

KINGSTON, (CANADA), THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17, 1871.

[PRICE TWO CENTS.

SAUNDERS, M.D., Member A College of Surgeons, Eng-Vates's Surgery, William fon of known Co.

DR. MACLEAN, at R. White's

R EVANS, M.R.C.S., Lonsidence, Princess Street, house by Dr. Maclean. trick & Smythe, would advertis

narket.

prescriba à si, Manchester

OWD material, the k, and Crimson

S, Wicker, Ivory, Beed, &c., attract the

tle of No. 2 Black

A Sixpenny l

., mey be prestily ill

GRIST

LY NEWS

S. KIRKPATRICK. ew York writes E. H. SMYTHE, M.A. to be appros. Kirkpatrick, TOWN ATTORNEY and Clerk and Attorneys-at-Law, So-for the County of Fronte-Street, Kingston, directly oppo-wsleeve & Walkem, Gers and Attorneys-af-Law, Con-Notaries Public. whard T. Walkem.

CHANCERY. Street, Kingston, Out. P GILDERSLEEVE, L.L.B. RICHARD T. WALKEM. Joseph Bawden, Notary Public, 33 King Street, enumerate the John Mudic, gg-AT-LAW, Solicitor in Chan-

Money to lend at easy rates S. Cartwright,

Removal. is Law Otlice from Clarence to

A Sixpenne Wer Mr J. Linton's Auction da of Bonnet Ribb W. H. Fuller, Silks, &c TR and Attorney-at-Law.

Dentistry. to aroid creases 4 Wilson's Block, Wellington Dye in boiling the en Princess and Brock Sts. bot water (a few.

Violet and Purple Leincial Insurance Co. MARINE. MAXWELL W.

Assurance Company.

Prices and Wellington Streets.

R. M. ROSE. Irchitecture.

or Blue will make has and Specifications of Public beautiful colouring as Buildings, and also to superintend * R. GAGE. STAIN: Ditto. Marble Block, Princess Street.

INSURANCE COMPANY.

a pint of boiling water RE AND MARINE. bottle of Magenta m H CAPITA-L $1,000,000.

INDERSIGNED having been apuse with a brush or the issue policies on every descripmble property, for any period from milar to Ward and Lon years, at the lowest possible I. C. HAVEN, Agent. LLY, CORN FLO wence Street, near the British > McINTOSH, Veterinary Surgeon, ate of the Ontario Veterinary Colto Office, City Hotel, Kingston.

FELLOWS' Syrup of Hypophosphites.

i dye will tint a que of arresting disease displayed preparation is honourably acw the medical faculty in every ere it has been introduced; and the ceasing sale is the best guarantee of tion in which it is held by the

> It will cure all diseases originating as enlargement of the liver, enthe spleen, dyspepsia, rickets, action of the heart, local the blood to purity and health. Apothecaries, Price $1 50; six for

St. John, N.B.

thracite Coal Yard, WHARF, FOOT OF JOHNSON

Pure Lackawana, being the very heart of the Lacka-Scranton, Pittston and Wilkes We be screened and delivered in the also Leigh Lump for foundry Delivered in any part of the

JAMES SWIFT & CO.

ROCHESTER,

K. CRAWFORD, Master, C. H. HATCH, Ticket Agent. April 10, 1871.

Canadian Navigation Company. ROYAL MAIL THROUGH LINE.

THE ABOVE LINE is composed of the following SPLENDID UPPER-CABIN STEAMERS :-

CORSICAN Capt. Fairgrieve. SPARTAN PASSPORT KINGSTON CORINTHIAN

son Street, for Toronto and Hamilton, every more pain and Street, Kingston, digetty of police.

Afternoon (Mondays excepted) at HALF-PAST FIVE HALF-PAST FIVE o'clock. Also, one of the steamers will leave for Montreal every Morning (Monday excepted) at HALF-PAST FIVE, touching at Clayton and Alexandria Bay.

