISY."-A name better adapted to for me on the next Monday, and shaking the party now in power in this country was hands cordially, bade me 'good afternoon,' and | ments were set before me. I could eat besides those

"In a few minutes Mr Vernon came in, "Who sigh, and with a piece of scripture, by the arm, led me to the organ, which stood in the spacious hall on the second floor, and And thus they clothe their naked villany good one-not so rich and soft as it would be | And seem saints, when most they play the when mellowed by time but powerful and sweet.

pended on it, as the voice I had so longed to consistency.

very powerful, but wonderfully rich and | hear again, spoke the common words of courpure, and sweet. I almost held my breath | tesy. . She asked me to play; and that organ to listen. It seemed to me that I could has never spoken since as it spoke then. have listened to it forever, but it ceased too | Strains as glad and tender as the emotion of soon. I listened patiently, hoping to hear my beaten heart expressed the joy I was comt again, but it sang no more that day. When it was over I was myself again, except

and the next Sanday morning, in the same | member Mass Vernon only as my pupil, departs, I heard it once more purer, sweet | pending on me for instruction, succeeded bet | er, and more pathetic than before. I felt | ter than I expected. I requested her to take that the owner of the wondrons voice, her seat on the organ bench. She read music though young, had suffered, and was full | well; was quick in musical apprehension, and of sympathy for all who bore the cross of made rapid progress; did almost as well as his Excellency's summons. From Vancouver of corn for home consumption. in going' down the steps I stumbled, and arm, that lay across my shoulders.

should have fallen had not a kind hand and a pain. It was the delight of my lonely Excellency himself came in for no small share caught my arm and helped me to regain life so be so near the woman I almost wor of the blackguarding of the time. Prorogation During the season of navigation the steamer ers are afraid of the scarcity of folder during my footing. Before a word was spoken 1 shipped; for every time I met her, I found on the 13th of August was a crime, a viola- Rochester made 176 trips between Belleville the winter. stretched out to help me belonged to the it was pain to be compelled to hide every tion of the constitution, an act of tyranny, a and Kingston. The steamer Picton made 28 voice that had so thrilled me with its beauty. sign of my great love, and to speak with cool trampling upon the rights of Parliament, an trips, and expected to make a 29th, and winter

"Sometimes in my more hopeful moods, " fancied that in speaking to n.e. her voice took as I was, in love with her. A young lady me with marked kindness, indeed she al has assumed the responsibilities of office. far as Picton is said to have paid well. Belle. I was sure she was, by the small soft hand ways showed me more favour when in the pre she stretched out to help me, her composed sence of others than she did when we were. The day is Friday, November 7th, not a ville Intelligencer. her beautiful voice. I'll not tell you, said I strove to keep my secret faithfully; yet, rogation. A letter, it is true, from His Ex- season—the ice, according to the Intelligencer, cathedral, and lingering as I went down the sons. A week from that day Mr Vernon died, was not necessary; an adjournment for a few gers. steps, in the hope that she might see me and wish me "good morning," as she had done which he had chosen hunself before his death.

The funeral will take place on Sunday at Florida, prop Garden City; schr Marysburg, 2 p.m. from her late residence, Wellington 1 p.m. once before; that alone would have made I heard nothing of his daughter during this constituents for re-election, and to have enaffections. My thoughts would wander, said one, 'they say she takes it very hard, with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'

| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'

| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'

| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'

| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'
| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'
| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'
| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues'
| Apply for weeks. I am atraid my music standing talking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on with the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues' like the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleagues' like the business of the country. But this did not suit Mr Mackenzie and his colleague even when I tried the hardest to restrain them, and the time from Sunday to Sunday seemed longer than a month had for brother nor sister; and another voice said, lies that lay in their path, and they determin.

