MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Merry Christmas! Yes, 'tis coming! O, the happy, joyous time ! How in fond anticipation Youthful hearts await its chime. Yes, the gladsome day approaches With its bright expectant joys Held in store to bless the aged And surprise the girls and boys.

As the glorious dawn draws nearer-Only days yet intervene-How great the world grows mysterious Both in word, and act, and mien. All are whispering strange enigmas. Casting furtive glances round, Greeting friends, with look so knowing, Feigning wisdom so profound.

Ladies hurriedly are calling At the fancy shops and stores; Hastening home with steps excited, Entering unfrequented doors; Slipping cosy little bundles Into corners most secure ; Looking innocent as angels, And provokingly demure.

Men quite carelessly are asking What their fair friends most admire; Questioned, winking, smiling, answering, Gratify their strange desire. These of every trade and calling Busy hands and brain employ,

Getting all things fully ready For that day of mirth and joy. Everybody has a secret, All are dying to divulge All seem anxious to indulge

In the luxury of giving May t e bright anticipations Of all classes, grave or gay, End in full and glad fruition On the merry Christmas day.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