Express Line, CONSISTING of the SPLENDID LAKE STEAMERS

ATHENIAN..... Capt. J. J. Morley, ABYSSINIAN..... Will commence their regular trips between gy.AT-LAW, Solicitor in Chan- Ogdensburg, Oswego, Charlotte (Landing for Rochester, Niagara Falls and Buffalo), and TORONTO, on the 27th inst.

GOING EAST at 4 A.M. GOING WEST at 6 P.M. For Passage Tickets apply at the office of Folger Bros., Ontario Street, or at the Lake and River Steamboat Office, St. Lawrence

Wharf, foot of Johnson Street. Passengers going to the West can procure Tickets via Great Western, Detroit and Milwaukee and Michigan Central Railways for Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, Grand Haven, NEW, Barrister, &c., has re- and also for all the principal points in the West, and also via Pacific Railroad to Utah, Nebraska, Colorado, Nevada and California. A comfortable and convenient Waiting Room for Ladies and Gentlemen on the Wharf. C. H. HATCH, Agent. Kingston, June 23, 1871.

Kingston and Cape Vincent Ferry,

COMMENCING MONDAY, 31st July, the Steamer WATERTOWN, C. Hinckley, Senr., Master, will leave Kingston daily (Sundays excepted)

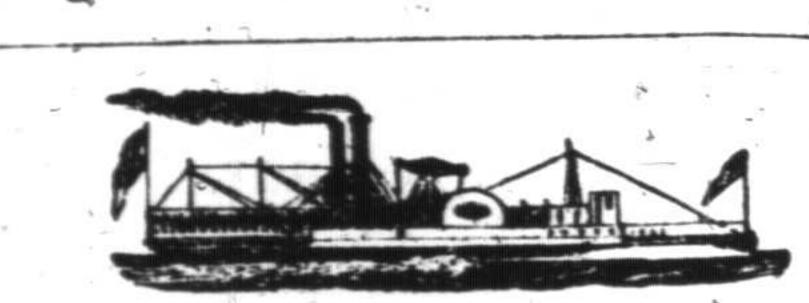

At 5:45 A.M., after arrival of G.T.R. trains from East and West and the Lake Steamers; connecting at Cape Vincent with the 8:05 A.M. train, arriving in Oswego at noon, Rome 12:40 P.M., Albany 5:25 P.M., and New York 9:30

Office, Clarence Street, opposite And at 3 P.M., on the arrival of the G.T.R. train from West and Bay of Quinte Steamer, connecting at Cape Vincent with the 5:15 P.M. train, arriving in Oswego at 9:30 P.M., Rome 9:50 P.M., and New York at 8:00 A.M., and also connecting with the N. T. Co's Propellers for Oswego and all Western Ports.

RETURNING, Will leave Cape Vincent At 8:55 A.M., on arrival of train from Rome, &c., meeting the G.T.R. trains for East and West, and the Bay of Quinte and Lake

And at 5:30 P.M., on arrival of train from Rome &c., meeting the G.T.R. trains for East and West and the morning steamer for Mon-

Meals to be had on board. For freight or passage apply on board or to G. M. KINGHORN, Ferry Wharf, foot of Brock Street. Kingston, July 29, 1871.

Kingston and Wolfe Island Ferry.

COMMENCING this day, the Steamer GAZELLE will run as under during the summer months:-

Leaves Wolfe Island. Leaves Kingston. 9:00 A.M. At 8:00 A.M. 1:00 P.M. 11:30 A.M. 3:00 P.M. 2:00 P.M. 8:00 P.M. Per Str. Watertown or when she arrives from Cape. MONDAYS AND SATURDAYS. 5:00 P.M. SUNDAYS. 10:00 A.M 9:00 A.M.

12:30 P.M. 11:00 A.M. 5:00 P.M. G. M. KINGHORN, Ferry Wharf, foot of Brock Street.

Kingston and Gananoque Route. COMMENCING ON TUESDAY, 28th inst., the Steamer GAZELLE, D. Pyke, master, will leave Kingston for Gananoque touching at the intermediate places on Howe Island and the Main Shore, 1871. Every TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURS-DAY and FRIDAY at 4 P.M.

Will leave every WEDNESDAY and FRI-DAY at 5:30 A.M. and 8 P.M. For freight or passage apply on board or to G. M. KINGHORN, Ferry Wharf, foot of Brock Street.

