LECTURE ON THE ANCIENT MANU. SCRIPTS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS. Sir,-The other evening, the Rev. C. E. Cartwright gave us here a most interesting lecture on the above subject. He exhibited a perfect mastery of his matter, and made all circumstances connected with these MSS., and all their peculiarities perfectly plain to the comprehension of a mixed audience. He explained how they came to be written in Greek by Hebrews; when, where, and under what circumstances they were found; in what number and in what condition; on what substances written and in what character, of which last he exhibited facvery small indeed comparatively -offers an

You are doubtless aware that some of the important of these MSS. are called Uncial. They are written in an extremely curious manner, all in capital letters, without points or spaces to separate the words, of which the
