WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST THE BOOTBLACK. Here y'are -? Black your boots, boss ? Do it for just five cents:

Shine em up in a minute That is 'f nothin' prevents. Set your foot right on there, sir; The mornin's kinder cold-Sorter rough on a feller When his coat's a gettin' old.

Well, yes-call it coat, sir Though 'taint much more'n a tear; Can't get myself another-Aint got the stamps to spare.

Make as much as most on 'em-That's so; but then, yer see, They've only got one to do for; There's two on us, Jack and me.

Him? Why-that little fellow, With a double-up sorter back, Sittin' there on the gratin' Sunnin hisself—that's Jack.

Used to be round sellin' papers. The cars there was his lay. But he got shoved off the platform, Under the wheels, one day. Yes, the conductor did it-

Gave him a reg'lar throw-He didn't care if he killed him; Some on 'em is just so. He's never been all right since, sir,

Sorter quiet and queer-Him and me go together, He's what they call cashier. Trouble-I guess not much sir,

Sometimes when biz gets slack, I don't know how I'd staad it If 'twasn't for little Jack. Why, boss, you ought to hear him,

He says we needn't care How rough luck is down here, sir, If some day we git up there.

All done now-how's that, sir? Shine like a pair of lamps. Mornin' !- give it to Jack, sir, He looks after the stamps. -N. Y. Evening Mail.