Ottawa and Kingston

PASSAGE AND FREIGHT LINE. THE NEW AND COMMODIOUS Upper-

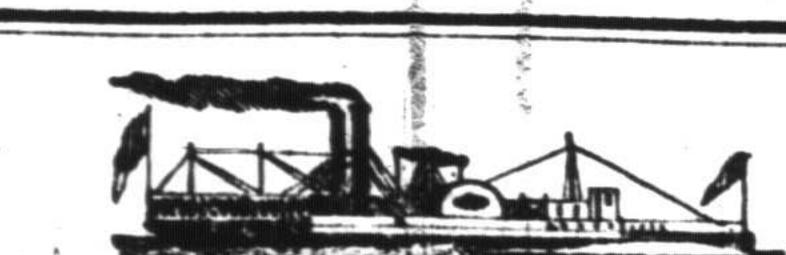

Kingston, leaving Kingston on TUESDAYS Oxfords, &c. and FRIDAYS at 3 P.M., leaving Ottawa on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS at 7 A.M., righted by Messrs Lazarus, Morris & Co., calling at the intermediate stopping places, every purchaser of their celebrated Spectacles connecting at Smith's Falls with the Brock- is guaranteed a perfect fit.

D. MURPHY, Canal Basin, Ottawa.

G. M. KINGHORN,

Foot of Brock Street, Kingston.

Kingston, July 24, 1871.

Kingston, Gananoque and Clayton. THE STEAMER NORFOLK, R. DAVIS,

Master, will leave Clayton for Kingston, via Gananoque, as follows:--TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS and SATUR- Factory, 16 Bond Street, New York. DAYS at 6 A.M., and Gananoque at 7 A.M., touching at all intermediate ports.

RETURNING; Leaves Kingston at 4 P.M., Gananoque at 7.P.M., for Clayton. One of the Steamers of the above Line will This beat will be open for charter every leave the St. Lawrence Wharf, foot of John- Monday, Wednesday and Friday. . SWIFT & CO.,

> Lawrence Whart. Kingston, July 7, 1871.

> > Room Paper.

ALL NEW PATTERNS, which will be sold at the Cheapest Rate, At Wm. Robinson's

Y PAINT SHOP AND ROOM PAPER DEBOT.

Painting, Glazing, Graining and Paper Hanging done at the cheapest rate and best style.

W. ROBINSON. Kingston, July 18, 1871.

Iced Cream Soda

DOW'S PATENT FOUNTAIN,

Choice Syrups,

RASPBERRY, VANILLA, LEMON, GINGER, STRAWBERRY, SARSAPARILLA,

COFFEE AND CREAM. R. WHITE,

CMEMIST AND DRUGGIST,

42 Princess Street.

A Saving of 300 Per Cent

BY USING

LIQUID OZONE,

An Infallible Preserve for all kinds of Fruits, Meat, Fish, Poultry, Game, Eggs for hatching or for domestic use, Milk, Butter, Cheese, Lard, hottest climates, and for any length of time, without the aid of Sugar or Salt Meats, Prepared Meats, and all Animal and Vegetable Substances, in the Salt, and at a cost of about pound of article preserved.

H. SKINNER,

Sole Agent for the Counties of Frontenac, Leeds, and Grenville. July 7.

J. A. KARCH, TAVING RETIRED from the Grocery and Liquor Trade, begs to thank his numerous customers for their liberal patronage in the past, and intimates for the future i. will strictly confine himself to the Coffee and Spice Business. All orders promptly attended to. J. A. KARCH. Office and Residence, Earl Street, between Bagot and Wellington Streets. Kingston, Jan. 10, 1870.

SPECTACLES TO SUIT EVERY SIGHT

HEATH & GUNN'S

47 PRINCESS-ST.

As we strictly observe the system, copy-Heath & Gunn's Druggists, Have now the reputation of drawing the Coldest and Best Soda Water in Kingston.

All Syrups made from the Fruit. HEATH & GUNN.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Batchelor's Hair Dye.

