propose to return to that prayer book sanctioned by William White, and to tread on the steps of that saintly man as he acted from 1785 to 1789.

"3. One other reason for my present action remains to be given. On the last day of the late Conference of the Evangelical Alliance, J participated in the celebration of the Lord's Supper, by invitation, in the Rev. Dr. John Hall's Church in the City of New York, and united with Dr. Hall, Dr. William Arnot, of Edinburgh, and Prof. Dorner, of Berlin, in that precious feast. It was a practical manifestation of the real unity of 'the blessed company' of all faithful people' whom God 'hath knit | the mystical body of His Son Jesus Christ.'

"The results of that participation have been ruch as to prove to my mind that such a step cannot be taken by one occupying the position I now hold without sadly disturbing the peace and harmony of 'this Church,' and without impairing my influence for good over a large portion of the same church, very many of whom are within our diocese.

"As I cannot surrender the right and privilege thus to meet my fellow-Christians of othor churches around the table of our dear Lord, I must take my place where I can do so without alienating those of my own household of