Said one, 'they say she takes it very hard, as well she may ; she's but young to le alone in the world, with neither father nor mother, brother nor sister; and another voice said, lies that lay in their path, and they determin. Schr Pandora goes into winter here. merly been; but when Sabbath after Sab- They say she's going to shut up the Hall, ed to put off the evil day as long as possible. bath I went to the minister and heard her and go and live with her aunt, Lady Granger, They therefore decided upon prorogation, and has been snowing all this afternoon. No ves out nothing concerning the owner of the my blind helplessness came over me with wild some importance the members of the House of voice that charmed me so, excepting that anger and bitterness of soul I had never felt Commons were ordered to wait upon His Exher name was Agnes Vernon, that she was before. If I had been as other men, though the damehter of a country gentleman, had poor, I might have gained distinction in my session of Parliament was brought to a close School House is one of the heat we have seen evening, to which all are earnestly invited to the daughter of a country gentleman, had come to York to take lessons in vocal music from the leader of the Cathedral choir, had from the leader of the Cathedral choir, had for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the many of them for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald and his brother Ministers for the conduct of Sir John A. Macdonald an good fortune made me. I had feared that gan to play; relieving my mind with the wild my infirmity would cause me to be partly est and saddest strains my fingers could had. dependent on my family for support, and At last I stopped, and leaning my head upon they were ill able to do anything beside | the organ keys I groaned aloud in my unconhelp themse ves; but now, so long as I | trolable misery, whispering aloud the one word | kept the position, I was sure of a living; always in my mind 'Agnes.' Suddenly I heard for £25 a year would keep me, and provide | a light step near me, and the rustle of a wome with the few clothes I needed, -besides | man's garments, and her voice whispered John.

good deal-of nervousness; at last it came. she loved me. "She had called at my father's house to bid to strengthen his position. There was nothing ly spent with songs, readings, and recitations. On Wednesday, November 26. "My mother brushed my hair more care- me good-bye, and hearing the organ play as to hinder him asking for a reasonable adjourn. After the public meeting, the degree of Refully than usual, tiell my new neck-tie with she passed the church, had stepped in. I was lowing fingers, kissed me and bade me not so absorbed in my playing that I had not ment, which would have been fully granted, becca was conferred on a number of the ladies fear, I was sure to succeed, and my youngest heard her ascend the stairs, had not heard, her as the exigencies of the hour certainly demand: present, this being the first occasion on which brother led me to church. When I drew the till she spoke." My master ceased speaking, ed it. Prorogation was most unfair to those it has been conferred in Kingston. The trembled so that I feared I should fail; but edout and saw a lady I had often seen and adby a great effort I became much calmer, and mired in my boyish fashion coming towards went through the service, from beginning to the church. My teacher's face had grown sudend, without any mistake. At its close, the | denly bright, "That is my wife's footstep, be- ing it necessary. In the act of prorogation, rector, and several leading members of the fore she married me, her name was Agnes Ver therefore, we see the grossest inconsistency warmly on my success, and I went home hap- look for her husband." He said, as the lady manifested by the "Reform Party." They depier than I had been for years, forgetting in entered the porch, and walking up to her hus- nounced Sir John A. Macdonald's Government my joy the name and voice of Agnes Vernon. band took him gently by the hand, saying. for doing what they subsequently done them. I had been at home a year when poor Tom, John, you were away so long that I grew unselves, with this difference: what Sir John and Toronto. Mr Raymore has a large and mine, and my name the last upon his lips. to go home now? 'yes, my darling,' my mas did was anticipated, was, in fact, understood varied stock of goods, and his store is well 7. Song (selected)—Mrs P. O'Reilly. His death was a heavy blow to us all, but it ter said, with unutterable love in his voice; from the beginning, was necessary; while, on worth a visit. fell the heaviest on me, for I think I loved "I have been telling my lad a bit of a story, the other hand, Mr Mackenzie's act was not but it's finished now and we'll all go home," "After this sad event Agnes Vernon and and we went out of church together-my mas her beautiful voice beccame only a tender ter and his lovely and gentle wife to their hap. warranted. Constitutional it was, we grant, Alma Mater Society on Monday evening at 2. Song (selected)—Miss Moyland. memory, for grief for my lost brother left no py home, and I across the fields, to my father's but not necessary. It was only a movement St. Andrew's Hall, will no doubt be very in-

The Daily Aews.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 22. their City Taxes are reminded to do so at once and save costs.