This splendid Hair Dye is the best in the world; the only true and perfect Dye. Harmless-reliable-instantaneous-no disappointment-no ridiculous tints-"does not contain lead or any vitalic poison to injure the hair or system." Invigorates the hair and leaves soft and beautiful, black or brown.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no man has also got down, and is following. is the sound of wheels and it draws rapidly introduced the bill was that the Government means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for yard; there is evening service, and the loa!" he says, in a cheerful voice. "What, be to obtain Parliamentary sanction to a legal ininfants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing midshipman steals up the porch, looks in "no, I am not benighted; or, at any rate, I tion to the gravity of the question which had Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our and listens. The clergyman has just risen know my way out of the woods. own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by from his knees, in the pulpit, and is giving Th giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet out his text. Thirteen months have passed sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. since the boy was in a house of prayer, and say, "to think of our meeting this way! The which would have the effect of passing a whol-Most parents can appreciate these blessings. a feeling of pleasure induced him to stand parson told me he was in hopes of seeing thee ly undeserved condemnation on the Govern-Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the and comes softly out of the porch, full of a ers say they would not be without it from the his voice and of his prayers. He thinks of birth of the child till it had finished with the

Be sure and call for "MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP., KINS" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

Brown's Bronchial Troches.

"I have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, excepting to think yet wood. HENRY WARD BEECHER. "For Throat Troubles they are a specific. "Contain no opium or anything injurious.

DR. A. A. HAYES, Chemist, Boston. "An elegant combination for Coughs." Dr. G. F. Bigelow, Boston. "I recommend their use to public speakers. REV. E. H. CHAPIN. "Most salutary relief in Bronchitis." REV. S. SEIGFRIED, Morristown, Ohio.

"Very beneficial when suffering from Colds.

REV. S. J. P. ANDERSON, St. Louis. 'Almost instant relief in the distressing labour of breathing peculiar to Asthma." REV. A. C. EGGLESTON, New York. "They have suited my case exactly—relieving my throat so that I could sing with ease. T. DUCHARME, Chorister French Parish Church, Montreal.

As there are imitations, be sure to OBTAIN

The Daily Aews.

LET OUT OF DANGER. BY JEAN INGELOW. man, idling about in a great city, with his come to the branching of the paths, and the charity. pockets full of money. He is waiting for bird goes down the wrong one. The tempthe coach; it comes up presently. And he | tation to follow it is too strong to be resist-the harvest fields; he smells the honey- nearly as soon.

and enlarges upon her peculiar advantages; or later. no doubt that he deserves it. His cheeks you!

inn; she looks careworn, and well she may, bush! Oh, my arm! I can't get free!" He gels have admired at, we come home and say, a glass of bottled ale, and, what is more, she for in the spring her husband went tup to struggles and pants. "All this comes of leav- perhaps, that nothing has happened—at least, stood at the counter until she had drained the London to seek for work. He goes for ing the path," he says; "I shouldn't have nothing particular.

She looks at it with incredulous joy, and sit by the beside of her sick husband. The midshipman knows nothing about that-and he never will know. The passengers go on talking—the little | will come upon him. midshipman has told them who he, is and Eyeglasses is now very extensive, and a dark-looking and restless man—he sits can sell him a glass of ale.

midshipman; perhaps, if he cries out and It is very dark, but there is a yellow had been greatly strained by the manner in struggles, he will do worse. The boy, he streak in the sky where the moon is plow- which it had been exercised, because it had way is lonely, and the sun will be down. No. There seemed, indeed, little chance

And now they reach the village where the On he comes, running lightly, with his hands | ernment boy is to alight. He wishes the other pas- in his pockets. A sound strikes at the same still and listen.

