This is not the first phenomenon of the kind that has been noticed on the lake. Sometime last year the lake rose suddenly both at Charlotte and Oswego and all along the south shore. It was not in time of ice that this occurred. A contemporary suggests that the going out of the ice between the upper and lower Falls in the city may have caused this. This is impossible. The ROSE, EDWIN, Princess-st. rise was distinctly noticed as coming from toward the lake, and again the ice did not go out from above till a later hour in the