LENNOX.-The nomination for this Riding takes place to-day at Napanee. We believe several other points to which we have yet to ing newspapers and periodicals will be found THIS Club will meet on Tuesday next instead of Wednesday at the Victoria a Dr. Tupper and the Hon. John Hilliard refer, but we must postpone their consideration on the table :- Mail, Globe, N. Y. Tribune, fancy to learn to play the organ; he had just | Cameron will likely be on hand to attend until Monday. bought a fine one, and had had it put up at | to the interests of the Liberal Conservative of, had been pleased with my playing at church, party, and to expose the treachery of the and desired me to give his daughter lessons. Fossii Tery R. J. Cartwright to his friends bragging article, the Globe boastfully says, ed, Dominion Monthly, Presbyterian. B. A. The Hall was only four miles away, he would and party. We are pleased to hear the "Not a word has been whispered against Mr | Presbyterian, Day of Rest Magazine, Chamsend his carriage to take me there and back, and if I would name my terms he thought we are pleased to near the most favorable accounts from all parts of is. Who knows anything about his integrity. Sunday at Home, and Sunday Magazine, Or eat trembling inwardly, and perhaps out- friends the propriety of not being over san-Agnes Vernon's father, and the daughter he guine and of working during the next week mentioned was the young lady herself? My | industriously and energetically, even if you | heart leaped at the thought. I could scarcely know you can beat Mr Cartwright work to man, and the sum I asked for my services | beat him badly, and let your watchword was so small that Mr Vernon laughed heart- continue to be "No quarter to renegades

PREACHING VS. PRACTICE-THE "ORGANIZ never applied to them than that used by "That was Thursday, and I won't try to Sir Francis Hincks when he called them an tell you how the time passed till the follow- "organized hypocrisy," quoting from the late ing Monday. At the appointed hour, the car- Sir Robert Peel. A hypocrite everybody un. best clothes on and a very white face and derstands to be one who pretends to be what wildly beating heart, was soon on my way. he is not-whose actions are inconsistent On my arrival at the Hall a servant met | with his professions. Hypocrites are not conme and led me to a room where refresh- fined to religion alone. There are hypocrites shook hands with me kindly, and taking me Tell others, that God bids them do good for desired me to try it. The instrument was a With old odd ends, stol'n forth of Holy Writ:

"Mr Vernoon seemed pleased with both in this world, and nowhere more numerous There are political hypocrites to be found must go and bring his daughter, and I than in this Canada of ours-men who preach must play the piece again. I told him one doctrine when in opposition, and practice that I could not; that I composed it as I quite another when in office, who pretend to played, but I would do the best I could.
He left the room and in a few minutes be absolutely pure, while they are notoriously returned with a light step at his side, and guilty of the most corrupt practices. In order coming toward me said: 'Mr Harvey, this to see how far the appellation is justifiable in is my daughter, and your future pupil, Miss connection with the so-called Reform Party of Agnes Vernon.' I bowed, and turned to the organ to hide my face. I think I could Canada we may profitably enumerate a few of not have spoken calmly if my life had de. the many instances of their hypocrisy and i

When Parliament was prorogued on the 13th of August last, notwithstanding the fact that there had been a perfect understanding that closing of navigation. It is somewhat earlier yesterday:there should be no business transacted on that | than last year, and the principal cause seems constitutional rights of Parliament being in await the opening of navigation next spring to $310. vaded. The appearance of Black Rod in the take the grain down to Montreal. outrage, and the "Reformers" would not obey | son's wharf, from Toledo, with 13,000 bushels "The lessons were to me both a pleasure tendered to his Excellency; and, indeed, his vals since yesterday. so it happened that in the middle of debate of sels or props have left since last report. members, every constituency save Provencher | sion price so low. being represented. Important questions required the immediate attention of Parliament; I might be able to find few pupils, and perhaps be a help to my parents instead of a burden. I looked forward to the first Sunday I was to enter on my duties with a day I was to enter on my duties with a moniously dismissed. The act of Mr Macken in the loved me.

I might be able to find few pupils, and perhaps be a help to my parents instead of a burden. I looked forward to the first Sunday I was to enter on my duties with a dodge to secure a brief delay, to buy support, in the chair, and the evening was very pleasant.

And Entertainment

Lodge Room last evening, when there was a large attendance of Oddfellows and their wives and sweethearts. Dr. Fowler was in the chair, and the evening was very pleasant.

And Entertainment

In aid of ST. PAUL'S CHURCH SUNDAY she loved me.