sermon; and then he remembers his home, night. little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." calm and serious pleasure. The clergyman And during the process of teething its value is has reminded him of his father, and his incalculable. We have frequently heard moth- careless heart is filled with the echoes of danger; he does not remember any parti- woods with such rapid strides that he reaches pursued by the Government as perfectly jus-" cular danger that he has been exposed to, the farmer's gate just as the gig drives up to tifiable." Having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Per excepting in the great storm; but he is it. grateful he has come home in safety, and he hopes whenever he shall be in danger, shipman, as he prepares to get down. which he supposes he shall be some day, he hopes that then the providence of God will watch over him and protect him. And so he pressed onward to the entrance of the many sparrows." pushed himself into the thicket and cut a step heavy stake; he suffers the boy to go on before; and then he comes out, falls into the path, and follows him. It is too light at present for his deed of darkness, and too near the entrance of the wood, but he knows that shortly the path will branch off take will be dark and lonely. when not fifty rods from the branching of did write you an account of the voyage, and curred in the proposed vote of censure. In rethe path to break into a sudden run? not fear—he never dreams of danger. Some sudden impulse, or some wild wish for home makes him dart off suddenly after his saunter, with a hoop and a bound. he goes as if running a race; the path bends, and the man loses sight of him. path divides, when he starts up a white owl back, for you know, mamma, it is a long time ernment drawing the rusty sword of State to that can scarcely fly, as he goes whirling | since I gave anything to anybody." along close to the ground before him. He gains upon it; another moment and it will goes on the top of it, and begins to look ed; ke knows that somwhere, deep in the wood, there is a cross track by which he can the checkered shadows of the trees lying asunder.

"Are not two sparrows," he hears "sold about the sea serpent.

The white owl still leads him on; the path across the road, and then a squirrel runs up a bough, and he cannot forbear to whoop that he has missed it altogether, and his feet dren uncomfortable by my fears. What did tical introduction of some motor other than and halloo, though he cannot chase it to its are on the soft ground. He flounders about you stray away from the path for?"

he then confides to them how a certain | He does not know this part of the wood, but sure. I thought it never would come. But Commission that there is no danger to the chase that owl? If you had kept the path and brought me on to the gate. ting on the topmast crosstree, something chance that you might outrun him; or if le being brought to a close," his father says, the chairman. uncommonly like the sea serpent—but find- had overtaken you, some passing wayfarer "we discover there are no adventures to ing this hint received with incredulous | might have heard your cries and come to save | tell.' that some day he shall be promoted to have your death, for the forest water is deep ticular I mean."

his way through the wood.

then she looks at him.

"It's all right," he says, and the coach starts again, while full of gratitude she believes that the boy is before him. At last hires a cart to take her across the country he hears a crashing of dead boughs, and preto the railway, that the next night she may sently the little midshipman's voice fifty yards before him. Yes, it is too true; the boy is on the cross track. He will pass the cottage in the wood directly, and after that his pursuer

> The boy bounds into the path; but as he sees the cottage, he is thirsty and so hot that | Executive during the progress of a measure thinks, will have no chance against him; it | ing up a furrowed mass of gray clouds, and one | abolished that which it had created, without is quite impossible that he can escape; the or two stars are blinking through the branches being able to give full effect to their acts until of the trees.

sengers "Good evening!" and runs lightly instant the ears of both, and the boy turns | the Government was great: Their reason for REV. SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the down between the scattered houses. The back from the very jaws of death to listen. It not using the Royal prerogative before they The path lies through the village church- nearer. A man comes up, driving a gig. "Hil- not only wished to abolish purchase, but also some day this week. I'll give thee a lift. ment for the course they had pursued. He hears the opening sentences of the This is a lone place to be in this time of The Marquis of Salisbury said the question safe as a quarter-deck." So he gets into the farmer's gig, and is once | want without you." It was for their lordships more out of the reach of the pursuer. But the | to consider whether that house ought, as was man knows that the farmer's house is a quar- | then proposed, to stamp with deserved conwhat the clergyman said of the care of our ter of a mile nearer than the parsonage, and in demnation an act which was at once a menace Heavenly Father for us; he remembers that quarter of a mile there is still a chance of to the independence of the house and an inteething siege, on any consideration whatever. how, when he left home, his father prayed committing robbery. He determined still sult to its authority. that he might be preserved through every to make the attempt, and cut across the The Duke of Argyll defended the course

The man drew back among the shrubs.

