THE ALDINE. An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE; while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic_skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year, While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception -- alone and unapproached -absolutely without competition in price or character. ### Art Department.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American people appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of art. The publishers are anthorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists America. In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign Advertise! masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest. avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copies of any kind. quarterly tinted plates for 1873 will reproduce four of John St. Davis' inimitable childsketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone, worth the price of a year's subscription.