SCHOOL BUILDING FUND, in the chair, and the evening was very pleasant. and yet in order to suit the convenience of the | the Kingston Lodge, I.O.O.F., was held in the members from distant provinces who will be ob- order is progressing splendidly in the city, and liged to make a winter journey to Ottawa when | Kingston Lodge is one of the best worked in there was not the slightest occasion for mak. | the Province. anticipated, nor, under the circumstances, service. In a word, to use the language of a admission is free. contemporary, "They condemned a prorogation without the consent of the House; they prerogned without asking the Consent of the

> MR MACKENZIE'S INTEGRITY. - In a recent | Aection, Christian Weekly, Canadian Illustrator who cares? Is common honesty such a Monday evening the President, Mr R. V. rarity that it should be bragged about? As a Rogers will deliver his inaugural address in master mechanic, Mr Mackenzie doubtless | the rooms, and a cordial invitation is extendpaid his men, and as a successful public con- ed to all who may wish to attend. tractor he punctually met his engagements. He did this to serve himself, knowing well St. Andrew's Society.—St. Andrew's day in all matters of business, that honesty is the this year falls on Sunday, but the annual fesbest policy. 'Tis the fool only that's the tival is to be held on Monday. It is to take rogue. If there be any ugly affairs in Mr Mac. the form of a banquet in the City Hall, and Monday kenzie's inner life that he conceals from the from what we learn will be a great success. Laglare of light, that's his business, he has met dies are to be present, and this will add eclat to with fair play. His private letters have not | the meeting. The tickets are selling rapidly, been stolen and published, nor has any one and we advise those who wish to be present to been hired to break open his escritoire. His apply early for them. opponents are gentlemen, which is more than can be said of his friends. His integrity forsooth! It will be time enough to boast of that when, like Sir John A. Macdonald, after twenty-eight years of public life, he retires from political a poorer man than when he en- last winter, and the opening meetings this tered it. Mr Mackenzie is a very young Min- year have been well attended. The next meetister of the Crown—when he has passed ing is to be held on Tuesday next instead of through the fire unscathed then let his follow.

ers halloo-at present he is in the wood. We understand that Sir John and Lady Macdonald arrived at the Kingston Station this morning, that Sir John passed on up to the nomination at Napanee, and Lady Macdonald drove out to Heathfield.

ganising a Liberal Conservative Association.

est and best assortment of Gents' Wool Underclothing, Ties, Gloves, &e., first class value.

Marine News.

day, and that not one half of the representation to be the stringency of the money market. tives of the people were in attendance the The prop East is being unloaded at the M. | for $415. "Reform" Party raised a fierce howl about the T. Company's dock into barges, which will

House of Commons was regarded as a gross | The schr. Bell Sheridan arrived at Richard- auctioneer.

insult to the people's representatives, a high- at Picton, but has failed to succeed in doing for on Monday. handed and an unwarranted usurpation of so; and the steamer Alexandra made 7 trips a power. Sir John A. Macdonald and his col. between Belleville and Montreal. The steamer on a tenderer tone; and then, blaming myself | leagues were described as conspirators, and | Norfolk made about 90 trips between Belleville for the hope, I told my foolish heart it was his Excellency the Governor-General their and Picton. All these boats, except the H. E. Smallpeice, William street, Yorkville, wishing that instead of ten there had been "Occasionally, when there were guests at weak-minded and pliant tool. The scene is Rochester, have done a very profitable busi- by the Rev. F. H. Marling, Henry J. Presten hundred steps With a pleasant "good the Hall, Mr Vernou sent for me to play, and changed. Sir John A. Macdonald is in ness, the steamer named having done very lit. cott Good, Esq., of The Mail newspaper, to morming," she left me, blind and helpless on such occasions Miss Vernon always treated Opposition, and Mr Alexander Mackenzie the from Kingston here, though her route as my master, laying his hand upon my head, have guessed it.

At St. Michael's Cathedral, on Wednesday, the 19th November, inst., by the Lord Bishop CTATUETTES AND VASES. it better than I can tell you. I attended the ill, Miss Vernon would be unable to take by ernment until Black Rod summoned the Com- ward. It is expected that the ice will be tario. cathedral service regularly; happy if I but more lessons tall his recovery, and enclosing a mons to the Senate Chamber. A prorogation strong enough in a day or two for foot passen-suffered a good deal through my divided standing taking together by the church abled them to meet Parliament and to go on Chicago, Three Mile Bay, corn; barque Mary en ill, and gone home.