"Well, thank you, farmer," says the mid- the protest contained in the resolution of the

the man, when he passes. "Good night, friend," the farmer replies. nism to that house, and done much towards 'I say, my boy, it's a dark night enough; but detracting from the popularity of the Sovereign I have a mind to drive you on to the parson- out of doors. age, and hear the rest of this long tale of yours | Lord Romilly should record his vote in fa-

ground without your Father's notice. But the man; and he stands still in the road to lis- the Crown, and there was nothing to justify the hairs of your head are numbered. Fear | ten till the sound dies away. Then he flings | such a step. not, therefore, ye are of more value than his stake into the hedge, and goes back again. "The man is there before him. He has the thoughtless boy has baffled him at every therefore would oppose the resolution.

adventures, more for the pleasure of hearing | not constitutional to allow the decision of their into two, and the right one for the boy to him talk than any curiosity. But what prompts the little midshipman | father and mother on a sofa. "Why, ma, I | along had in their pockets; he therefore con-

"You came by the coach we told you of?" opinion of their lordships, and would show asked his father. "Oh, yes, papa! and when we got about in the long run."
twenty miles there came up a beggar, while The Duke of Somerset said, although he conwe were changing horses, and I threw down sidered the step taken too hasty, he could not "But I shall have him yet," he thinks; (as I thought) a shilling, but as it fell saw it well see what other course the Government he cannot keep up the pace long. The was a sovereign. She was very honest and could have taken. boy has nearly reached the place where the showed me what it was; but I didn't take it The Earl of Longford objected to the Gov-

"Very true, my boy," his mother answered; relation to the Army Bill "but you should not be careless with your | Earl Russell considered, in the first instance Who is this? A careless little midship- be his. Now he gets the start again; they money, and few beggars are worthy objects of the Government were to blame for not bring-

"Yes, and went through the woods,

my way there." They soon leave the chimney tops behind get in the track he has left; it is only to "Lost your way!" said his mother, alarm- and the numbers werethem; his eyes wander with delight over run a little faster, and he shall be home td; "my dear boy you should not have left the suckle in the hedgerow, and he wishes he On he rushes; the path takes a bend, and 'Oh, ma!" said the little midshipman, with was down among the hazel bushes, that he he is just out of sight when his pursuer comes a smile, "you're always thinking we are in might strip them of their milky nuts; then | where the paths divide. The boy has turn- | danger. If you could see me sometimes sithe sees a great wain piled with barley, and ed to the right—the man takes the left, and ting at the jibboom end, or across the mainhe wishes he was on the top of it; then the faster they both run the farther they are topmast crosstree, you would be frightened. But what danger can there be in a wood?"

among the trees and stumps, vexed with him- "Only to catch a little owl, mamma; but I held an adjourned meeting here today. Seve The other passengers were delighted with self and panting after his race. At last he didn't catch her at all. I got a roll down a ral new plans were presented, but they lack as his simplicity and childlike glee; and they hits upon another track, and pushes on as fast bank, and caught my jacket against a thorn- yet the practical test required. A resolution encouraged him to talk about the sea and as he can. The ground begins sensibly to de- bush, which was rather unlucky. Ah! three was adopted calling on the Attorney General ships, especially Her Majesty's wherein he scend; he has lost his way—but he keeps large holes, I see, in my sleeve. And so I to give his opinion whether the plan of propelhas the honour to sail. In the jargon of bearing to the left, and though it is now dark, scrumbled up again and got into the right ling freight boats by tugboats is admissable to the seas he describes its many perfections he thinks he must reach the main path sooner path, and asked at the cottage for some beer. competition under the law. A resolution was What a long time the woman kept me, to be also adopted declaring it the judgment of the middy, having been ordered to the masthead as a punishment, had seen, while sit- with the dark man behind you, there was a "And so this account of your adventures Commission adjourned to meet on the call of smiles, he begins to tell them how he hopes | you. Now you are running straight on to | "No, papa, nothing happened—nothing parcharge of the poop. The passengers hope and black at the bottom of this hill. Oh, Nothing particular. If they could have I was strolling through the bar-room of the that he will have that honour; they have that the moon might come out and show it to known, they would have thought lightly in Continental Hotel last evening when a horse comparison of the dangers of the jibboom's galloped up to the door and a young lady no doubt that he deserves it. His cheeks blush with pleasure when he hears them say so, and he little thinks that they have no notion in what "that honour" may happen soft under his feet as he runs, and slips down and the maintopmast cross-trees. But they do not know, any more than we do of the dangers that hourly beset us. Some few dangers we are aware of, and we do what we can what fare the horse should get, for all the to consist.

