Spain is daily gaining strength. It now exists in eight northern Provinces, and extending to the central and southern Provinces. The Government is acting on the

the insurgents. In the events of the King's abdication the Senate and Congress will go into joint session and continue to sit as one Chamber until the threne is filled, or a future form eralship of the Basque Provinces. The tion as irregular, unjustinable, and refusing touching couplet of which reads: to serve under Hidalgo because he participated in the massacre at Saugil Barracks in opposition, finally resigned, and the officers withdrew their resignations, but the Ministry recently appointed to a new and important command and, appealing to the Cortes, obtained nearly an unanimous vote of confidence. The King from the beginning disapproved of the promotion of Don Hidalgo, and feels affronted because his Cabinet compels him. through the vote of the Cortes, to quiesce in the last appointment. is given out that Zorilla will retire to private life if the King persists in his resolve to abdicate. A number of the Cortes, belonging to the most advanced section of the Republican party, held a meeting yesterday to consider what action should be taken in the crisis. About thirty persons were present. They resolved to maintain a pacific yet energetic attitude, and if the King's determination shall be irrevocable, encourage orderly manifestations in favour of the estab lishment of the Republic. The snow interferes with the operation: against the Carlists. General Moriones. Commander-in-Chief of the Army of th North, is making a forced march in the hopes of overtaking General Ollo, who, the head of 2,000 insurgents has again entered the Province of Navarre. The Carlist bands under the command of Santa Cruz, Macazaga, and Iturbide have effected a junction in the Province of Guiruzcoa.

Madrid, Feb. 10, (Midnight.)-At o'clock this evening King Amaedeus announced to Senor Zorilla that he was determined to adhere to his resolution to abdicate since Saturday last, when his Majesty declared his intention of quiting the throne. The Minister have strenously endeave ured | row evening. to dissuade him from doing so, but their efforts have proved futile. The announce- merrow evening. ment that the abdication is certain creates a profound sensation, but tranquility prevails. A Royal message announcing the determinat ion of the King will soon be submitted to the Cortes. After its presentation, the members of the Cabinet will tender the installation of the new Lieut. Governor their resignations.