"Shortly after her departure, I went felt that I could hide my trouble from her no in advising prorogation on the 13th of city are on it, many of them home to pay a visit; hoping that a change longer, and I told her all. She listened August, was, as the "Reform" Party alleged, the first time, and some of them for of place and people would help to lift from quietly, and when I had done, tried to solace a violation of the constitution, a tyrannical this time only during the season. Mr my mind the burden of my hopeless love. me with loving words of counsel and comfort, act, and an interference with the rights of Par- Thomas S. Tandy, whose name appears on the While there I was invited to play the organ in the was a Christian in deed and in truth, in this church, and the people were so well and had gained peace through suffering; but liament, the conduct of the new Premier, the programme, bears an exceedingly high repupleased with my playing that they offered I refused to be comforted, and days and immaculate Mr Alex. Mackenzie, and his col- tation in Hamilton, where he frequently sings me the post of organist, about to become nights of bitter anguish and rebellion of spirit leagues was a far more unjustifiable act. In in public, but where all are first class there is the former case it was generally understood | little necessity of mentioning names. We have gladly and have played the organ ever since had strayed off to the church, and hiring a lit-meeting of Parliament on the 13th of August on Wednesday evening to greet the talented cannot tell you how glad and thankful my the boy to blow for me, I sat down at the or- would be purely formal, and that the atten- performers, as almost one thousand tickets ' dance of members was not expected. In the have been disposed of. The only mistake latter case, there was a full attendance of made in the matter was in fixing the admis-

ODDFELLOWSHIP. - A public meeting of

The great excitement in town is over the This class of store is somewhat of a novelty in Kingston, although well known in Montreal 6. Song-"The Yeoman's Wedding"-Mr new, at HENDERSON'S.

The popular debate in connection with the room in my mind for any light or unreal house, quieter and more thoughtful than usual, to gain a sure three months' tenure of office, teresting and instructive. The subject is during which time patronage might be liberally "Which has exercised on mankind the greater dispensed and loose fish bought up for future | influence for good--poetry or oratory?" The > Y. M. C. A.—The rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association on Wellington Tax-Payers who have not paid House." This act, were they inconsistent in street have now been fitted up comfortably, nothing else, would justify the use, in speak. and will be opened on Monday next, The November 22. ing of the party in power, of the appellation, rooms are to be opened from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., "Organized Hypocrisy." But the story of every day, and will be a means of great help their inconsistency is not half told. There are to young men who come into town. The follow-Chicago Tribune, Montreal Herald, N. Y. Independent, Chicago Union, Watchman and Re-Who knows anything about his integrity, Sunday at Home, and Sunday Magazine, On VICTORIA QUADRILLE CLUB. -- Mr William Perry has resumed his management of the Victoria Quadrille Club at the Victoria Music Hall. These meetings were very successful Ladies' Wednesday.

Mr Cartwright had a meeting at Amherst Island on Thursday. Thirty-five persons were there, men and boys, all told. It was a cold affair. Mr. Bawden's speech did not raise much enthusiasm. He said where there were the corner of Paris of P ORGANIZING. -A meeting off the Liberal the excuse he could make for R. J. C. ratting, the usual branches taught in our schools. Conservative party is to be held at Brockville and where there where politicians, and on the 16th December, for the purpose of or. not a lofty one either. Matters look blue for the renegacie on Amherst Island, as they might keep their spirits up.

Tolls. The tolls of the Kingston and From all quarters come notes of the early | Portland Road were sold at Langwith's tavern

> No. 1 Gate was sold to Reuben Young, the present Lassee for $400. No. 2. Gate was sold to John Carruthers | Street, No. 3. Gate was sold to Mrs Vanalstine for

This is $37 less than last year. Mr D. J. Walker, Inverary, was the

you have done, my dear lad," said my master, to Halifax the most violent abuse was heaped. The only thing doing at Swift's wharf is the very large one—the sleighs extending up with a caressing movement of his hand and upon the then Prime Minister for the advice unloading of coal, there having been no arri- Brock round the corner to near Clarence street. There was again a large quantity of

> We have a letter from "Fas" in reply to Dr Maclean's letter, which we hope to find room

Helen Mar, fourth daughter of the late Richard Clute, Esq., of Consecon, Ont.