The coach stops; the midshipman, with stone, stumbles and falls. Two minutes more portion our eyes behold that which we cannot see among horses all his lifetime. The groom his hands in his pockets, sits rattling his and he will fall into the black water. We walk secretly under His guidance without had no sooner gone than she deliberately money and singing: There is a poor "Heydey!" cried the boy, "what's this? whom "not a sparrow falleth to the ground;" walked up to the bar in campany with a gen woman standing by the door of the village Oh, how it tears my hands! Oh, this thorn and when we have had escapes that the an- tleman who met her at the door and called for work, and she was expecting soon to join cared for the rolling down if it hadn't been for It is not well that our minds should be much didn't drink, had paid for it. This young lady him there, when, alas! a fellow-workman this bush. The fern was soft enough. I'll exercised at these hidden dangers, since they belongs to one of the best paying parties wrote her word how he had met with an accident, how he was very bad, and wanted his wife to come and nurse him. But as his wife to come and nurse him. But as With a good deal of patience, and a great loving Providence which watches every foot the beauties whe, they say, horrified a she has two children, and is destitute, she many scratches, he gets free of the thorn step of a track always balancing between foreigner here the other day by drinking must walk all the way, and she is sick at | which had arrested his progress when his feet | time and eternity; and that such reflections | punches out on the lawn? Are we not livheart when she thinks that perhaps he may | were within a yard of the water, manages to | should make us both happy and afraid | ing in an age of progress? die among strangers before she can reach scramble to the bank, and makes the best of of trusting our souls too much to an earthly guide or earthly security-happy from the She does not think of begging, but see- And now, as the clouds move slowly on- knowledge that there is One with whom the THE POSTAL MONEY ORDER CONVENing the boy's eyes attracted to her, she ward, the moon shows her face on the black very hairs of our head are all numbered. makes a courtesy, and he withdraws his surface of the water and the little white owl Without such trust, how can we rest or be at hand and throws her down a sovereign. comes and hoots, and flutters over it like a peace? But with it we may say with the Washington despatch says:—In relation to the wandering snow-drift. But the boy is in the Psalmist: "I will both lay me down in peace, convention between Great Britain and the wood again, and knows nothing of the danger and sleep, for thou, Lord, only makes me United States, on the 2nd of October next, it

> THE VOTE OF CENSURE IN THE pound sterling of Great Britain is to be con-HOUSE OF LORDS. In the House of Lords on Monday, July 31, house, before assenting to the second reading York is to be determined at New York in acof the Army Regulation Bill, desires to ex-Eyegiasses is now very extensive, and a dark he sees the glitter of the falling coin, comprises, besides the celebrated Perfected apart, he sees the glitter of the falling coin, the woodman, who is sitting at his supper.

they resorted to the assistance of Parliament. Fast the boy follows, and fast the man runs | The conduct of Government was a distinct inof his escape; the half-fledged bird just on, with his weapon in his hand. Suddenly terference with their lordships' legislative functions down from his nest has no more he hears the joyous whoop—not before, but tions. Was that house a deliberative Assemfluttering down from his nest has no more behind him. He stops and listens noise- bly, or was it not? Were their lordships to chance against the keen-eyed hawk, than lessly. Yes, it is so. He pushes himself into give an opinion which should have any effect, all druggists and dealers. Applied at the little light-hearted sailor boy will have the thicket, and raises his stake, when the boy or was their opinion only to be taken when it was in accordance with the views of the Gov-Earl Granville admitted the responsibility of been raised by the resolution then under discussion, and expressed a hope that their lordships "Why, bless the boy," he hears the farmer | would not give their sanction to a motion was whether the Government, after asking "Lone," says the boy, laughing; "I don't | them to arrive at a decision upon any one mind that; and if you know the way, it is as | point, could turn round upon that branch o' the legislature, and say, "We can do what we

