DESPATCHES.

- New York, Dec. 4 .- Premptly at eleven o'clock the funeral procession of Mr Greeley started from Mr Sinclair's house, in Forty-fifth street. Many affecting scenes took passethere. During the morning Mr Greeley's daughters were inconsolable in their grief. The corpse was borne by ten Next came the chief mourners then the Tribune Association; then the Herald Club; then followed in succession military and civic officers of the United States located in the adjoining cities; the State officers of this and other States now this city, the Mayor and members the Common Council, the Mayors and members of the Common Councils of Brooklyn, Jersey City, Long Island, Newark, Paterson and Elizabeth, reesentatives from Philadelphia and Baltijudges from all the courts, and a line of citizens of immense length. At 11:20 the procession entered the church. The solemnity of the scene was one of the most impressive character, and the stillness was such that it seemed, as though the people scarcely breathed. Preminent among those who slowly wound their way up to the centre aisle was Thurlew Weed, Hon. Wm. Ewarts, Erastus Brooks, Gen. Cochrane, Hon. James Brooks, &c. There were also present P. M. Gen. Creswell, Gen. Dix, Ex-Gov. Morgan, Gen. Sherdian, Governor Randolph, at 4,80 to 6,50. The funeral ceremonies were istened to in an impressive silence, Dr. Chapin's rendering of Scriptural passages being very touching. Miss Clara Louise Kellogg next sang very touchingly "I know ley quiet and unchanged; receipts 0,000 that my Redeemer liveth," after which bush; sales 00,000 bushels; at 90c for Henry Ward Beecher delivered a brief funeral oration. The procession is now en bush; at 53 to 55c for old western mixed; 50 route from Chapin's Church to Greenwood to 551c for new; 52 to 54 for white; 49 to 52 Cemetery. It is one of the most imposing funeral processions, in point of nunbers and representative persons and bodies, ever witnessed in this city.
