THE MURDER OUT. The Montreal Gazette says :- There will b time enough to discuss the features of the Government policy, as far as we have been permitted to know anything about it from the speeches delivered by Mr Mackenzio and hi colleagues, hereafter. But there is one part of that policy, as announced by Mr Mackenzie, s which is so important, and which affords so fered; sales at 1201. complete a clue to the events of the last eight months, that we cannot avoid immediate reference to it. That statement was made before the charter was granted to the company which I recently surrendered it. It was reiterated in various forms, and the alleged conspiracy to hand over our great Canadian highway to the want of forwarding facility prevents business manipulators of the Northern Pacific was being done, except for local consumption and dwelt upon by all the organs of the so-called supply, which small purchases are made at Liberal party with great earnestness. Here, then is the explanation of all the events Nov. 3. which have occurred during the last eigh. months; here is the payment which Mr Mc. Mullen, as agent for certain American capita ists connected with the Northern Pacific railway, receives for the time and labour whic' he has spent in aiding to turn out the Admin istration; and here is the submission of this new Government, who denounced their predecessors as guilty of treason as well as corruption because they were supposed to have had communication with American gentlemen, to the demands of the American manipulators. We doubt whether in the history of any country a more remarkable episode has ever occurred. Mr McMullen has get his reward, and the American railway manipulators have secured their triumph. The reward and triumph have. it is true, been paid for at the expense of Canada's best interests and of the downfall of Canada's ablest statesmen; it is quite true that TWO first-class CUT STONE HOUSES on they have been paid as the result of eight months of organized hypocrisy on the part of the traducers of the late government; but the public at large will appreciate thoroughly this feature of the policy of the Administration; feature the result, evidently, of a deliberate bargain and sale for the influence of foreigners who happened to hold possession of private correspondence with which the Government had nothing to do, but which, nevertheless, was compromising in its character. We ask our contemporary, the Globe, to read over his own articles on Sir Hugh Allan's speech at Peterborough, and having read them, we ask him, if he can, to reconcile the doctrines laid down in them with the policy of the Govern-