The Earl of Carnarvon fully concurred in noble duke, and accused the Government of "I wish you good night, gentleman," says | having, by the course they had taken, placed the Crown in the position of apparent antagovour of the resolution, as there was no precefor a farthing? And one shall not fall to the The little wheels go on again. They pass dent for such an exercise of the prerogative of > Lord Penzance regarded the act complained His evil purposes have all been frustrated— of as perfectly legal and constitutional, and he The Earl of Derby said if the Government And now the little midshipman is at home; | had announced their intention to dispose of the joyful meeting has taken place and when the question of purchase by prerogative, and they have all admired his growth, and decid- had at the same time made their other propoed whom he is like, and measured his height sals in the shape of a bill, they would have on the window frame and seen him eat his been pursuing a perfectly logical course, and supper, they begin to question him about his one that could be easily understood. It was lordships' house to go for nothing, and for "Adventures," said the boy, seated between Government to exercise the power they all It is there's nothing else to tell. Nothing hap- ply to the question; what benefit would accrue pened today—or at least nothing particu- from carrying such a motion, he answered that it would be of advantage to put on record the > > Government that sharp practices will not pay cut through a difficulty such as had arisen in ing in a complete plan of army organization, "I suppose you got down at the cross roads?" and in making use of the Royal prerogative said his elder brother. the Ministers had incurred a very serious re-

Lord Cairns denounced the conduct of the should have been here sooner if I hadn't lost Government.—Their lordships then divided, For the vote of censure

Majority The numbers were received with loud cheers.

CANAL NAVIGATION. Syracuse, N.Y., August 14.—A Commis-"Well, my boy," she answers, "I don't sion, appointed to examine the plans and award animal power for the propulsion of canal boats,

> AN INCIDENT AT LONG BRANCH. A correspondent at Long Branch writes :-last drop out and until the gentleman, who

In addition to the details already given a may be further stated that in the conversion of the currencies of the two countries the sidered as equivalent to $4.86 of gold coin of the United States. The value in United States the Duke of Richmond moved "That this before assenting to the second reading" before assenting to the second reading cordance with the current premium on gold on that the gold value of deposits for money number of the international money orders that may be purchased by one person, it is quite of money thus transferable by one person daily

A resident of Georgia, aged eighty, has been

Cabin Steamer CITY OF OTTAWA,

ville and Ottawa Railway running North and For freight or passage apply to the Captain on board,

July 29,

Will be on this line between Ottawa and Lenses, Shooting Glasses, Coquelles, Readers, and now he watches the boy more closely 'No, we have no ale; but perhaps my wife calculated to depreciate and neutralise the i

He is a strong man, resolute and deter- he comes in and shuts the door, and while he strongly to be condemned." He considered money will be no match for him. He has are the footsteps of his pursuer, and goes Parliamentary history, and, as leader of the

The man decides to get down, too, and Faster and faster the man runs before remained the same had that Act never existed.

go through the wood; he will rob the little him.

press its opinion that the interposition of the the day of their receipt, in the same manner OUR ASSORTMENT of Spectacles and has never joined in the conversation; he is has never joined in the conversation; he is can sell him a glass of ale. He enters without ceremony. "Ale?" says tive and without the aid of Parliament the the convention places no restriction upon the can give thee a drink of milk. Come in." So dependent action of the Legislature, and is certain that the Post Office will, in case under He is a strong man, resolute and determined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They mined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They mined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They mined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They mined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They mined; the boy with his pockets full of sits waiting for the milk footsteps pass. They money will be no material for the stake in his hand, angry and told the others that his father's house is on with the stake in his hand, angry and ward a motion for the purpose of the convention being to afford told the others that he has not yet come up with ward a motion for the purpose of condemning facilities for the transmission of small amounts the unprecedented exercise of nower which had within five miles of it, and ne means to get out at the nearest point and walk, or rather out at the nearest point and walk, or rather run over to his home through the great run over the great run over

Moreover, he contended that the prerogates; the father of fifty-six children.