of the Township of Storrington Gentlemen,-We, the undersigned, having been appointed auditors of the township counts for the year 1872, have, in accorance with your instructions, examined and audited the accounts of your treasurer, McNeely, Esq., and find that they are kept the vouchers, &c., (kept on fyle) being produced, were all examined by us seriatim, and in every instance were found to correspond with the entries made in his books. Also, we are pleased to be able to state that the treasurer has a balance now on hand of $127.09, whilst $756,23 remain yet to be received from as previously announced; if any change the collector, making the handsome sum $883,32 in favour of the corporation you have the honour so ably to represent. In conci sion, allow us to congratulate you upon the very prosperous state of the township financial not being encumbered with any liabilities whatever, most conclusively proving that t affairs of the corporation under your control have been managed with unquestionable accuracy and economy. The above is most respectfully submitted. We have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servants, JAMES LAWSON, NATH. CAVERLY. Battersea, Feb. 8, 1873.
