YORK DESPATCHES.

New York, Jen. 6.—Stokes was in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning to receive sentence. Tremain, his counsel, made an address in relation to the bill of exceptions to the Judge's rulings, ten dollars per week. which he proposed to offer. The prisoner was then asked what he had to say why sentence of death should not be passed. Stokes thereupon said he had not violated the law intentionally; that the tesplications to be sent to the undersigned. timony upon which he was convicted was manufactured and perjured. Judge Boardman then in a feeling address, in which he alluded to the prisoner's youth and social Oct. 10. surroundings, sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on Friday, the twenty-eighth of February next, being the shortest time that could be legally allowed. The convicted man Stokes and his counsel were in council last evening. They were greatly surprised at the verdict, and expressed their purpose of applying at once for the stay of proceedings, and ultimately if possible seek another trial. It seems that the lawyers regard the newspaper and public clamour about the prevalence of murder as partly responsible for the adverse verdict. They would have deferred the trial of the case-at this time, but for the demands of the prisoner and his relatives. A large number of Communists will shortly arrive in this city from Paris. Their friends are preparing to give them a re-
