BLACKBURN. There were five Conserva tive enune flors retiring and seven mour bers of the Laberal party, and the result of the contest, which was watched with great interest, was the return of nine Conserva tives to three Radicals.

BOLTON. - Twelve Conservatives retired. and there were vigorous contests in six out of seven wards. Ten Conservatives and two Liberals were returned.

BRISTOL. - There was no excitement and no crowding until after the results of the balloting were announced. The not result is a gain of two seats to the Conservatives Cambridge. - The Conservatives contest ed every ward. The official returns were made at eight a clock, by which it was seen that the Conservatives sustained their postion in St. Andrew's ward, and that the Liborals kept their places in their strong hold at Barnwell. The result of the water matter is that the two parties in the council remain as before. COLCHESTER. - All three wards into which the borough is divided were contested, and the Conservatives candidates were consider. ably ahead in each. The Conservatives have now 18 members against six Liberals. DEVONPORT. - Five wards were contested | Western Mails. and the Conservatives carried eight seats out of ten.

DOVER. - The first municipal election under the act has passed off here with the m! most good order and quietude. The result Cape Vincent at 3.30 pour, daily, Sundays ex of the contest was the return of 5 Conservatives to 1 Liberal, the effect of the clection being to give the Conservatives a majority of 2 in the Council.

EXETER. - The Radicals have been thoroughly defeated. They determined to contest every ward in the city, but as the two they nominated in one ward declined to high: the Conservatives were then able to return their candidates unopposed. In the other three wards the Conservatives were then able to return their candidates unopposed In the other three wards the Conservatives returned every one of their candidates and took five of the six seats. The organisation of the Conservative party was admirable. and as this was a strictly party fight, it is very encouraging for the Conservatives. should the Attorney General accept the vacant judgeship.

GRAVESEND, -- The six retiring councillors were all renominated by the secretary the Conservative Association, and have al been re-elected without opposition.

GUILDFORD. - The elections have resulted in a great Conservative victory. There were four Conservative and four Liberal can dates, and the former were all returned Hastings .- All the Conservative cand dates were elected. The six outgoing councillors were Radicals. HEREFORD. The contests here ended the return of 4 Conservatives and 2 Laberals, which gives the Conservative party time since the passing of the Municipal Corporations Act. of all the Conservative candidates by large

LEEDS. -The Conservatives gave the Radi cals a good beating with their own weapons. The Ballot has enabled the Constitutions party to increase considerably their numerical strength in the Town Council. Last year they had 23 out of 64 members, and now they have 26.

MANCHESTER. -The result of the politing | Bond Street, N.Y. here (most of the wards being fought on political grounds) gave an increase of two votes to the Conscrvatives. NORTHAMPTON. -- For some years past the Liberals have had a large majority in this town, but this year the Conservatives, by way of trying the Ballot, opposed the IV: Liberals in all the wards. This resulted in Kingston & Wolfe Island Ferry the return of 5 Conservatives and 1 Liberal. quietly, though some of the wards were keenly contested. The triumph of the Conservative party is more complete than had been anticipated. Out of the 16 members returned only 2 are Liberals. PLYMOUTH. - The election - proceeded very quietly. The Conservatives gained four seats. PRESTON. -- There was no organised political contest in the town, the excitement consequent upon the recent borough election having considerably abated. The Radicals, however, showed fight in some unexpected quarters, and brought out prominent members of the Roman Catholic Kingston & Gananoque Route. themselves in opposition to the publicans, the latter determined to bring out candidates of their own, and succeeded in carrying them. As to the general result of the elections, 7 Conservatives and 5 Radicals have been returned. Out of 48 members of the Town Council there are now 35 Conservatives and 13 Radicals.

SALEFORD .- In this borough the Conservatives carried all before them.

excitement, and many voters did not go to the pell. The Liberals gained two seats. WIGAN.-A great Conservative victory Brock Street. has been won in Wigan. Ten councillors, Kingston, Sept. 23rd, 1872. six of whom were Conservative and four Radicals, had completed their term of office. Every seat was fought, and the result was the return of the whole of the ten Comservatives by substantial majorities. The elections were conducted quietly, and there are no allegations of bribery on either WINDSOR. -The Conservatives were extremely successful in the Royal borough, and secured five out of the six seats.