At Walkerton, Nov. 20, by the Rev. J. P. manner, and the clear cultivated tones of alone. Although we eften conversed together, member of Parliament anticipated pro The Bay of Quinte has been closed for the to Miss Florence E. youngest daughter of the Speaker a very few hours before the act of the exception of a small part, which is kept of London, Henry Morris Watson, Esq., to next three months. Sometime I suppose, when, one day, a note came for me instead of prorogation was committed, but few members open for the purpose of ferrying passengers Mary Monica Theresa Crawford, second when your time comes, you'll know all about the carriage, saying, that as Mr Vernon was were aware of the intention of the new Gov. and mails between Belleville and Prince Ed. daughter of the Lieutenant-Governor of On-wish me "good morning," as she had done which he had chosen hunself before his death. have allowed the new Ministers to go to their Cleveland. Toronto, coal; barque Alexander, street. Friends and acquaintances are reopen to the public from 8 a.m. to 10 Index. Weekly meetings of the Association for with Letterpress, by Dr. Schmitz.

Kingston Young Men's

The programme of the popular concert in every Monday evening at 8 o'clock, and Historical Atlas, containing 62 Mars and co A good assortment of reading matter will be found on the tables of the reading room, of for which all young men are cordially invited to GEORGE CHAFFEY, JR., Rooms over Mr Clark Wright's Fur and Hat Store, Wellington Street.

Heifer Found.

A RED and WHITE HEIFER came on my farm, Lot 25, 4th Concession, Pittsburgh, during the summer. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, and pay expenses. ROBERT LECKIE.

Nov. 22, 1873.

CONCERT

PROGRAMME.

PART I. .. Piano Duet - Miss Davis and Mr Sutherland 2. Song (selected) - Miss Beel. 3. Reading-"The Charity Dinner" (by request)-Mr McIntyre. 4. Trio-"Ye Shepherds tell me"-Mrs Grylls just received at HENDERSON'S. and Messrs Grylls and Walkem. fifty cent and dollar store on King street. 5. Song-"She wandered down the Mountain Side"-Miss Henderson.

Thomas S. Tandy.

1. Piano Duet-Miss Dyckman and Miss Sentences, &c. Cloth, $1.25.

4. Duet-"Oh! how sweet the Hunter's Song" (Kucken)-The Misses Davis. J. Song-Mr J. B. Walkem.

6. Song-"Lady of the Lea"-Mrs Grylls. 7. Song-Mr Keeley. GOD SAVE THE QUEEN. Doors open at 7; to commence at 8 o'clock

Victoria Quadrille Club.

stead of Wednesday, at the Victoria Music Hall. Dancing to commence at 8 RAYMORE'S W. PERRY. Manager and Director.

November 22.

IN THE CITY HALL,

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY. Gentlemen's Ticket $2.00

Store and from the officers of the Society, and HOUSEHOLD from members of the Committee, and at the November 19.

NOTICE.

nection with above.

JOHN MILLS. don't like turn coats up there. That was the Esq., George S. Hobart, Esq., James and a variety of other articles. Macpherson & Co. have the large reason doubtless for adjourning to Cousens Fisher, Esq., Sheriff Ferguson, Isaac Simp reason doubtless for adjourning to Cousens Fisher, Esq., Sheriff Ferguson, Isaac Simp Reg. Jack Consistent tavern, so that by pouring spirits down they Esq., Jno. Mudie, Esq., John Creighton, a Lady's Black Fur Collar, The finder be rewarded by leaving it at Mr L. Water Clements, Deutist, or Mr Mayne's, Union

BUY THE

STAR GROCERY.

JOSEPH DONNELLY, J

172 Princess Street.

TORAYER BOOKS.

HYMN BOOKS. PSALM BOOKS. Full Stock at HENDELSON'S

Beautiful Lot for sale at

NIEW DICTIONARY.

Collins' Globe Dictionary of the English New Jewelry, Language, Etymological, Explanatory and Pronouncing. Illustrated with 500 Engrav- New Fancy Goods and Novelties. ings on Wood. 750 Pages. Cloth, 75 cents. JOHN HENEERSON, Princess Street.

NIEW ATLASES AT HENDERSON'S. The Students' Atlas, containing 36 Maps, THE ROOMS of this Association are now showing latest Boundaries; also a Consulting

The Students' Atlas of Classical Geography, GRIGOR'S reading essays, discussions, &c., will be held | The International, Political, Classical and > TATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS, Water Colours in Boxes and Cakes, Crayons and Crayon Paper, AT HENDERSON'S.

T) OUTLEDGE'S EVERY BOY'S AN. NUAL for 1874, AT HENDERSON'S.

