Captain Little has entered an action against the man Cooke, who in such a dastardly way shot his tame moose the other day, and Jooke deserves to be punished for it It appears that Captain Little was offered $300 for the deer a few days before it was shet, by proprietors of Barnum's Museum in Nev York, it being the only tame moose they had heard of in Canada. -Ottawa Times.

The Chatham Planet calls attention to the fact, that the Elgin Association sawmill, now owned by the Hon. Archibald McKellar, has formed a sawdust-bar across the river, which has seriously interfered with its navigation. It was with the greatest difficulty, that the gunboat Prince Alfred could be got across it this fall, and it is feared that unless some measures are taken, to prevent the dumping of sawdust into the river, it will be blocked up effectually before spring. The business men of the town are very outspoken in regard to the matter.

The Carleton Place . Herald office and the dwelling-house of the preprietor, were both totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday eyening. The fire originated in the Kingston. printing-office, and caught the dwelling-house, which, with all the outbuildings, were consumed. The furniture was mostly all saved The house was quite new. There is an insurance on the property, but in what effice, er to what amount, could not be ascertained in the confusion There is no fire engine in the village; otherwise, it is thought, the property could have been saved.

There is, probably, no way in which we can benefit our readers, more than by recommending to them for general use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.