COLLINS' NEW ELEMENTARY SCIEN-TIFIC SERIES, 30 cents per volume. floward's Practical Chemistry. Watts' Organic Chemistry. Collins' Mineralogy. Macturk's Physical Geography. Plummer's Astronomy. Evers' Nautical Astronomy Evers' Navigation. Sergeant's Mathematics. Balfour's Systematic Botany. Balfour's First Book of Botany. Lee's Accoustics, Light and Heat. Rossiter's Theoretical Mechanics.

Tomkins' Machine Construction. JOHN HENDERSON Princess Street

TAAMILY AND POCKET BIBLES.

Applied-

Assortment of the Finest Chromos made MARPETC

TLLUMINATED TEXTS for Sunday Schools and Homes. Splendid lot, all

THE CANADIAN ANTHEM BOOK A choice collection of Anthems, Chants, JOHN HENDERSON

A CCOUNT BOOKS. Cheapest in the city at HENDERSON'S.

King Street, next door to Stacey's Book Store.

MONTREAL BRANCH

THE PUBLIC

SURPRISED, DUMBFOUNDED, ASTONISHED, and exclaim, "How can you sell so cheap !"

We defy anyone in Kingston to compete with us in Cutlery and Nickelite Silver Ware. Over $10,000 different articles to select Your choice for 50 Cents and $1.00. Give us an early call and be convinced. The like you never saw before. Nov. 21.

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, 25th November.

THE Subscriber will sell on Tuesday next the corner of Barrie and William Streets, for niture and Effects belonging to W. B. Simpson | Real Maltese and Yak Laces; also Plain and railways there would be politicians, there the accommodation of pupils, male and female, Esq., consisting of Drawing, Dining and Bed would be plunder, which we presume, was all who wish to obtain a thorough knowledge of room Furniture, Brussels and other Carpets Sofas, Couches, Window Curtains, Bureaus A French Class will also be opened in con- Sideboard, Wardrobes, Tables, Chairs, F Washstands, Box and Cook Stoves, Crockery, REFERENCES :- George S. Fenwick, Glassware, Knives, Forks, Kitchen Utensils, Sale at 10 o'clock.

Kingston, 20th Nov., 1873.

ONSUMERS are hereby reminded to have Positively no allowance will be made on accounts for the stoppage of the supply, if such stoppage is found to exist WITHIN THE LINE OF STREET.

J. WILSON, Manager K. W. W. Co

Public Debate.

Nov. 21, 1873.

PUBLIC DEBATE will be given under the auspices of the Alma Mater Socie in St. Andrew's Hall, Princess Street MONDAY EVENING, November 24th. T subject to be discussed is-"Which has ercised on mankind the greater influence good, poetry or oratory?"

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Debate to commence at 7:30. Admission free. GEO, GILLIES,

Nov. 24.

JUST RECEIVED.

New High Back Combs. New Jet and Gold Bracelets. New Jet, Gold and Silver Bonnet

Ornaments.

When you buy,

COME TO

Nov. 20.

PARLOUR GOOK STOVES FOR

GOAL

S. CHOWN AND SONS. PRINCESS STREET.

HENDERSON'S. of all kinds received at R. & J. GARDINER Are offering an Elegant Assortment in all the Desirable Makes of

The Rest Makes of English Brussels.
The Best Makes of English Tapestries. The Best Makes of Woollen Carpets.

The Best Makes in Hemps and Drugge' A large proportion of the above are patterns of the choicest character, and offered at very

We are also showing the Best Makes of ENGLISH AND CANADIAN BLANKETS Flannels, Linen and Cotton Sheeting 50 CTS. AND $1.00 STORE Piano Covers—all offered at low prices.

R. & J. GARDINER,

Kingston, Oct. 16th, 1873.

Invite an inspection of their large DLACK & COLOURED SILKO DLACK & COLOURED SILKO

DLACK & COLOURED SILK DLACK & COLOURED SI DLACK & COLOURED SILE

fields Looms. Rich Black Gros Grain Silks. All the New Shades in Coloured Silks. A superior assortment of Real Irish Pop-A splendid assortment of French Merinoes

Empress Cloths, Satin Cloths, with a large and tasteful variety of the Newest Dress Materials produced the present season. Black and Coloured Velveteens in New Princess Street, Kingston, Oct. 16, 1873.